Warsaw, Dec. 4.—Polish Jewry, 9,000,000 in number, may not have any representation in the tate Polish parliament, it is disised here by the well-informed Polish daily, Illustrated Kurier Gozdobny.
This, it is understood, may be an act of revenge on the part of Polish government on many of the strongly worded address delivered in the Polish parliament by Dr.
Jozef Tarnowska, in which he accused the Polish government before the tolent, of neglecting the Jewish population and of reducing it to egacy.

The Polish Representation

According to the Polish paper, the electoral system in Poland will be changed in a way that it will be impossible for the Jewish nosity to return a single deputi to the Sejm. A special parliamentary session will be held, the joi-nected, and the constitution will be amended, abolishing proportional representation in the Sejm and in the Senate.

The present election ordinance, according to the paper, will be replaced by a system similar to the British constituent majority system, in which only the whole y will elect a majority in the in which Jewish voters have an

GATTOWA, Germany (New York, December 5, 2564)

The new anti-war movement in the world today is led by the German Communist Party. The party is leading a vigorous campaign against the Saarland, a province in the south of Germany, which was ceded to France by treaty after World War I. The Saarland has been the subject of frequent discussion in recent years, as its status as an autonomous region within the German Republic remains uncertain. The Saarland was granted to France after World War I and has since been subject to a number of disputes over its sovereignty. The German Communist Party has been active in supporting the Saarland's aspirations for greater autonomy and national recognition. The party's stance on the Saarland issue is consistent with its broader strategy of opposition to capitalist exploitation and imperialism, and its support for the interests of the working class and oppressed nations.
Jews Have Cast Best Record, And Win Share of $100 Prizes

The Fourth Biggest Jewish News of the year has made this Friday. It is not too late to enter competition for a share in the $100 cash prize. It is entirely to the writer of the best 300-word prize copy for the Jewish News and high school divisions.

Concurrently with the end of the news period for the fourth week, names of the winners in the third Biggest Jewish News of the year has made this Friday. The judicious board which passes on the merits of each letter and whose decisions in the contest are final, is meeting today. Once again, an increase of letters from school and college students has been noticed and the board may have an even more difficult time than it had last week to decide the winners in these divisions.

Many Join Competition

Another fact noted is that the number of letters from high school and students each week. Many replies and student letters submit- ted excellent letters and because they were not judged among the contest, the judging people have been discouraged. Others have entered the contest regularly. The latter have the better chance of winning a share of the $100 distributed so far.

The contest is highly educational. It develops the news discrimination and the patience of the writer. It is interesting because it brings the reader in closer contact with the editors. It reveals the keen in- site that readers of the Bulletin benefit from in their daily lives. It is lucrative because of the prize money.

This contest is open to everyone. All readers of the Bulletin may enter. It is open to all men and women who read the Bull- etin are eligible. High school stu- dents have had a great opportunity of winning cash prizes, medals, and points for their school and the Scopus Trophy.

Toward Harris High School is leading in the school division with 155 points. The winners in this group are greatly pleased because they will be running for the News Trophy, which is a cup that will be presented with the greatest number of points at the end of the semester.

In B. Levy Spur Division every week. Prizes are the same each week. Those who do not attend a college or high school the first prize is twenty-five dollars, second prize, ten dollars, and third prize, five dollars. In the collegiate group the cash awards are the same as in the reader unit. High school students may earn ten dollars for first prize, five dollars for second prize, and two dollars for third prize. Gold, silver, and bronze medals also are given to winners of the first three prizes, respectively.

The contest ends Friday and the winners of the third week's Big News Contest will be announced Monday, too.

A Poor Job

The campaign which Alfred Rosenberg, Hitler's right-hand man, has launched against the Zionist movement in Germany can be easily explained. It is nothing but the formalization of the trial of the "Protocols of the Elders of Zion" which is to resume soon.

Herr Rosenberg is the transistor of these "Protocols" into German. As the final expression of his entire political career was built up on the works which he published in connection with the "Protocols", the German court in Berlin is to establish the spuriousness of this document, to show that it must save his face by linking the Zionist movement to the Protocols.

The series of articles which Herr Rosenberg is now running in the Voelkische Beobachter, alleging that the German Zionists leaders, acting as an integral part of the fictitious "Jew" party, tricked Germany during the war, will not be taken seriously by the German public. Whatever thing about the role which the Jews played in the German army will be discredited.

The fact that not less than 12,000 Jews fell on the German front is the best argument against Herr Rosenberg's agitation.

Everybody knows that during the war, the allies of the groups in Germany were totally isolated from the world Zionism movement. It is therefore almost impossible for Herr Rosenberg to do what he does—that the Zionist leaders of Germany helped the anti-German movements and that Palestine from Turkey.

Nazis leaders have on many occasions emphasized that the Zionists, as a purely nationalistic movement, coincides with the nationalistic and racial movements. Zionism is pro-German. It is on the strength of this theory that the Jewish leaders in Germany have not yet been able to prove that Zionism is not an enemy of Germany.

Now Rosenberg comes up with this theory. Anxious to whitewash the "Protocols", "he tries very hard to attach to them the idea that German Zionists leaders interfered in internal affairs and disturbed the balance against Germany. The job which Herr Rosenberg is now doing is not an easy but the most precious. It will certainly not influence the court in Berlin.

"Equality for Jews" in the Saar

The agreement between the French and the German government for the territorial settlement of the Jews in the Saar for the "good of all" is a delusion. It is nothing but a belief of the Jews by the French government, because it is not the only proof that it comes to international relations the Jews are in the hands of one government against another.

It was the French government which stimulated various Jewish organizations in the League of Nations asking that the Saar should not be turned over to Germany unless Jewish equality is fully guaranteed. It is the Foreign Office that wanted to see as many Jewish petitions to the League to put forward their points of view.

Jewish Sold Out

The Jews were used by the French government as a medium to create more sentiment against the German people in Germany. In exchange the French government promised the Jews in the end that the Saar would be done to protect the Jews.

What has happened to this promise now? In Germany the Jews agreed to pay sixty million dollars compensation to France for the loss of the Saar. As a result of the Jewish interest were practically made the Jewish people. The United States of the United States was left to the Jews in the Saar for another sixty million dollars.

What will happen to them after the year is over nobody seems to care.

French Guilty Conscience

One of the chief faults of the French is that it acknowledges itself an understanding by the French government had performed the services of the Jews. As a result of this Jewish conscience.

This is particularly true that if not for the Jewish conscience the French government would have been able to obtain the sixty million dollars which she is to get from the Jewish people in the Saar. Of all the issues which have been raised against Germany with regard to the Saar, the problem of Jewish nationality was the strongest.

A Lesson for Jewish Leaders

The bargain which France has now struck with Germany at the expense of the Jews will no doubt be used by those who are conducting Jewish political movements to use the French government as a more diplomatic in the future and not to sell Jewish interests to others.

The Jewish Leaders

As to the assurances given by the representative of the League of Nations to the Jews in the Saar they are not sufficient, it can only be said that this assurance simply emphasizes the fact that the Jews in the Saar will face a Jewish government. It is the true government, even though not "extensive."

The League of Nations, like the United States, has not justified the hopes laid upon them by world Jewry. Their appeal to the Jews was not the result of the interests of national minorities but the result of its appeal to "big business." It is not for nothing that many countries in the world will bring their national minority objections more serious of paper.

Certificate Distribution by Agency Called Unfair

(Washington, D.C.)—The National Zionist groups today had called protests to Jewish Agency headquarters in Palestine against the refusal of the agency to issue certificates to 2,000 immigrants who have been waiting for months. The protests were issued by the World Zionist Executive. The central committee of the Western Galician Zionist organization complained that for the first time no certificates were issued to middle class Jewish immigrants.

The League for Working Palestine, affiliated with the Laborites, has also been protesting, and has been headed by Isaac Gruenbaum, pro-

They offered to bring in alien immigrants, to work in the farms. The Jewish Agency has also threatened to deny certificates to Jews who have not negotiated with the Pal-

Marty Glickman, the outstanding quarterback in metropolitan scholastic football, has been selected as halfback of the All-Bulletin's Jewish All-Scholastic team.

Marty Glickman

Glickman, a senior at Madison, is the outstanding football player in this stellar aggregation. He is destined for big things on collegiate gridiron. For the second year he has been quarterback of the Golden Tornado. He is a brilliant field general, a good line backer, a perfect passer, and at the same time is the fastest sprinter in the city. He can cover 100 yards in 10.2 while in football action.

Sandick, of Roosevelt, was Glickman's opponent in the recent clash. The game was all Sandick, though his efforts were to no avail because of the splendid Madison defense.
