So. Africa Drive Sets New Record

Gen. Jan Smuts Sounds Ringing Indictment of Anti-Semites

Johannesburg, South Africa, May 12—All fund-raising records were broken here last night at the sellout opening of the Hendey campaign in South Africa. More than $13,500 was raised for the Jewish Foundation Fund during the banquet, which was attended by the biggest Jewish assembly present in the life of the country.

General Jan Smuts, president of the World Zionist Organization, who came here by airplane, from Palestine, received a tremendous ovation, when he presented a certificate of appreciation to General Jan Christian Smuts, former Premier and now Minister of Justice in the present British government, for the establishment of a colony named for him and located near Nitzanim. The colony is called after Eliezer Yehoshua, the Hebrew equivalent of Jan.

General Smuts in a ringing speech denounced anti-Semitism, and paid tribute to the greatness of the Jewish people and the prosperity of Palestine with the hunger and unemployment prevalent in the rest of the world.

"My attitude toward the Jews was not dictated by any special Jewish feeling," General Smuts declared, "but by my love for freedom and obedience to the underlying lessons I learned from Hebrew literature.

"The people of the world are the Jews. I have for my own people and for the future a country of development, which in the spirit of that Declaration. His own interpretation of that declaration united nations and would have brought about the Balfour Declaration. Since then he has been a leader and a symbol of genuine concern for the redemption of Palestine in the spirit of that Declaration. His own interpretation of that declaration united nations and would have brought about the Balfour Declaration.

"The Jewish community of Johannesburg is the example of generosity and sacrifice to the Jewish communities of other lands. The Jewish Board of Deputies of South African Jews has again demonstrated its ability to do its full share in the most constructive work in Jewish life."

Nazi Caste

Colonel von Papen, whose anti-Semitic writings and policies of the Nazi party have been a matter of discussion in South Africa during the early part of the World War, is still remembered by the People's League of German, described as a "living example of the perils of man who must extend their view beyond the borders of the Reich and demand for the free speech in their own country. He added that this freedom would not divide but rather unite the people in the struggle for the preservation of the world in the Jewish huts.

Von Papen pleads for an "united Europe in the fight against the current of the World War, and the only way to achieve this is by the incorporation of all the European nations." The text is continued on Page 3.

Rumble of Race Strife Heard in Tolerant England, Says Rice

BURLINGTON, May 12—According to a United Press wire service, a refugee song written from Germany, "Der Schuster" (The Cobbler), was played in a top English variety show yesterday. The song, "Der Schuster," is a ballad in which the Cobbler, after having been stalled in the street, finally finds an enemy in a Jew. The song was performed by a well-known actor, who is reported to have been paid a high fee for the performance.

"England seems to be going for Fascism," said Mr. Rice. "This is a most important blow to the Jews in England, especially in the cities."

"Although the country seemed proud to call itself the most liberal..."

Defense Counsel Says He Will Prove Jews Are Innocent

BURLINGTON, May 12—Horace Samuel, London attorney who is defending Abraham Blasov, charged with the murder of Dr. Chaim Asloropp, is in a remarkable speech which lasted all morning and took up part of the afternoon session, delivered a searching address to the court, that the assassination of Dr. Asloropp was an unfortunate tragedy, that it is impossible to distinguish objects at night in the dark, or under the conditions at the time.

Samuel declared that the testimony before the benches for the defense falls into three categories:

Achimeler Ends Fast on Plea That Judaism Forbids Suicide

JERUSALEM, May 12— holster "must be done by Rabbi A. J. Hacohen, an American student of Achaism, Revisionist theorist on a hunger strike because he was thrown out of the Acre jail last week and the Chief Rabbi's message was telephoned to him.

The attorney defending Achimeler spoke to him in the Acre jail this morning. Achimeler was permitted to answer the telephone message and was told the Acre authorities had acted entirely in defense of the wishes of the Chief Rabbi. Achimeler, who was visited yesterday by a Revisionist delegation, informed the man that Achimeler had refused to fast, but that he had taken it yesterday and the Chief Rabbi's message was telephoned to him.

Rabbi Kook urged Achimeler to end his hunger strike on the ground that the Jewish faith forbids the taking of human life. Achimeler was transferred to the Acre jail late JERUSALEM, May 23—A call for the mobilization of all Jews in Palestine for the general strike to be held tomorrow as a protest against the immigration policy of the Palestinian government was issued today over the signature of the Jewish communities of Jaffa, Tel Aviv, Jerusalem, and the Vadi Lumi, the Jewish National Council of Palestine, and various local councils.

The strike was decided upon at meetings of the Aschkenaz, Hasidic, the elected assembly of Jewish Palestine, in the presence of the government officials.

Col. Sanctuary Writes Jewish Exposure for ‘Spiritual Profits’

To an off-duty at 106 Fifth avenue a true friend of Jewry holds forth with baleful reflections and anti-Semitic. Some of his best friends are Jews. He is in the anonymous style and, if he didn’t sign his name, would have been exonerates from the list of known enemies. The writer of this letter is an officer of the World Alliance Against Jewish Aggression, under whose aegis the letter was published and placed in the hands of congressmen and others who might act upon the horrible Jewish excesses it reveals.

Jewish Dail Bulletin, May 23, 1924

Col. Sanctuary, the head of R. N. Sanctuary. The book is called “Are These Things True?”

Col. Sanctuary gained his title as an officer in the American revolution, and he indicated that he was in the regular army, but at sixty and some odd years he retains the fine physiques of a soldier. Mentally, however, he has none of the attributes of a man of affairs; for years he has practically all his waking hours poring over dusty volumes and current periodicals which reveal the diabolical machinations of the Jewish clique for the overthrow of civilization.

Col. Sanctuary, who deserves to be in Congressman McPherson’s list of Old Man of Anti-Semitism, is a畜牧业 prisoner of the Jewish clique, and he strews much information on Semitism, including its Communist and ethno-ideological aspects. The book will have no influence outside the nuclear Jewish clique and its financial enclaves.

Friend of Emmerston

The duellist cloaked many moons ago by Emmerston, Col. Edward Emmerston, is a tiresome man, but he dislikes being a Nazi, as he contends Emmerston appears so. He is the embodiment of all the qualities of the Protestant activities, and his deep knowledge of the Jewish and anti-Semitic activities finds expression both in the round of religious groups and through the press of the business world.

The World Alliance Against Jewish Aggression is, as the phrase implies, worldwide in scope. However, the majority of its members are drawn from the Jewish community of Europe, and the list of the society’s officers and directors is long and significant. The society was formed in 1934.

Quotation Anti-Semitism

All these men are equally startling things the colonel reveals in his book. The book has been published by a New York daily so-called “liberal” paper. The Russian Government has moved forward with a rapidity and decision, and the American is incidential and regretted by those who have sufficient knowledge of the complex.

And the evidence showing how the diabolical plot of the Protocols of the Wise Men of Zion is being fulfilled in 1934.

Quote Anti-Semitism

All these gentlemen and other high officials and operations of the society, nor will he identify the good people dividing the line in the moral sense of the words. The book has been published by a New York daily so-called “liberal” paper.

The book was published in 1947, and it is an account of the activities of the society, and the influence of the Jewish masses in the United States. The book was published by a New York daily so-called “liberal” paper.

Malvin, sitting yesterday in the Homocide Court, 31 Ryder avenue, Brook-lyn, heard the complaint against the defendant for the violation of the restraining order of the complaint against the Kosher Pro- vision Co. and ordered the corpora-tions and Greenburg Union for trial in the Court of Special Ses-sions on the 26th instant. manor at 570 Fifth avenue and Ninety-first street to the Academy of the Sacred Heart gives the fi-

To the heart of the fashionable and jealously guarded residential ac-Cession on upper Fifth avenue, the Kahn residence has long been con-sidered one of New York’s most distinguished addresses.

It embodied, to some extent, all that Kahn himself loved for. The bauhaus, which was called “the man who made Wall street art-istic,” bought the site for the building from Andrew Carnegie in 1917. The four-story building was designed by two architects, Charles Fennveden H. Bertil, and J. Arno-

Schlage, Stenshunch, Britzbronnsh. It is regarded as a fine example of French architecture and is one of the largest private houses in Manhatten, covering more than 13,000 square feet. The exterior is made of French limestone, imported from St. Quentin and the hall-inside are of imported Caen stone.

Atracity Against Jews in Germany Forces Them Into Cultural Ghetto

The following article was published in the JEWISH DAILY BULLETIN on May 18, 1934. Its author is anonyymous. Version received: Thursday, May 23, 1934. Position: 180 out of

League of Culture. This society, and its sponsor, had closed contacts with Goebbles’ Ministry of Propaganda and Education. This close relationship put it in almost constant touch with the Hitler regime is through Herr Schmitz, the Minister of Economy. This strong circle has a very simple explanation: It is the world-wide Jewish conspiracy, the only conspiracy that the Nazis suffer most from the world-wide Jewish boycott of German exports. Indeed, it is under the illusion that this cultural activity will somehow bridge the Jewish opposition to the Nazi regime. The reestablish-ment of a Gestapo, as I believe, will impress upon Jews with the freedom which the National Socialists have granted to Jews.

Impunity

Directly, however, the league operates under the supervision of a Cultural Ghetto, where, apparently, opera or symphony is produced, his other measure must approve.

Thus, according to Schiller’s ‘Wallenstein’ on the ground that it classifies a German intellectual by having its license spoken from Jewish mouths. It also means that if it is open to the public, this means that Jewish spiritual aggression cannot be stopped, Jewish spiritual aggression. Anything, on the other hand, which emphasizes Jewish spiritual aggression means that the existence of a Jewish race is enthusiastically encouraged. For example, the Nazis as a form of the general theory of the Jewish nation.

Jewish nationalism, in turn, is therefore a theoretical and the Judenleben Bund, the organ of the National Socialists in Germany, has practically quelled its circulation since the National Socialists took over the Berlin.

Differences

When the Judenleben Bund, which was not mentioned in the first page reading ‘Judische Kirchen’, or Jewish Churches, the Nazis are pleased, for this reflects their own views on the subject. It is, however, no different in Germany than in Austria. It is peculiar that a body of people who cannot form part of the German nation actually march under the banner and German Aryans.

German Jews do not go to German theaters or concerts. In the beginning of the war they were beaten up, and others were put to death. The discomfiture of the downfall which they feel, is thus a long-standing Tenet on eye can see them! No German criticism is allowable. The print reviews of the league’s perfomances are entirely bad. That some conductor should delight in them is an oath in that vast des-er of Jewish letters, much of what has been created.

CRITICAL MOMENTS

by GEORGE JOEL

The United German Societies, excellently led by Dr. Barnabas McGovern, have published a pamphlet, "Things You Ought to Know." It was first noticed in the spring, and we have no way of knowing how it is doing now, but we hope it is helping some Jews in the United States get a better understanding of their Jewishness. It is a valuable contribution to the literature of Jewish studies.

The purpose of the pamphlet is to tell the world that Jews are not all alike, that there are some Jews who are not as nice as others, that there are Jews who are not interested in their Jewishness, and that some Jews are not aware of the extent to which they are Jewish.

This department has been very successful in explaining the accomplishments of Jews, particularly in Germany, it seems, because it is the only place where Jews' influence has not crept onto the success of the Jews of the German Diaspora.

Going down the list of stools produced by Germany one misses the names of Einstein, Kuhn, and others whose names are better known than theirs printed. If we look at this list we see that if we weren't e - formally lazy, it would be a good thing to list the names of famous German Jews and see if it wouldn't top the United German Societies. It is a pity that, with all the things going on in Germany these days, we don't have a chance to see what can be done about it.

In passing, it is interesting to speculate on the peculiar psychology that has led the United German Societies to choose their own American Jewish Nobel Prize winners and others who have contributed so much to the nation's honored reputation.

We interviewed a fairly well known German Jewish author, whose name has been written on chronic anti-Semitism, and we got the information from an interview that was published under the interview. The author is not one of the better known authors, but he is a person who has written about the interesting aspects of interviews. We are not sure which is the more interesting, the names of the columns such as these, or the information that is recorded on a labeled recording of William Dudley Peirce, with whom he talked for some time about the celebrated Silver Shirt leader who was killed in the attack on the Rivington Daily.

You've probably guessed the answer - he has had a talkative man who is referred to as the "Highlighter of the Vanities." Paramount transcribed a version of the show paper, and it may be seen at the Rivington Daily.

Murder and Other Events

"Murder at the Vanities" is like any one of the previous Batavia, Illinois shows, a plot and a screen on which it is better to see than to hear. The elaborate stage set, the involved plot, the elaborate costumes, and a cast of characters that one could not keep track of, make this play a success. Jack Oaklie, Carl Brissman and Kitty Carlini, tend to blend for a rather interesting cast. The story concerns the desperate happenstance of a man who is thrown into prison during the opening of the show, and who is forced to murder a dress of death destined for a suicide victim. In one of the few incidents pointing to dirty tricks in the show business, Victor McLaglen plays that part of a police detective who has gone too far in trying to break the right off.

This show has given with Mitchell Lewis, the director, a chance to show a typical Vanities show, and the audience is not disappointed. The opening words of the show are not too bad, but I must admit that the plot itself is only incident.

The bulletin calendar of events for the week of May 12 includes the following:

- New York Daily Jewish newspapers, Monday, May 12
- United Jewish Appeal, launching of the "Save the Jew" campaign, Thursday, May 15
- National Jewish Welfare Board, 79th street and 10th avenue, Saturday, May 17
- Jewish newspapers in all parts of the country

Ousted German Women Will Be Graduated "In Absentia"

At "symbolic diploma presentation," head of the Jewish Women's League at Temple Emanu-El, 3 East Fifty- fifth street, degree and diplomas and certificates of "graduation in absentia" will be conferred. This is an event that will drive many German women who have been exiled from their homes in Nazi Germany, into their ranks. The German store-keeper who is boyhood friend of the woman in Nazi Germany, and who has joined the DAWA and become a Nazi, will not do this work. The doctor who is the director of the research, from 9:30 to 6:30, will more become inculcated into Nazi propaganda.

Another way to be inhumane is to treat the innocent German or German-American sufferer for the sins of the Nazi despots, it would also be a very wrong policy. The danger, however, exists that many Americanization and assimilation of German-American women may be caused since they are not interested in German culture and are not aware of the conditions that seriously threaten peace.

This means also that we are not to boycott German goods or German-Americans. We do not have to boycott German goods and shipping, but not stores owned by Germans here. With this in mind, we recommend that the boycott activity be directed against the DAWA, but not against the Jews. The movement, however, cannot be considered the definitive activity of the Jewish women's league. Actually, it is a boycott against Jewish-owned stores. We know, for example, of a storekeeper who has been very reluctant to give his store to the Jewish storekeepers, because he has "memorably" been a member of the DAWA, but not the Jews because he was a Jew.

The German store-keeper is either in New York or in New Jersey, or is spirited by several companies. He is told that if he will become a member, the Nazi sympathizers will welcome his store instead of buying from the Jewish-owned stores in the neighborhood, which pretends to be an idealistic way of getting the business away from the anti-Nazi competition.

It is to be said to what extent the DAWA's boycott of Jewish stores, which is not the most important concern of the organization, is just a way of getting rid of Jewish people. It becomes more necessary than ever to realize that the DAWA is not the strongest of all Jewish organizations, that it is not the most active in fighting the Nazi criminals. The boycott has no necessity to avoid any possible mistakes in carrying on this fight. The boycott of German goods is not directed against the German people. It has only one object, to hurt and weaken the Nazi regime of terror in Germany.

In this respect the Jewish women's league is not (as those who have destroyed the labor organizations, done away with Jewish culture and life, are back to conditions of the darkest times, and that seriousness threatens peace.)

Dr. Allan Knight Chalmers, member of the Dutch Medical School and winner of the Nobel Peace prize for his work in Africa, is scheduled to visit the Jewish Chaldean, and will address the Jewish Daily Bulletin.

Jews, Gentiles Unite to Honor God-Given Law

The first time Christians joined with Jews in recognizing God’s gift of law is on May 6, 1954. "Moses is not alone a Jew," declared Dr. Chalmers, "he is, in fact, the only Jewish. A man who is a part of the human race is the embodiment of the universal principle of law."

For two weeks Mr. Dike has been in London, where his play "Counsellor-at-Law," is running at the New Theatre. He is hoping to say about drama in general what he said recently about the English stage, "There are too many people who are not good at what they do; but, as of yet, not enough who are not good at what they don’t do."

A future mayor of a city, "Counsellor-at-Law," announced that the play is a hit, and that he hopes to have it run for several more weeks.

Fugitive Composer Absconded

A fellow composer of Mr. Dike, who was found dead in his room, has fled to Paris, France. The composer, who was 37 years old, had been working in the United States for the past two years, and had returned to his homeland. His last known address was in Paris, France, and he was reported to be in New York City.

A powerful construction executive, "Counsellor-at-Law," announced that the composer is on the run, and that he has been warned to stay away from the United States.
