His cousin, the newspaperman Leonard O. Mosley, slated to stem a growing demand on the

Goldberg Can’t See Biro-Bidjan
As Threat to Palestine Supremacy

Returned From Bureya, Editor Holds Ideas
Don’t Conflict

By M. SHURWITZ

Possibilities of competition between Biro-Bidjan, autonomous Jewish center in Manchuria, and Palestine as a national home for Jews is not likely to be a threat to the new center, according to Dr. H. Z. Goldberg, associate editor of The Day. Dr. Goldberg recently returned from a trip which took him through the Soviet Union to Japan, and his homeward trip was made by way of the Pacific Ocean.

"The two ideals do not conflict in any way," Dr. Goldberg declared. "There is nothing of the character of a threat in the newly-created Jewish center in Manchuria." He said that the only people who are against the installation of a Communist regime in Biro-Bidjan are the so-called "out-and-out Communists" or those who prefer a Communist regime. The tradition of Eastern and of Jewish people is missing there and would not be encouraged if they did exist.

Dr. Goldberg said, "Biro-Bidjan will be a national home for radical-Jews from all parts of the world. Sufficient economic strength to make the Jewish future in Biro-Bidjan a reality will not be lacking. The Jewish youth of the Soviet Union and of the world who feel that their ideas are not being fulfilled in their home country and are thus looking for a new spiritual atmosphere will find it in Biro-Bidjan."

Cultural Important
"Economically Biro-Bidjan is no threat to Palestine," Dr. Goldberg said, "for the Jewish state in the Soviet Union, but culturally it is of great importance. If not for the Jewish state in the Russian state, the Jewish people in Biro-Bidjan could be the models for the Jewish future in the Soviet Union, for they can show us how to live in a state of peace, prosperity, and wisdom." Dr. Goldberg also added, "The Jewish people in Biro-Bidjan will be an example for the Jewish youth in the Soviet Union and will be a source of inspiration for those who desire to see a better future for the Jewish people."

a Japanese army and a great danger of being destroyed." Goldberg also said that the Jews in other parts of the Soviet Union and abroad should not be swayed by the success of Biro-Bidjan, but rather should view it as a positive development for the Jewish people.

In his conclusion, Goldberg emphasized the importance of maintaining a strong and united Jewish identity in order to ensure the survival and prosperity of the Jewish people.

The Steuben Society

The Steuben Society has finally surrendered. After long months of half-hearted resistance to Nazi domination, this old and time-honored society has at last turned its back on the laudable American principles on which it was founded. The new leaders of this group, backed by the old business, and by the old and the new, have bowed down completely, and have discarded all concepts of cooperation with the government. The only other reason for their surrender is to save their own skins from the clutches of the Gestapo.

The colonization of the southern states is of particular interest. The question of the suitability of land for agriculture is being considered.

Chief Purposes

One of the chief purposes of the Colonization Society is to study the problems of colonization and to make recommendations for their solution. The society hopes to promote the development of agriculture in the southern states and to encourage the settlement of Jewish colonies there.

Anti-Semitic Propaganda

The anti-Semitic propaganda in the southern states is widespread. The society is fighting against it, and is seeking to replace it with more positive and constructive ideas.

Proskauer Denounces Boycott
And World Jewish Parley Plan

A smashing attack on the organized world boycott of German goods in response to the World Jewish Congress, advocated by the American Jewish Congress, was uttered a fiery address made by Judge Joseph M. Proskauer, in a sympathy meeting of the World Jewish Congress movement in New York, Monday evening. The symp-ousmpanied the celebration of the 11th anniversary of the World Congress.

After expressing his admiration of Dr. Herbert H. Lehman, the first speaker, Judge Proskauer branded the stance of the American Jewish Congress, as a "doctrine of destruction for American Jewish life and property.

Wars Against Fight

While some of the gathering chanted with righteous anger at the unexpected denunciation of the world Congress, the speaker warned that the world boycott would not stop anti-Semitism by fighting it.

Since Hitler came into power, he declared, the Jews have faced five percent of worth of German goods.

I am not going to stay in this city when I go out and ask for an or-responding boycott which interferes with the right of other Jews in my country, I am letting my country down and doing my duty as an American citizen.

Commenting on the protest ta-lcrest and pan-Jewish parleys which were cited by Mr. Deutsch, Judge Proskauer asked: "Does it take all the Jewry in America to one on Square Garden and make a speech with ample police protection?"

In his talk, Mr. Deutsch advo-casted an end to the boycott and Hitler and the spread of anti-Semitism.

The keynote of his talk was a demand for an unlimited action. He declared that "the problem that has been everywhere have been the Jews.

He dwelt at some length on the forthcoming elections in April 1935, of delegates to the world Jewish Congress. He stressed the need for the United States to act in con-mitting anti-Semitism.

Dr. Curvet Speaks

Rear Adm. Louis Curvet, secretary of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in Amera, was introduced by Judge Proskauer as the fourth speaker.

"I wish I could say it would not go far, as I cannot say it," he said.

"Anti-Semitism is not primarily a matter of religion. The bittest strata of the American community hate Christians but among those strata, they are not closely associated with the Christian Church.

"The world is full of anti-Semitism in America," he said.

His understanding of the major faults and a greater respect for "Jewishness".

Roger W. Stransse, co-chairman of the National Council of Jews and Christians, introduced the fourth speaker.

"The people have been that large numbers of people have had freelifence against the Jews have been encouraged by those profesional Jews-Baiters to make their living by trying to discriminate against Jews social-ally, politically, and economically; so they have been open anti-Jewish activity in this country er than ever before.
