Reich Press Reports New Jewish Policy

States Repressive Acts Will End; Observers Are Skeptical

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, Feb. 28.—The policy advocated by Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, Minister of Economics, to modify the anti-Jewish agitation in Nazi Germany, received further impetus today when the Nazi press published a report that "nothing more will be undertaken against the Jews in Germany" in view of the fact that the government does not wish to complicate matters abroad. At the same time Dr. Schacht informed the Berlin Merchants Association today that no further discriminations would be practiced against its members, many of whom are Jewish.

Would Regain Lost Jobs

These new trends in the Nazi attitude towards the Jews does not mean that Jews will be restored to their rights or that they will be reinstated in state and municipal jobs from which they were ousted under the "Aryan" paragraph. The "Aryan" paragraph, it was explained here today, remains fully in force. It is only in commerce that Jews will be permitted to continue their activities undisturbed.

American circles here are skeptical as to the sincerity of the Nazi authorities in their talk of easing their anti-Jewish policy. The opinion which prevails in the American colony here is that Dr. Schacht's move can be explained only by the fact that Germany is greatly affected.

Ku Klux Klan Renews Activity in New Jersey

(Special to the J.D.B.)

PATERSON, N. J., Feb. 28.—The Ku Klux Klan is becoming active again in New Jersey.

The Leif Erickson Klan No. 1, Realm of New Jersey, has been formed here. A group of would-be Klansmen in Bloomfield were given the degree this week. Meetings are held regularly, but their location is not made public. A short time ago the Klan announced that all "100 per cent" Americans are eligible for membership.

Swiss Supreme Court Upholds Ban on Nazis

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

GENEVA, Feb. 28.—The Supreme Court today rejected the appeal of the Fascist organization in Zurich against the decree issued by the Zurich Cantonal Government, prohibiting the formation of Nazi Storm Troops.

The activities of the Nazis in Zurich are being closely watched by the local authorities who are seriously disturbed by the anti-Semitic and other subversive activities which the Nazis are promoting in Switzerland with the help of funds from Germany.

Protocols Trial In Switzerland Put Off Again

Now Slated for April 29; Nazi Defendants Unprepared

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERNE, Feb. 28.—Resumption of the trial against the Nazis in Switzerland for spreading the notorious "Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion" has been postponed again, this time to April 29, it was announced here today. The trial was scheduled to be resumed in the middle of March.

The delay was due to the fact that Colonel Ulrich Fleischhauer, who has been called in by the Nazi defense as its expert, as well as other Nazi experts who are to appear at the trial are not yet ready with their material.

Meanwhile the Federation of Jewish Communities in Switzerland is collecting new data to prove that the "Protocols" are a forgery used by the Nazis in their anti-Jewish propaganda all over the world and originally disseminated by the Czarist government for the purpose of fomenting anti-Semitism.

It is believed here that the Nazis are trying to drag out the case in order to weaken the interest which the non-Jewish press all over the world has exhibited toward it.

Jewish leaders here, complainants in the case, are determined, however, to see to it that the trial

Will Maintain High Taxes In Poland

Protests Against System Crushing Jews Are Unavailing

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

WARSAW, Feb. 28.—Poland's policy of overtaxing the city population while imposing low taxes on the peasant population—a policy which has seriously affected Jewish existence in Poland—will have to be continued, Minister of Finance Koslowski declared in the Senate last night.

"The preference given to the village population against the city population is essential in order to increase the prices on farm products and to eliminate the middleman," the Minister explained.

Must Pay Arrears

Touching upon the subject of unpaid taxes, the Minister declared that it would be impossible to cancel tax arrears but that the government intends to make certain concessions for those who have paid their taxes regularly during the past few years.

The statement by the Polish Minister indicates that the protests of the Jews against the high taxes unjustifiably imposed upon them will not induce the government to modify the present taxation system. The Jewish population, concentrated largely in urban

Vaida - Voevod Resumes Drive Against Jews

Ex-Premier of Rumania Urges Lower Ranking as Citizens

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BUCHAREST, Feb. 28.—A vigorous campaign to force a change in the Rumanian constitution by which national minorities in Rumania would be declared second class citizens was launched today by Dr. Vaida-Voevod, former premier and a leader of the National Peasant party.

Dr. Vaida-Voevod, notorious for his anti-Jewish sentiments, demands that the Rumanian constitution be modified in such a way as to introduce difference in citizenship types, in accordance with the ethnical origin of the citizens. Such a modification would mean that the Jews and other minorities in Rumania would be classified as citizens of a lower grade.

The change demanded by Dr. Vaida-Voevod would empower the government to establish quotas for Jews and other national minorities in all occupations and in the professions. The Jews will then officially be restricted, not only as far as employment in government positions is concerned, but even in private enterprises.

A delegation of prominent Transylvanians, among whom Dr. Vaida-Voevod has great influence, arrived in Bucharest today to urge the government to effect the changes as soon as possible.

Spread Leaflet Charging Hauptmann Victim of 'Ritual Murder'

Anti-Jewish circulars stating that "the Jews have sentenced Hauptmann" and that the Hauptmann sentence is "a Jewish ritual murder" were distributed here yesterday by unknown persons, presumably members of local Nazi organizations, which on Wednesday launched a campaign in Yorkville Casino to obtain funds for releasing Hauptmann.

"Germans and Americans, awake!" the circular proclaims. "German compatriots, wake up and see in the Hauptmann sentence the hand of the all-powerful Jew in America. A German has been condemned to death on the basis of false testimony."

The circular charges that Attorney General Wilentz used arguments to influence the jury which fully coincide with certain sayings of the Talmud.

Punitive Nazi Troop Set to Enter Saar

Jews in Fear as Transfer Preparations Are Completed

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

SAARBRUECKEN, Feb. 28.—Considerable apprehension was felt today among the Jews of Saarbruecken, on the eve of turning the Saar over to Germany, in connection with a report that a special force of Nazi S. S. men is stationed in Frankfurt ready to enter the Saar tomorrow for the purpose of "coordinating the population."

Final preparations for the transfer were made here today by Geoffrey Knox, British Commissioner appointed by the League of Nations for the Saar. Mr. Knox will hand over his powers tomorrow to Joseph Buerkel, the Nazi Commissioner appointed by Hitler to administer the Saar when it becomes a part of the Reich. The ceremony of transferring authority to Herr Buerkel will take place at eleven o'clock in the morning in the presence of Baron Pompeo Aloisi, chairman of the League of Nations Saar Committee.

Preparations for celebrating the reunion with Germany are being made today all over the Saar territory. Celebrations will start tomorrow with parades throughout all Saar towns, featured by contingents of Hitler Youth and members of the Nazi party. School children will be excused from classes in order to participate in the street celebrations.

Prussian Group Set To Absorb Saar Jews

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, Feb. 28.—The Prussian Federation of Jewish Communities announced today that beginning March 1, when the Saar officially becomes a part of Germany, the Jewish communities of the Saar will be included as an integral part of the Federation.

The Federation of the Jewish Communities in Prussia today completed all the formalities necessary for the merger. In addition to incorporating the Jewish communities of the Saar, the Federation will also incorporate a number of Jewish communities from the

Control of Schechita Is Wrested From Jews by City of Warsaw

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

WARSAW, Feb. 28.—A blow to Jewish interests was meted out today by the municipality of Warsaw, which announced that beginning today it will take over the supervision of shechita, kosher ritual slaughtering, of animals which was hitherto supervised by the Jewish community and the rabbinate.

The announcement means that the Jewish community will lose part of its income derived from the shechita for the benefit of maintaining Jewish institutions. It also means that the Jewish population of Warsaw, largest Jewish community in Poland, will be entirely dependent for kosher meat upon the officials of the municipality.

An urgent meeting of rabbis in Warsaw today adopted a resolution of protest against the municipality's direct intervention into internal Jewish affairs. The meeting was called by the Rabbinical Union.

A delegation of rabbis appeared before the minister of public welfare today to protest against the action of the municipality. The minister promised that the question would be dealt with in accordance with the demands of the rabbis.

Olympics Body to Avoid Issue Of Reich Bias at Oslo Meeting

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

OSLO, Feb. 28.—It is believed unlikely that discrimination against Jewish athletes in Nazi Germany will be taken up at the present sessions of the International Olympics Committee here. Nor is it likely that the session will even consider the question of shifting the Olympic Games from Berlin to any other foreign capital, it was indicated in circles close to the committee today.

It is, however, possible that the German delegate at the sessions will repeat the assurance given by the German sports authorities that no difficulties will be made for Jewish athletes in Germany. Such an assurance may be made by the German delegate in the course of a general discussion.

The Norwegian press points out today that the delegates from the United States and England are not attending the sessions of the International Olympics Committee. Their absence is being interpreted by the Oslo press as indication that both England and America have accepted the assurances of the German sports authorities with regard to the present position of the Jews in the sports life of Germany.

Children of Exiles—Berg Is 50

By Our Paris Correspondent

PARIS. Of all the tragic consequences that have followed in the wake of Herr Hitler's rise to power, there is none more poignant than the flight of the thousands of Germans who were forced to flee to foreign countries.

Consisting of pacifists, Socialists and Jews, this new Legion of the Lost—it is estimated to number at least 70,000—is scattered throughout the capitals of Europe, and the situation for them is daily growing more precarious.

Almost without exception these "enemies of the Nazi State" are not permitted to work in the country that shelters them, and they are therefore dependent on charity.

Today in London, Paris, Brussels, Amsterdam, Praha, Copenhagen, Zurich and Madrid you can find German refugees, solitary or in families, who are living in the last stages of destitution.

You may see in Paris men who were once judges, lawyers, doctors, or professors selling matches and bootlaces or canvassing for orders in mean streets.

The plight of the exiles' children is, perhaps, more poignant.

Some of the children remember Germany and a happy childhood there before the Nazis came to power.

Others came into the world as exiles; born by mothers who were half-starved, weary, and desperate.

These children at least are innocent. They know nothing of Nazi or Communist, Gentile or Jew. Yet to the Nazis they are as "unclean" as their parents—and so become objects of slow persecution. Not enough milk; insufficient clothing; no shoes and stockings: these are the commonplace of their little lives.

Public assistance, in most civilized countries, supplies these elementary wants to the poorest child—but not to the refugee child. He is an alien, and the State has no obligation towards him.

Parents and children must remain pent in the towns, terribly overcrowded in furnished rooms. They live huddled together—four, five, and six sleeping and living in a single room.

Brave efforts to relieve the situation in the French capital have been made in recent months by a band of German emigrants themselves, mainly young social workers and physicians.

They formed the "Assistance Aux Enfants d'Emigrés" about a year ago, starting work without financial means or backing.

Swiss and British institutions, especially the Society of Friends, supported them; and, through their efforts, hundreds of children have been saved from tuberculosis and other diseases.

It is something of a shock to discover that a man who is thought of in the public mind as a "young" composer is fifty years old tomorrow.

Alban Berg, the Austrian composer of "Wozzeck," is the man who has had more than his fair share of trouble in his first fifty years, the sort of trouble which only a Viennese can experience if he has the misfortune to be an innovator, and lives in his home town.

Berg's opera "Wozzeck" was played all over Germany and was well established in the general repertory as the outstanding work of its generation—a grim, exciting and oddly beautiful creation with "theatre" in it from start to finish. Then Hitler arrived.

Berg is a Jew. Even if he were not it would have made no difference, for you know what sort of music the Nazis like, and "Wozzeck" has been dropped. It is played from time to time in America, and there is more than a possibility that it will be heard at Covent Garden this season. Even Vienna, since Socialism was suppressed, no longer plays "Wozzeck."

Alban Berg is left now at fifty with a small but important list of compositions (he has only written a dozen), and the prospect of hearing some of them again, only if he tunes into British radio, and with little prospect of ever seeing "Lulu" staged until Austria and Germany change their ways and decide to be intelligent people again.

600 Labor Zionists Meet Here Tonight

Among the participants will be Chaim Greenberg, Zalmon Rubashov, Boruch Zuckerman and Eliseva Kaplan. Rabbi Benjamin Goldstein, Winifred Chappell and Nathan Frankel are other speakers. The symposium is under the auspices of the Washington Heights Anti-Nazi Committee.

Between the Lines

Schuschnigg Speaks

The statement which Dr. Kurt Schuschnigg, the Austrian Chancellor, issued to the Jewish Telegraphic Agency in London prior to his departure for Vienna reminds one very much of a similar statement issued by the Austrian Chancellor to Jewish leaders in Geneva several months ago. It is typical of the present policy of the Austrian Cabinet to cloak its anti-Jewish action in a mantle of smooth phrases.

Dr. Schuschnigg does not deny in his statement the fact that hundreds of Jewish doctors have been dismissed from municipal and state institutions in Austria under his regime. He tries to justify these dismissals by saying that they were necessary "in order to eliminate the Socialists." He thus wishes to create the impression that all the dismissed Jewish doctors are radicals.

Such an explanation is not only hypocritical but it is directly anti-Semitic. To assert that several hundred Jewish doctors were dismissed because of the drive against Socialists is like Hitler's alleging that all the Jews are Communists.

A Misleading Explanation

Those who know the situation in Austria know very well that Schuschnigg's explanation is, mildly speaking, very misleading. On more than one occasion Jewish leaders in Austria—leaders who are combatting Socialism just as Dr. Schuschnigg is—have protested against the epidemic dismissals of Jews in Austrian medical institutions because of their racial descent. On more than one occasion it was emphasized that the discharged Jewish doctors were being replaced by non-Jewish doctors only. More than once, the Jews have protested against the introduction of a question about the race and religion of applicants in the application blanks for government positions.

When Dr. Schuschnigg declares that the Jewish doctors in Austria have been dismissed because of Socialism and for no anti-Semitic reasons, one can easily challenge this assertion by asking why not a single Jewish doctor was employed in place of those discharged. Are there no Jewish doctors in Austria who are not Socialists?

Cynical Advice

The same hypocrisy which is noticed in Dr. Schuschnigg's explanation about the dismissal of Jewish doctors is also noticeable in the excuse which he gives as to why the authorities in Austria do not suppress the dangerous anti-Jewish propaganda conducted and financed by the Nazis from Germany. Dr. Schuschnigg advises the Jews to combat this propaganda through their own Jewish press. "The Jews," he says, "have a right in Austria to hold public meetings and can reply publicly to the charges made against them by anti-Jewish publications."

This cynical advice, coming as it does from the head of the Austrian state, is worth remembering by those Jews who still believe in the possibility of reaching some kind of an understanding with the present rulers of Austria. The same Dr. Schuschnigg did not hesitate for a second to suppress the Nazi press in Austria when it was agitating for a reunion with Nazi Germany. He did not hesitate to close down Austrian newspapers which criticized the present state of affairs in Austria. But when it comes to curbing the anti-Jewish propaganda, this very same Dr. Schuschnigg directly encourages this propa-

World Press Digest

Caustic Comment On Reich Censorships

Editor and Publisher, newspaper trade journal, commenting upon the censorship in Nazi Germany, says in a recent editorial:

With all their skill and equipment American and English correspondents could not penetrate the fog of propaganda, deliberate falsehood of public officials, sealed courts and all the rest of the infamous set-up which has as its purpose the entrenchment of weird men in the role of rulers of one of the world's great peoples. Modern history holds no comparable chapter of national degeneracy. Grotesque Hitler leers between the lines of every Berlin despatch. His only service to mankind could be to illustrate the horror which is inherent in fascism.

Says Hitler Follows Bismarck on Jews

The Birkenhead News, a daily published in Birkenhead, England, comments on Hitler's policy with regard to the Jews as follows:

Just as Bismarck used the Jew fifty years ago as the scapegoat for the establishment of his policy, so Hitler was using the Jew in exactly the same manner today. The Jew had been the scapegoat that had been sacrificed on the altar of Germany's national calamity for the sake of demagogic politicians. For 2,000 years the story of the Jew had been the most tragic thing in the history of mankind. Must it continue forever to be so? He did not believe it. He believed with a perfect faith that the time would come when it would cease, but he also believed that it would not come of itself. "You and I will have to help in the consummation of that glorious future," he said. "I think one of the best ways of combating group prejudices in general, and anti-Semitism in particular, is through education."

Tells Why Jews Are Oppressed

The New English Weekly, a British publication, commenting on the "Jewish Questions," says:

The Jewish question is a national, not a race question. That is to say, the Jews are an oppressed nationality in precisely the same way as the Irish, the Indians or the Koreans. The only difference between them and these other nations is that they have not one but a number of oppressors, owing to their pecu-ganda by stating that the Jews, and not the government, should combat it.

Good for the Nazis

One can easily imagine how happy the Nazis in Austria will be to read Dr. Schuschnigg's advice to the Jews to handle the Nazis all by themselves. Such advice is nothing but a definite indication that the government is actually not interested in protecting its Jewish citizens from libelous, slanderous and dangerous incitement.

Dr. Schuschnigg's statement makes clear that there is no hope for the Jews in Austria under the present regime. A different statement would probably have been made by Dr. Schuschnigg if the Jews of the world were to adopt towards Austria the same open and outspoken method they have adopted towards Nazi Germany.

lar geographical distribution.

The oppression of national minorities is a specific feature of an unfree, class divided society. It affects certain social strata in these minorities, the strata corresponding to those who are also exploited in the dominating nations. Even today in Germany it is the Jewish workers who suffer most from the Nazi terror.

Hitler Kept One Promise

The London Evening Standard carries the following item:

Jokes are still cracked in Berlin. The latest is that a Nazi, after reading of the rise in German unemployment figures turned to a Jewish bystander and exclaimed:

"I can't think what you fellows grumble at. After all, Hitler did keep his promises to you."

Commenting in the New York American on the J.T.A. story from London with regard to drinking milk after meat in meals, Arthur Brisbane comments in his column "Today":

British medical men declare positively that "drinking milk within two hours after eating meat is highly detrimental to the digestive system." Moses could have told them that long ago. His rules allow no milk with meat. The Bible rule forbidding you to "seethe" or otherwise cook a kid in its mother's milk, was intended to protect those that eat the meat, and does not merely express sympathy for the mother.

Milk is a most valuable food, should be taken from infancy to old age, but not with meat.

Vatican Links Nazis to Arab Drive on Jews

Back Mufti, Ex-Mayor, in Stirring Hatred, Organ Charges

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

ROME, Feb. 28.—The charge that the German Nazis are busy fomenting anti-Jewish agitation in Palestine, in cooperation with the Mufti and with the former mayor of Jerusalem, Ragheb Bey Nashashibi, is made today in the Osservatore Romano, the official organ of the Vatican.

A special article deals with the increased anti-Jewish propaganda in Palestine which is now disturbing the Palestine government and because of which two Arab newspapers were suspended for three months each a few days ago.

"There is no doubt that Nashashibi, the Mufti and Nazis from Germany are behind this entire agitation," the Papal organ states.

'Chedarim' Recognized By Polish Government

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

WARSAW, Feb. 28.—While denying recognition to modern Hebrew and Yiddish schools in Poland, the Polish government today officially recognized the Chedarim, the Jewish private religious schools, as having the same rights as public schools.

News of the recognition was officially made public today through the Agudath Israel, the pro-government extreme orthodox Jewish party.

Mr. Micawber's Advice

In "David Copperfield" Mr. Micawber gave young David some advice that's just as good today as it was 100 years ago. He said:

"Annual income £20, annual expenditure £19/19/6—result HAPPINESS!
Annual income £20, annual expenditure £20/0/6—result MISERY!"

In plain American that means: earn $100 and spend $99.90—O. K.... but spend $100.10 and you're N. G.

Are you on the Safe side? Then remember $1 opens an account here.

Many Groups To Participate In HIAS Jubilee

50th Anniversary Fete to Be Held at Astor on Sunday

Several hundred delegates, representatives of religious, labor and fraternal Jewish organizations will participate in the fiftieth anniversary celebration of HIAS, the Hebrew Sheltering and Immigrant Aid Society, to be held Sunday at the Hotel Astor.

The celebration coincides with the society's annual meeting, at which reports tracing its history from its inception through its development and growth as a worldwide institution, will be made.

The story of HIAS, graphic and dramatic, will be related by Abraham Herman, president. Daniel W. McCormack, Commissioner General of Immigration and Naturalization, will be one of the principal speakers.

Lehman Lauds Work

Governor Herbert H. Lehman, in a message to HIAS, praised its activities and its fifty years of service in the United States. The message of Governor Lehman, received yesterday at HIAS headquarters of the HIAS, says in part:

"I have for many years been familiar with the untiring and unselfish work which the HIAS is carrying on. Your understanding of physical and mental stress and your planned relief to meet these unhappy conditions have brought much help and alleviation to those in want and distress. I have always found the HIAS ready to step into an emergency situation, in war and in peace, and render efficient and understanding help. I heartily hope that you will be able to carry on your splendid work for many years to come."

In connection with the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary, HIAS is issuing a Golden Anniversary Book. The society has branches in numerous cities in the United States and is functioning through various associated societies and committees in twenty-seven foreign lands, including Argentine, Brazil, Chile, Cuba, South Africa, Australia and many European countries.

N. Y. Nazis Open War on Jews

bala," the anti-Semitic leaflet asserts. The circular cites many quotations from Der Stuermer, the notorious Jew-baiting publication in Nuremburg and condemned by the entire civilized world.

"Germans and Americans awake!" the leaflet exhorts. "The eleventh hour has struck. Don't wait until the twelfth hour begins. It will then be too late for you. You may then find yourselves in the Jewish Communist World Collective. The sentence issued in Flemington is but a consequence of what is going on in Washington, Albany and New Jerusalem (say New York)," the proclamation says, attacking Bernard Baruch, Secretary Morgenthau, Governor Lehman, Mayor LaGuardia and others.

The allegation that "the Hauptmann case is a Jewish conspiracy against the German nation" was also made by a number of speakers at a meeting called by the New York Nazis on Wednesday evening at the Yorkville Casino. The meeting was attended by more than 3,000 persons and was addressed among others by Mrs. Hauptmann and by Hauptmann's lawyer, Edward J. Reilly.

The meeting, at which the Nazi greeting, "Heil Hitler", was shouted several times by the audience, was called for the purpose of collecting funds to revive the Hauptmann case. Attorney General Wilentz was termed by the speakers "a representative of the Elders of Zion." The entrance to the meeting was guarded by Nazi storm troopers in uniform.

Says Nazi Treatment of Saar Jews Will Be Watched

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

LONDON, Feb. 28.—The hope that Germany will keep its promise given to the League of Nations not to victimize the Jews in the Saar at least for twelve months is expressed today in the Manchester Guardian in connection with the transfer of the Saar to the Nazi Reich tomorrow.

Pointing out that nothing can now save the Trade Unions in the Saar as well as the anti-Hitlerite press there from being liquidated by the Nazis, the Manchester Guardian emphasizes that public opinion abroad will watch closely how German officials in the Saar treat the Jews and those who voted during the Saar plebiscite for a status quo.

"The world at large," the paper says, "has a right to expect that Germany will keep its pledge to refrain from victimizing any of those residents of the Saar who did not vote for the return of the Saar to Germany. Public opinion abroad and particularly the League of Nations should see to it that this pledge given by Germany is not broken."

fect by the boycott of German goods abroad and wishes to pacify public opinion in foreign countries in order to find larger markets for its export products.

At the same time, it is stated here in circles believed to be close to Dr. Schacht, that the minister of economics has made it clear to Hitler himself that as far as his department is concerned, Jewish experts who are still in different departments of the ministry will be retained there under all circumstances, since Germany's economic interests would greatly suffer if they were replaced by Nazis.

"Whither American Jewish Youth?" will be the first of a series of lectures sponsored by the English Speaking Section of the Jewish National Workers' Alliance for the purpose of acquainting American Jewish young men and women with the organization's aim and objectives. The lecture will be given Sunday afternoon, at the Hotel Pennsylvania, by Jacob Katzman, former National Secretary of the Young Poale Zion.

areas, will thus continue to lose its economic position under the burden of heavy taxation which is ruining Jewish middlemen and commerce.

Only five Jews were nominated today for membership in the District Chambers of Trade throughout Poland. The nominations were made for the Chambers of Trade in Lodz, Krakow, Lwow, Sosnowiec and Lublin. It is doubtful whether all the Jewish candidates nominated will actually be appointed, especially in the Lublin district. The Chambers of Trade in Poland practically regulate the entire commercial system in the country.
