

The Second Palestine

by WILLIAM B. ZIFF
A NEW FORCE IN JEWRY

Jewry Needs Hard Statemen To Match British Politicians

Ziff Outlines Program That Characterizes Fight For Palestine as Life and Death Struggle With Compromise Barred

This is the last of two articles by the author of "Jewry Must Abandon Peace" and "The New Jew," whose serial presentation by the Jewish Daily Bulletin stirred up to unprecedented comment and enthusiasm. The thesis contained in these columns today and tomorrow is the logical outgrowth of what the writer has previously stated and is in direct sequence to it. The entire collection of articles is being regrouped for issuance in pamphlet form.

By WILLIAM B. ZIFF

We must first recognize that, England is deliberately in the process of creating, not a free community, but a Jewish ghetto in Palestine.

Wm. B. ZIFF

We must next get rid of all the managers and spokesmen of Jewry who have managed to betray our cause so ingloriously. We must face the British politicians with a new type of leadership, men of hard, indomitable will, who will not be swerved from our needs by any threats whatsoever. We cannot match these cold-blooded, materialistic statesmen with gentle chemists and Messianic rabbis. They must be matched with hard-headed young men who cannot be talked or bamboozled out of a single right belonging to the Jewish people.

We must back their will up with a devoted Jewish folk, one that is bound to them by a fraternal Jewish structure, which will allow our claims to be backed by something more tangible than empty words. We must make Lloyd George's words no mere phrase but a prophecy.

Must Be Statesmen

Our leaders must be statesmen not bachelors, who will know directly what they want and as directly go after it.

We must recognize this for what it is, life and death struggle of the Jewish people, and abandon the word "compromise" completely.

Our program should be substantially as follows:

We do not recognize any parity of interests in Palestine of any kind.

It is no longer a vague place where a few Jews are admitted, but the foundation of the Jewish State to which the British are committed. The words of the Mandate "reconstituting the Jewish home in Palestine" must continue to mean nothing less than that.

Asks Wauchoppe's Recall

We demand the free right of Jews to come and go as they please, in both Palestine and Transjordan, in conformity with the Mandate, subject only to such restrictions as are recognized by the regularly constituted Jewish Agency.

We ask for the immediate recall of High Commissioner Wauchoppe and replacement by a Jewish official who will be more acceptable to us.

We ask the right to settle both in the peninsula and the island of Cyprus without interference from the British.

We demand the immediate repeal of restrictive legislation of any kind directed against the Jewish population.

Right to Arm

We ask for the right of any free people to arm and protect ourselves from the desert marauders on all sides of us.

We do not recognize the English as our overlords and rulers, but merely as administrators to a mandate territory, for which they have received a fully compensating advantage.

We ask to be left alone in our desire to construct a Jewish economic, cultural and political sphere of interest in the Near East as an independent Jewish state. We will not brook interference from anyone on this point. It seems to be a large order, ing the basic anti-Jewish feeling of English officialdom itself.

The core spot of the empire is at the present India. Moreover, neither Indians nor Arabs have shown any historic loyalties at any time, and by both sides the tradition can hardly be expected to.

The Arabs are fanatic and warlike, and by the same token they are abetted by Indian Moslems, will support Indian Moslems in turn against any anti-English, anti-Christian insurrection. In fact, they would leave England's flank totally unprotected with a solid block of Arabs and Afghans between England and the Suez Canal.

Such an all-Moslem insurrection would immediately surround the Canal, in which event it would be hopeless to try to hold India.

Vital to Empire

The presence of a large, peaceful Jewish nation on the Eastern Mediterranean, friendly to England, and apart from the community of interests which exists in the Moslem world, is utterly necessary to the future security of the empire. We should take advantage of this accident of circumstance and press it home strongly to the English War Office.

Next in order of importance is England's raw flung position, and her situation as a manufacturing nation which is not self-sufficient.

If a loyal Jewry developed Jewish world, we would have directly and continuously pointed out to them that the English brand of anti-Semitism is a far more malignant body than the German kind since it deliberately sabotages the Jewish effort to escape into a free, wholesome life, they can be pressed upon to recognize that the de facto condition of war exists and guide themselves accordingly.

Could Invoke Boycott

Since the English have shown themselves unworthy of their world, there is no reason to assume that they could be trusted in any other undertaking, commercial or otherwise. Our people everywhere, even in the dominions, could be taught to be completely and bitterly anti-English, to refuse to buy English goods, and to ally themselves with the Irish, French, Italians, Indians or any one else who wishes to take a hand at breaking up the English overlords. Even the Jewry by no means to be overlooked in this, since they among others have not only a strong commercial rivalry with England but a deep resentment against her because of colonial possessions.

Nations which are commercially and politically hostile to England have looked on us as weak, cringing and worthless individuals in the past, will welcome our attitude and, being realists, directly seek to gain by it. In other words, we will simply play the game of the nations against England, as she has played it against us in Palestine.

'Perfidious Albion'

We will energetically publicize the name "perfidious Albion" throughout the world and insist her to a relentless little diatribe that she will be a long time coming.

We must believe that there is a considerable body of decent English public opinion which is in absolute variance with the present dishonorable British policy in Palestine, and looks on the Jews quite correctly as our genuine friends.

We will equip these friends with the threat of retaliation, so that they can put teeth in their remarks, it is quite possible that English officialdom can be moved from its obdurate course before a complete breach is effected by that nation with a resolute Jewish people.

Can't Change Officials
Surviving all these postulates with a broad view to see which offer possibilities to us, we must dispense with any notion of altergetic windings that they faced before, and time is of tremendous importance to us.

Act Through League

We can lay our case before the League of Nations, not by merely complaining about England's actions, but by actually refusing to cooperate with England further, refusing to pay taxes and to recognize her officials holding out that she had betrayed her trust and had nullified the mandate.

We might strike boldly with open, armed rebellion in Palestine which would electrify even our apathetic Jewish masses throughout the world and bring the matter to a showdown, since England would then be in the position of shooting down Jews in the streets and fields of Eretz Yisrael itself.

All this would put the case in an unyielding relief before the League which happily appears to be growing stronger, England would be compelled to justify herself before the League, since as I pointed out, Palestine is not an English possession but a mandatory territory, held in trust for the Jewish people. She might be in some danger of losing it and at best would be in the position of holding it illegally, a position she would hardly care to be in.

Soviet a Bugaboo

Again there is the presence of the great Russian bear to the north. This Soviet apparatus is a great unspoken bugaboo in the British picture.

No one can believe that the Soviets have ever given over their scheme for world revolution. In making the recent check-checking set of treaties against territorial aggression, Russia deliberately reserved the right to accept any other nation into the Soviet union which cared to go Communist and join her. With all Asia seething with unrest, this same statement remains an ominous threat.

Every nation in Western Europe and the British most of all, has a holy horror of any increasing strength of the Soviet Union by virtue of this kind of threatened increase in its territories.

This brings us down to the sad situation of the Jews in eastern and middle Europe.

The world must be perfectly aware that you cannot degrade a virile and highly civilized people (Continued on Next Page)

CLASSIFIED RATES

PER ADVERTISER LINE
Daily	Sunday	3 Times	7 Times
1.50	1.25	5.75	11.50
1.00	.75	3.75	7.50
1.00	.75	3.75	7.50
1.00	.75	3.75	7.50

Combination rates for consecutive insertion only. Advertisements appearing after expiration will be billed according to the actual space used. Six average words, lower case, to the line. All other type and advertising containing white space will be charged accordingly. (1 cent line per inch.)

One cent for errors allowed for first insertion only.

Classified advertising is accepted subject to the Publisher's right to reject or cancel it at any time.

Published at, Dept. 1140 BROADWAY, NEW YORK

Business & Professional

BEAUTY PARLORS

LOUIS PEREZ, Beauty Specialist, creates individual cosmetics. 935 Fifth Avenue, N. Y. 2-3511.

DIE MAKERS

TOOLS die, stamping, special machinery. 1000 10th Ave., N. Y. C. 6-3619.

JEWISH CURRENT NEWS

is the only Jewish weekly newspaper for the Jewish youth of America. It has the endorsement of the foremost educators and rabbis and is in use in Religious Schools, Y's, Young Judea Clubs and other young people's organizations throughout the country.

Indispensable to Teachers

of

Jewish Current Events

JEWISH CURRENT NEWS is edited by DAVID J. GALTER under the supervision of the Associated Talmud Torahs of Philadelphia, Ben Rosen, Director.

$1.00 per year per subscription.

.75 per year for minimum of ten subscriptions from one address.

.65 per year for minimum of fifty subscriptions from one address.

JEWISH CURRENT NEWS

Write Circulation Department

221 CENTRE STREET
NEW YORK, N. Y.

Assails Laxity Of Anglo-Jews In Child Health

Dr. Salaman Asserts It Takes a Crisis to Arouse Them

(J.T.A. Special Correspondence)
LONDON, Oct. 17.—Sharp criticism of the Anglo-Jewish community for failing to support Jewish health work was voiced here by Dr. Redcliffe N. Salaman, president of the Jewish Board of Deputies of Great Britain, who appealed for funds to carry on the work.

"We seem to need a German crisis, a pogrom, or a Rothschild to be evicted from a restaurant, before the community wakes up," Dr. Salaman said.

"Here we are ready to assist in the upbringing of the young but our intelligent community won't back us."

"This community of ours is a queer one," Dr. Salaman declared. "I have seen it in the streets, and the longer I serve it, the queerer it seems. Why do we allow our schools and religious classes to be so badly equipped and understaffed? Are we really humbugs or do we really care for the children's health and education?"

"We as a Jewish health organization are willing and anxious to receive the support of the community and would beg the Jewish community to give us a free hand in putting these schools and classes in better condition."

"Jews pride themselves on their care for children and probably no children in the world are so overfed as Jewish children. Yet how ready is it to get into organizations to remedy the underfeeding of poor children. The time has come for the Jewish community to act."

Dr. Salaman also paid a tribute to Dr. Schwarzman, to whom the Jewish health organizations in England owe their origin.

Teachers Ban Hitler Work

(Continued from Page One)
The Board of Superintendents and the Board of Education.
District Superintendent Wright said yesterday that, because Das Deutsche Reich is written in Germany, "we may not legally prove it," adding that either an NRA code provision or a New State law of prohibition of the American schools of textbooks printed abroad.

However, the Jewish Daily Bulletin of New York said that the circumstance nor disapproval by the Board of Superintendents would necessarily bar the paper from the schools, as the individual teachers chose to distribute it.

The issue which evoked the condemnatory resolution from the Board of Education was that for October 1934, the statement said:

"Inasmuch as Das Deutsche Reich of October 1934, contains an open pro-Hitler propaganda, we strongly condemn the same. We shall likewise refuse to assist in the sale of any of any numbers containing such propaganda in closed or open form."

Eugene Jackson, of Samuel J. Tilden School, Brooklyn, explained yesterday that he was particularly objected to was entitled "Der 19 August, 1934," the article of which was described as flagrant Nazi propaganda.

E. Elsie, manager of the Westminster firm, said sample copies are usually distributed free at the beginning of each year or term, but that this year this practice has been abandoned. The price is ten cents a copy.

Deutsch Weds Texans In Rite at City Hall

Aldermanic President Bernard S. Deutsch yesterday performed his first marriage ceremony when, as Acting Mayor, he wed Rita McKenzie, twenty-two of Amarillo, Tex., to Franz Murdock, son of the Mayor of that city.

The couple, on tour with a radio show, appeared at City Hall to be married by Mayor LaGuardia but as the Mayor was still absent on his Wisconsin tour, the ceremony was performed by the LaPollettes, Mr. Deutsch was sought to officiate.

Murdock, who has a reputation down in Texas as a hard-driving cowboy, appeared in a business suit, though the legs of his trousers were tucked into buckskin riding boots. He made the bride and groom, Mrs. Miss McKenzie gave no hint of her cowgirl proclivities. Mr. Deutsch forbore to kiss the bride.

Would Coerce Ridder Papers

(Continued from Page One)
committee of the Civic American Conference has come to the conclusion that a friendly attitude on the part of Americans of German origin is essential. The members of the Staats-Herold Corporation can be considered only if the management of the newspaper is willing to accept the will of the great majority of the element which is of German descent.

"We desire and the will of this element is:

"1. Absolutely correct reporting and comment.

"2. Absolute and well-intentioned neutrality towards the government of the German of today.

"3. A cleansing from the editorial staff of your newspapers of those forces of their utterances and activities have an anti-German, arrogant and Communist effect upon the overwhelming majority of New York German-Americans."

"4. The filling of the place of your publications director with a man of German origin (Herr Richter refers to Reinhold Hirsch, said to be of Jewish descent).

"5. Rejection of all points, imputations or formal charges against the German of today, including Germany, the citizens of which are still today fathers and mothers and other relatives of the German of today. (Herr Richter refers to the newspapers of the Staats-Herold Corporation. An attack against those relatives, fathers, mothers, brothers and sisters in the old homeland is an attack, an affront and an insult to every reader (or former reader) of the newspapers of the German of today."

"6. Immediate and unrelenting rejection of articles such as appeared in the Flauderecker during the past few months, which only encouraged, for which in the judgment of this committee the expression 'political trash' and 'stupid propaganda' is to be designated as much too mild."

"7. The guarantee of freedom of political expression by those employees of the German of today Corporation who do not agree with the injurious, insulting and evidently anti-German tone of the newspapers of the German of today."

"8. In short, the wish and desire of the overwhelmingly large portion of New York German-American is a German press."

Thanked for Services

(Special to the J.D.B.)
ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 24.—The Rochester Civic Music Association extended its thanks to Simon Schuster, pianist, who has concluded a three year term of service as its president. Schuster was elected a member of the board of governors.

Jewry Needs Harsh Statutes To Match British Politicians

By WILLIAM B. ZIFF
(Continued from Front Page)
tion of its population and have the rest escape the consequences. Does any sound man believe that the power of the law is lessened by the situation they have forced on Germany?

Expulsion Brewing
Does the world want these harassed Jews of eastern Europe to turn radical?

Why should we self-pedal this inescapable situation with excuses, denials and apologies, in a questionable attempt to save ourselves from some kind of stigma? These people are not pictures in a book. They are living, desperate human beings. If that is a discreditable intelligence in the chancelleries of Europe, they cannot afford to ignore the deadly explosion which is brewing in these pest-holes of East Europe.

The governing agencies of the world should know that if these unfortunate are put in a discreditable and tortured, the whole fabric of civilization will shake in the agony of their maddened death throes.

If the Soviet advance on one front, they will advance on all fronts, and India, too, will be lost to England.

Pointed out in an earlier article that the Jew with his attitude of personal independence in the most of his communities of them.

all. It is only when he is urged and in despair that he will turn to anything which promises to restrain him. He will sell himself in Palestine. He will be a sober and industrious people, a peaceable bulwark against disorder.

After all, the world exists and is partly to the Mandate. The various chancelleries will listen to this as an argument, where they will not listen to it at all. It is only when he is urged and in despair that he will turn to anything which promises to restrain him. He will sell himself in Palestine. He will be a sober and industrious people, a peaceable bulwark against disorder.

Even in a condition of peace it is expedient for the Jew to keep his hands out of the matter. He can hold out much longer in the face of their extreme distress. Qualified observers have reeled the Jewish population under the unbelievable privation and suffering which these poor people are undergoing.

Even in a condition of peace it is expedient for the Jew to keep his hands out of the matter. He can hold out much longer in the face of their extreme distress. Qualified observers have reeled the Jewish population under the unbelievable privation and suffering which these poor people are undergoing.

Even in a condition of peace it is expedient for the Jew to keep his hands out of the matter. He can hold out much longer in the face of their extreme distress. Qualified observers have reeled the Jewish population under the unbelievable privation and suffering which these poor people are undergoing.

Even in a condition of peace it is expedient for the Jew to keep his hands out of the matter. He can hold out much longer in the face of their extreme distress. Qualified observers have reeled the Jewish population under the unbelievable privation and suffering which these poor people are undergoing.

Even in a condition of peace it is expedient for the Jew to keep his hands out of the matter. He can hold out much longer in the face of their extreme distress. Qualified observers have reeled the Jewish population under the unbelievable privation and suffering which these poor people are undergoing.

Even in a condition of peace it is expedient for the Jew to keep his hands out of the matter. He can hold out much longer in the face of their extreme distress. Qualified observers have reeled the Jewish population under the unbelievable privation and suffering which these poor people are undergoing.

Even in a condition of peace it is expedient for the Jew to keep his hands out of the matter. He can hold out much longer in the face of their extreme distress. Qualified observers have reeled the Jewish population under the unbelievable privation and suffering which these poor people are undergoing.

Even in a condition of peace it is expedient for the Jew to keep his hands out of the matter. He can hold out much longer in the face of their extreme distress. Qualified observers have reeled the Jewish population under the unbelievable privation and suffering which these poor people are undergoing.

Even in a condition of peace it is expedient for the Jew to keep his hands out of the matter. He can hold out much longer in the face of their extreme distress. Qualified observers have reeled the Jewish population under the unbelievable privation and suffering which these poor people are undergoing.

Even in a condition of peace it is expedient for the Jew to keep his hands out of the matter. He can hold out much longer in the face of their extreme distress. Qualified observers have reeled the Jewish population under the unbelievable privation and suffering which these poor people are undergoing.

Even in a condition of peace it is expedient for the Jew to keep his hands out of the matter. He can hold out much longer in the face of their extreme distress. Qualified observers have reeled the Jewish population under the unbelievable privation and suffering which these poor people are undergoing.

Even in a condition of peace it is expedient for the Jew to keep his hands out of the matter. He can hold out much longer in the face of their extreme distress. Qualified observers have reeled the Jewish population under the unbelievable privation and suffering which these poor people are undergoing.

Even in a condition of peace it is expedient for the Jew to keep his hands out of the matter. He can hold out much longer in the face of their extreme distress. Qualified observers have reeled the Jewish population under the unbelievable privation and suffering which these poor people are undergoing.

Even in a condition of peace it is expedient for the Jew to keep his hands out of the matter. He can hold out much longer in the face of their extreme distress. Qualified observers have reeled the Jewish population under the unbelievable privation and suffering which these poor people are undergoing.

Even in a condition of peace it is expedient for the Jew to keep his hands out of the matter. He can hold out much longer in the face of their extreme distress. Qualified observers have reeled the Jewish population under the unbelievable privation and suffering which these poor people are undergoing.

6-Month Terms for 7 Who Jeered at 'Putzy'

(Special to the J.D.B.)
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 24.—A woman and six men were in jail today, at the Middlesex House of Correction, with six-month sentences at hard labor to be served, following their conviction for having demonstrated against the arrest of Dr. Ernst F. S. "Putzy" Hanfstaengl when the Hitler aide attended commencement exercises at Harvard university. The offenders also were fined $20 each.

The visit of Dr. Hanfstaengl, German consul general in Prague, aroused widespread opposition. Recently President Conant of Harvard announced rejection of his offer of a scholarship.

Several days ago when a member of the German consulate in Prague requested official information about the suicide, it was learned that he was Fritz Karl Broszinski, who had lived at Berlin and had been a Storm Trooper. In April, 1934, he had deserted from the brigade to which he had been assigned, and after many trials had come to Praha, where he sought in vain to get assistance from some relatives and organizers. He was ordered of deportation caused him to take his own life. When his relatives learned of Broszinski's death they requested that his body be interred in a Christian cemetery.

Several days ago when a member of the German consulate in Prague requested official information about the suicide, it was learned that he was Fritz Karl Broszinski, who had lived at Berlin and had been a Storm Trooper. In April, 1934, he had deserted from the brigade to which he had been assigned, and after many trials had come to Praha, where he sought in vain to get assistance from some relatives and organizers. He was ordered of deportation caused him to take his own life. When his relatives learned of Broszinski's death they requested that his body be interred in a Christian cemetery.

Several days ago when a member of the German consulate in Prague requested official information about the suicide, it was learned that he was Fritz Karl Broszinski, who had lived at Berlin and had been a Storm Trooper. In April, 1934, he had deserted from the brigade to which he had been assigned, and after many trials had come to Praha, where he sought in vain to get assistance from some relatives and organizers. He was ordered of deportation caused him to take his own life. When his relatives learned of Broszinski's death they requested that his body be interred in a Christian cemetery.

Several days ago when a member of the German consulate in Prague requested official information about the suicide, it was learned that he was Fritz Karl Broszinski, who had lived at Berlin and had been a Storm Trooper. In April, 1934, he had deserted from the brigade to which he had been assigned, and after many trials had come to Praha, where he sought in vain to get assistance from some relatives and organizers. He was ordered of deportation caused him to take his own life. When his relatives learned of Broszinski's death they requested that his body be interred in a Christian cemetery.

Several days ago when a member of the German consulate in Prague requested official information about the suicide, it was learned that he was Fritz Karl Broszinski, who had lived at Berlin and had been a Storm Trooper. In April, 1934, he had deserted from the brigade to which he had been assigned, and after many trials had come to Praha, where he sought in vain to get assistance from some relatives and organizers. He was ordered of deportation caused him to take his own life. When his relatives learned of Broszinski's death they requested that his body be interred in a Christian cemetery.

Several days ago when a member of the German consulate in Prague requested official information about the suicide, it was learned that he was Fritz Karl Broszinski, who had lived at Berlin and had been a Storm Trooper. In April, 1934, he had deserted from the brigade to which he had been assigned, and after many trials had come to Praha, where he sought in vain to get assistance from some relatives and organizers. He was ordered of deportation caused him to take his own life. When his relatives learned of Broszinski's death they requested that his body be interred in a Christian cemetery.

Several days ago when a member of the German consulate in Prague requested official information about the suicide, it was learned that he was Fritz Karl Broszinski, who had lived at Berlin and had been a Storm Trooper. In April, 1934, he had deserted from the brigade to which he had been assigned, and after many trials had come to Praha, where he sought in vain to get assistance from some relatives and organizers. He was ordered of deportation caused him to take his own life. When his relatives learned of Broszinski's death they requested that his body be interred in a Christian cemetery.

Several days ago when a member of the German consulate in Prague requested official information about the suicide, it was learned that he was Fritz Karl Broszinski, who had lived at Berlin and had been a Storm Trooper. In April, 1934, he had deserted from the brigade to which he had been assigned, and after many trials had come to Praha, where he sought in vain to get assistance from some relatives and organizers. He was ordered of deportation caused him to take his own life. When his relatives learned of Broszinski's death they requested that his body be interred in a Christian cemetery.

Several days ago when a member of the German consulate in Prague requested official information about the suicide, it was learned that he was Fritz Karl Broszinski, who had lived at Berlin and had been a Storm Trooper. In April, 1934, he had deserted from the brigade to which he had been assigned, and after many trials had come to Praha, where he sought in vain to get assistance from some relatives and organizers. He was ordered of deportation caused him to take his own life. When his relatives learned of Broszinski's death they requested that his body be interred in a Christian cemetery.

Several days ago when a member of the German consulate in Prague requested official information about the suicide, it was learned that he was Fritz Karl Broszinski, who had lived at Berlin and had been a Storm Trooper. In April, 1934, he had deserted from the brigade to which he had been assigned, and after many trials had come to Praha, where he sought in vain to get assistance from some relatives and organizers. He was ordered of deportation caused him to take his own life. When his relatives learned of Broszinski's death they requested that his body be interred in a Christian cemetery.

Several days ago when a member of the German consulate in Prague requested official information about the suicide, it was learned that he was Fritz Karl Broszinski, who had lived at Berlin and had been a Storm Trooper. In April, 1934, he had deserted from the brigade to which he had been assigned, and after many trials had come to Praha, where he sought in vain to get assistance from some relatives and organizers. He was ordered of deportation caused him to take his own life. When his relatives learned of Broszinski's death they requested that his body be interred in a Christian cemetery.

Several days ago when a member of the German consulate in Prague requested official information about the suicide, it was learned that he was Fritz Karl Broszinski, who had lived at Berlin and had been a Storm Trooper. In April, 1934, he had deserted from the brigade to which he had been assigned, and after many trials had come to Praha, where he sought in vain to get assistance from some relatives and organizers. He was ordered of deportation caused him to take his own life. When his relatives learned of Broszinski's death they requested that his body be interred in a Christian cemetery.

Several days ago when a member of the German consulate in Prague requested official information about the suicide, it was learned that he was Fritz Karl Broszinski, who had lived at Berlin and had been a Storm Trooper. In April, 1934, he had deserted from the brigade to which he had been assigned, and after many trials had come to Praha, where he sought in vain to get assistance from some relatives and organizers. He was ordered of deportation caused him to take his own life. When his relatives learned of Broszinski's death they requested that his body be interred in a Christian cemetery.

Several days ago when a member of the German consulate in Prague requested official information about the suicide, it was learned that he was Fritz Karl Broszinski, who had lived at Berlin and had been a Storm Trooper. In April, 1934, he had deserted from the brigade to which he had been assigned, and after many trials had come to Praha, where he sought in vain to get assistance from some relatives and organizers. He was ordered of deportation caused him to take his own life. When his relatives learned of Broszinski's death they requested that his body be interred in a Christian cemetery.

Several days ago when a member of the German consulate in Prague requested official information about the suicide, it was learned that he was Fritz Karl Broszinski, who had lived at Berlin and had been a Storm Trooper. In April, 1934, he had deserted from the brigade to which he had been assigned, and after many trials had come to Praha, where he sought in vain to get assistance from some relatives and organizers. He was ordered of deportation caused him to take his own life. When his relatives learned of Broszinski's death they requested that his body be interred in a Christian cemetery.

Several days ago when a member of the German consulate in Prague requested official information about the suicide, it was learned that he was Fritz Karl Broszinski, who had lived at Berlin and had been a Storm Trooper. In April, 1934, he had deserted from the brigade to which he had been assigned, and after many trials had come to Praha, where he sought in vain to get assistance from some relatives and organizers. He was ordered of deportation caused him to take his own life. When his relatives learned of Broszinski's death they requested that his body be interred in a Christian cemetery.

Several days ago when a member of the German consulate in Prague requested official information about the suicide, it was learned that he was Fritz Karl Broszinski, who had lived at Berlin and had been a Storm Trooper. In April, 1934, he had deserted from the brigade to which he had been assigned, and after many trials had come to Praha, where he sought in vain to get assistance from some relatives and organizers. He was ordered of deportation caused him to take his own life. When his relatives learned of Broszinski's death they requested that his body be interred in a Christian cemetery.

Several days ago when a member of the German consulate in Prague requested official information about the suicide, it was learned that he was Fritz Karl Broszinski, who had lived at Berlin and had been a Storm Trooper. In April, 1934, he had deserted from the brigade to which he had been assigned, and after many trials had come to Praha, where he sought in vain to get assistance from some relatives and organizers. He was ordered of deportation caused him to take his own life. When his relatives learned of Broszinski's death they requested that his body be interred in a Christian cemetery.

Several days ago when a member of the German consulate in Prague requested official information about the suicide, it was learned that he was Fritz Karl Broszinski, who had lived at Berlin and had been a Storm Trooper. In April, 1934, he had deserted from the brigade to which he had been assigned, and after many trials had come to Praha, where he sought in vain to get assistance from some relatives and organizers. He was ordered of deportation caused him to take his own life. When his relatives learned of Broszinski's death they requested that his body be interred in a Christian cemetery.

Several days ago when a member of the German consulate in Prague requested official information about the suicide, it was learned that he was Fritz Karl Broszinski, who had lived at Berlin and had been a Storm Trooper. In April, 1934, he had deserted from the brigade to which he had been assigned, and after many trials had come to Praha, where he sought in vain to get assistance from some relatives and organizers. He was ordered of deportation caused him to take his own life. When his relatives learned of Broszinski's death they requested that his body be interred in a Christian cemetery.

Several days ago when a member of the German consulate in Prague requested official information about the suicide, it was learned that he was Fritz Karl Broszinski, who had lived at Berlin and had been a Storm Trooper. In April, 1934, he had deserted from the brigade to which he had been assigned, and after many trials had come to Praha, where he sought in vain to get assistance from some relatives and organizers. He was ordered of deportation caused him to take his own life. When his relatives learned of Broszinski's death they requested that his body be interred in a Christian cemetery.

Several days ago when a member of the German consulate in Prague requested official information about the suicide, it was learned that he was Fritz Karl Broszinski, who had lived at Berlin and had been a Storm Trooper. In April, 1934, he had deserted from the brigade to which he had been assigned, and after many trials had come to Praha, where he sought in vain to get assistance from some relatives and organizers. He was ordered of deportation caused him to take his own life. When his relatives learned of Broszinski's death they requested that his body be interred in a Christian cemetery.

Several days ago when a member of the German consulate in Prague requested official information about the suicide, it was learned that he was Fritz Karl Broszinski, who had lived at Berlin and had been a Storm Trooper. In April, 1934, he had deserted from the brigade to which he had been assigned, and after many trials had come to Praha, where he sought in vain to get assistance from some relatives and organizers. He was ordered of deportation caused him to take his own life. When his relatives learned of Broszinski's death they requested that his body be interred in a Christian cemetery.

Several days ago when a member of the German consulate in Prague requested official information about the suicide, it was learned that he was Fritz Karl Broszinski, who had lived at Berlin and had been a Storm Trooper. In April, 1934, he had deserted from the brigade to which he had been assigned, and after many trials had come to Praha, where he sought in vain to get assistance from some relatives and organizers. He was ordered of deportation caused him to take his own life. When his relatives learned of Broszinski's death they requested that his body be interred in a Christian cemetery.

Storm Trooper Buried In Jewish Plot

Parents of Suicide Ask That German's Body Be Exhumed

(J.T.A. Special Correspondence)
ZURICH, Oct. 16.—Exhumation of the body of a German Storm Troop member who has lain buried in the Praha Jewish Cemetery since last May 31 has been asked by the parents of the deceased, who was a Christian.

The mutilated body of the man was found on the tracks near the Praha-Buchov railroad station by workers on the road. All efforts to identify the man failed, and since all indications were that he was of Jewish origin, the railway office ordered him buried on the portion of the Jewish cemetery set apart for suicides.

Several days ago when a member of the German consulate in Prague requested official information about the suicide, it was learned that he was Fritz Karl Broszinski, who had lived at Berlin and had been a Storm Trooper. In April, 1934, he had deserted from the brigade to which he had been assigned, and after many trials had come to Praha, where he sought in vain to get assistance from some relatives and organizers. He was ordered of deportation caused him to take his own life. When his relatives learned of Broszinski's death they requested that his body be interred in a Christian cemetery.

Rabbis Prepare To Ban Poultry

(Continued from Page One)
at Congregation Kehilath Jeshurun, Tuesday night, which had been a result of the rapprochement between the groups on the question of rabbinical supervision, but ended in disorder by the action of the rabbis calling the wholesalers and the latter, calling the rabbis "racketeers."

The bone of contention at the meeting was the question of plumes, or tags. The wholesalers expressed themselves as willing to submit to rabbinical supervision on each chicken, but it was estimated that rabbinical supervision will entail a tax of one cent per fowl.

The rabbis became more heated as Rabbi Israel Dushovitz, president of the Orthodox Rabbinical Board, accused the wholesalers of "racketeering" and "blackmail." Finally, the wholesalers, after failing to gain a one-week postponement, walked out in a body.

The issue of the tax was a part of a decision handed down by Judge Otto Rosalinsky August 20 in mediation of a threatened smootin strike.

Jewish Investors Plan World League

(J.T.A. Special Correspondence)
TEL AVIV, Oct. 10.—A move to organize Jewish investors in the world over was begun here with the organization of a league of Jewish investors.