Cohen Scoffs At Protocols Link by Nazis

B'nai B'rith Head Brands
Charge False; Trial
Resumes April 29

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
CINCINNATI, April 25.—Efforts of the Nazis to involve the B'nai B'rith in the libel suit brought by Jewish leaders in Berne, Switzerland, against local Nazis for spreading the so-called "Protocols of the Elders of Zion," were ridiculed here today in a statement issued by Alfred M. Cohen, international president of the B'nai B'rith.

The trial in Berne will open on Monday, April 29. Mr. Cohen's statement reads as follows:

"The information brought by the Jewish Telegraphic Agency from Berne, that efforts will be made to involve the B'nai B'rith in the 'Protocols' trial, which will be resumed next Monday, was not entirely new to us.

"Of course the allegations of the Nazis are preposterously false, just as the 'Protocols' themselves are. The Nazis allege that the action described by the 'Protocols' took place at a session of the 'Congress of Jewish B'nai B'rith Order' and the time they set is 'the year 1897.' Our information is that the story involves Hungarian Lodges.

"As a matter of fact, never has there been a B'nai B'rith Lodge in all of Hungary, and the first lodge in Switzerland was not organized until a much later period. The B'nai B'rith is an American institution, and its conventions are as a rule held in the United States. Only once did the executive committee hold a meeting outside the United States, and that was in 1912."

Trial to Resume April 29
Despite Nazi Efforts

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
BERNE, April 25.—All Nazi efforts to secure further postponement of the trial in the "Protocols of the Elders of Zion" case instituted by the Federation of Jewish Communities in Switzerland, failed when it was officially announced today that the trial will resume on Monday as scheduled.

No further witnesses will appear before the court when the trial reopens. There will only be a hearing of three experts and then the lawyers of both sides will deliver their summations.

Self-Taught Artist, 33, Designs Jubilee Stamp

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
LONDON, April 25.—Barnett Freedman, 33-year-old Russian Jewish artist, is the winner of a design for the special stamps which will be issued by the British Post Office in honor of the King's Jubilee.

Freedman is a self-taught artist. He began to study art as a boy when illness confined him for four years to a hospital. Leaving the hospital he continued his art studies and won an art scholarship in London. He is the protege of Sir William Rothenstein.

Warsaw Suburb Scene of Riots During Easter

Jews Attacked, Temple, Stores Stoned in Polish Town

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
WARSAW, April 25.—Riots in which many Jews were attacked and the windows of a synagogue and numerous Jewish shops were smashed broke out during the Easter holidays in the township of Ryki near Warsaw.

The riots started when Jewish pedestrians were molested in the streets by anti-Semitic Polish youths. Samson Teichman, a Jewish merchant, was taken to the hospital, suffering serious injuries.

Anti-Jewish boycott posters leading to clashes between Jews and anti-Semitic Polish youths were displayed in the city of Chorzow, Upper Silesia. The posters were placed chiefly on the windows of Jewish shops. The Jews, trying to remove them, were attacked by the young Poles. Police intervened, but the posters reappeared later after having been removed under police supervision.

In Danzig many Jewish shops were plastered during the Easter holidays with anti-Jewish placards, and the walls of the main streets in the city were painted with anti-Jewish slogans.

British, Dutch Film Men Boycott Berlin Parley

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
LONDON, April 25.—The British and the Dutch film companies have decided not to participate in the International Film Congress in Berlin, it was announced here today.

Austria Jews Set to Start Own Schools

First Will Be Opened in Vienna, Government
Is Informed

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
VIENNA, April 25.—The first elementary Jewish school will be opened here by the Jewish community, according to a decision adopted today as a result of the recent order of the government segregating Jewish from non-Jewish children in the municipal schools.

The resolution was transmitted today by the Jewish community to the Austrian government with a letter explaining that "the establishment of the first Jewish school need not be considered by the government as releasing the State from its obligations to provide for the schools of the Jewish national minority."

Likened to Reich Situation

The segregation of Jewish children from non-Jewish in the schools maintained by the government has created a situation similar to the one in Nazi Germany. Jewish children are embarrassed by the fact that they are segregated. In certain schools there is only one Jewish child on a separate bench entirely isolated from the other children in the classroom.

Under the existing international treaties guaranteed by the League of Nations, the Austrian government is obliged to grant equal treatment to the Jews and other national minorities of the country. These obligations are, however, being constantly violated in Austria despite the assurances of Chancellor Schuschnigg that the government does not discriminate against the Jewish population. The segregation of Jewish children from non-Jewish in the schools is only one of the many anti-Jewish discriminations in the country.

Palestine Gets Chemical Firm

Weizmann Is Chairman of New $500,000
Enterprise

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
JERUSALEM, April 25.—A new Palestine chemical company, to be known as the Palestine Chemical Industries, was established here today with a capital of $500,000 by Emanuel Neuman, well known American Jewish leader, and Nahum Menn, a Jewish industrialist of Poland.

Dr. Chaim Weizmann, former president of the World Zionist Organization, has agreed to be chairman of the new company, which was formed after a series of conferences between Mr. Neuman and Lord Melchett. Lord Melchett represented the interests of the Imperial Chemical Industries of England.

The new company was officially registered today with the government.

Bucharest Jews Fined $10,000 in Tax Delay

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
BUCHAREST, April 25.—The Sephardic Jewish community of Bucharest has been fined 1,000,000 lei (approximately $10,000) for failure to fill out the official tax forms and to submit them in time to the Treasury Department.

The leaders of the community intended to lodge an appeal against the fine, but were informed that their appeal would be rejected by the authorities.

Soviet Pushes Fight on Bias Over the Radio

Speakers in National Broadcast Assail
Anti-Semitism

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
MOSCOW, April 25.—A special radio program to combat anti-Semitism was broadcast this morning over all Soviet stations, in connection with the growing anti-Jewish movement throughout Europe.

The speakers cited the pogroms which took place in Russia under the Czarist regime and denounced anti-Semitism as a "counter-revolutionary tool" and as a means to "incite workers against workers."

Gifts valued at 100,000 roubles (approximately $60,000) were sent today by the city of Kharkov to Biro-Bidjan, the autonomous Jewish region in the Far East, on the occasion of the first anniversary of the proclamation of the region as an autonomous part of Soviet Russia.

A new Jewish daily newspaper, the fifth in the Soviet Union, started publication in the city of Vinice, Ukraine.

Judenstaat Votes to Bow
To Zionist Discipline

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
WARSAW, April 25.—A resolution of compromise "to submit to Zionist discipline, retaining at the same time liberty of action in accordance with Zionist conscience," was adopted by the Judenstaat party, a Zionist group which concluded its party convention here yesterday.

Dreiser Disavows Nazi Link, Anti-Semitism in Interview

The question whether Theodore Dreiser is anti-Semitic, which has created much discussion since the publication two weeks ago of a letter by the novelist criticizing the Jews, has been answered by himself in the negative.

"I have no hatred for the Jew and nothing to do with Hitler or Fascism," says Dreiser, in a statement in the current issue of The New Masses.

Dreiser's statement was made as the result of an interview with representatives of The New Masses, and a further discussion in the magazine's office.

Reich to Ban All Jewish Publications

Nazis Compiling Index of World's 'Aryan' Lawyers

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
BERLIN, April 25.—All German Jewish papers in Germany may be compelled to suspend publication as the result of a new law made public today, providing that racial and religious publications are henceforth forbidden.

The same law provides that persons who cannot prove their "Aryan" origin from the year 1800, may not be publishers of a newspaper or directors of publishing houses.

A world index of "Aryan" lawyers will be compiled by the Nazis in Germany, it is announced in the Fraenkische Zeitung, a Nazi daily published in Nuremberg by Julius Streicher.

The paper reports that the Central Bureau for International Law at the Nazi Lawyers' Association has started to compile the index "in order to facilitate the supply of racially fit attorneys all over the world."

Cites Difficulties

"It is not easy to get the Jews out of Germany," the same paper complains today. The Streicher organ emphasizes that "it has been possible to clear the Jews out of public offices but there is no possibility of preventing them from being engaged in commerce unless no German ever buys anything again from a Jew."

"Unfortunately," the paper writes, "this seems a very remote likelihood. Nor is it possible to prevent the Jews from practicing in liberal professions. It should, however, be possible to keep the Jews out of practice in the official Sick Funds for these are public institutions and should be regulated in the same way as all other public offices."

"Honorary Aryan"

The Hessische Landeszeitung complains that it has received information from a reliable source in Frankfurt-am-Main that a well known Jew there is to be proclaimed an "honorary Aryan."

"To favor individual Jews in this way would only introduce confusion."

Rights of Minorities in Greece To Be Secured by Special Body

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
SALONICA, April 25.—A decision to establish a special department for national minorities in the Greek government was adopted today at a session of the Greek cabinet.

The functions of the new department will be to ensure proper observance of the obligations towards national minorities in this country under the existing international treaties.

Two Jewish candidates will figure in the government list for the parliamentary elections to be held here May 19, it was announced today in the press. The announcement has provoked dissatisfaction among numerous Jewish groups since the Jews are entitled to five seats in the Parliament.

At the Coughlin Rally

Isserman on Social Justice

(Special to the J.D.B.)

DETROIT, April 25.—Rabbi Ferdinand M. Isserman of Temple Israel, St. Louis, was one of the principal speakers at the first mass meeting of Michigan members of the National Union for Social Justice, held here last night. He was on the platform upon the invitation of Father Charles E. Coughlin, radio priest founder of the organization which claims a membership of 8,500,000 qualified voters throughout the country.

Following is the full text of Rabbi Isserman's address:

"All over the world, Jews are celebrating this night, the close of the Passover festival, which commemorates the emancipation of the ancient Hebrews from the tyranny of the Pharaohs. Rejoicing in their divinely achieved freedom, they crossed the Red Sea and exultingly marched into the desert to receive the Ten Commandments, the cornerstone of civilized morality. In that ancient ethical code, the ideal of social justice found expression. From Sinai to this day, social justice has been part of the religious tradition of Judaism. At the hands of the prophets, it received immortal articulation. Hear again the words of Isaiah, read for centuries in the synagogue on the Day of Atonement, the most important day in the Jewish religious calendar: 'Is not this the fast that I have chosen? To loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke? Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry and that thou bring the poor, that are cast out, to thy house? When thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh?'" position against child labor.

"Like most of my colleagues in the rabbinate, I have been an advocate of social justice since my ordination. Having served as a member of the Social Justice Commission of the Central Conference of American Rabbis, and five years ago having been the organizer, and still being the chairman of the St. Louis Commission of Social Justice, I accepted the invitation of the Rev. Father Charles E. Coughlin to speak with a Protestant clergyman, some congressmen and himself on the necessity for social justice before this meeting.

"I am not a member of the National Union for Social Justice, but in sympathy with much though not all of its program. I speak as an individual, representing no organization, inspired by my faith to serve my followers of all creeds.

"In order to be here tonight, I had to absent myself from the Passover services in my own congregation this morning. But how better could I celebrate the festival of freedom than by raising my voice in behalf of social justice? Is it not true that without freedom there can be no justice? When Moses dared to champion the cause of the oppressed slaves in Egypt, even though he was a member of the royal house, he was compelled to flee into exile. If, among the slaves, there had been prophetic spirits, they could not have raised their voices on behalf of social justice in the face of Pharaoh's tyranny.

"Even as in those days, so the modern Pharaohs, whom we now call dictators, rule with an iron hand and with a reign of terror. With democracy lying prostrate, with liberty sneered at as an outworn superstition in lands where these Pharaohs rule, the champions of social justice are either terror-stricken or bemoan their fate in concentration camps. If it were not for the liberty and democracy that prevail in America, and that with the help of God will continue to prevail in our land, this meeting and the national organization which sponsored it, would not have been possible.

"We who believe in social justice, no matter how we differ on the application of these principles to the American scene, must be one in the determination to maintain at all costs, and at all sacrifices, the principles of democracy and of liberty, not only sacred because of the sacrifice of our heroic

Nation Exposes Nazis

The Nation this week starts a series of articles on "Nazi Jew-Baiting in America," reviewing Nazi activities in the United States which were reported months ago in the pages of the Jewish Daily Bulletin.

Similar series of articles have appeared recently in the magazine Today and in other American publications, bringing to light the Nazi movement in different parts of our country and the anti-Semitic activities it is conducting throughout the nation.

While the Jews of America will certainly be grateful to The Nation and the other publications for exposing the Nazis in the same way as the Ku Klux Klan was once exposed by the general press, it seems to me that these exposures, though they are well intended, also have their negative side.

Harmful Publicity

Some may agree and others disagree with me when I say that the Nazi movement in America is not so strong as to deserve the publicity it is given. This publicity only serves the Nazi cause. It keeps the Nazis always in the public eye. It makes the average American believe that the Nazi organization in America is a strongly organized force. It quotes the Nazi speakers and brings their words to the attention of millions of readers who would otherwise never have known about the Nazi propaganda in this country.

This is exactly what the Nazi leaders in America desire. They know very well that they could not reach the large American public through their own sheets. They know very well that their meetings would hardly be attended by Americans. They are therefore more than satisfied to see articles and reports about them in the general press, no matter how antagonistic these articles may be.

A Mysterious Informant

It is no coincidence that the Jewish Daily Bulletin, being a Jewish publication and naturally 100 per cent anti-Nazi, is nevertheless being constantly informed of the Nazi activities in America by Nazis themselves. From time to time someone with a marked German accent telephones our editorial offices, offering information on the doings of the Nazis. This information is always of an unfavorable nature to the Nazis. Nevertheless, some mysterious informants seem to be very much interested in seeing this information published.

The information offered is very seldom used, although upon verification, it turns out as a rule to be correct. The mystery about it is, however, that the informant, who seems to be a well-posted Nazi insider, never consents to give his name when he gives information over the telephone.

Silent Checking Preferable

It is quite clear that any publicity given to the activities of the Nazis in America is only helping them. Ignored by the press, and left to themselves, the Nazi groups in America would die a natural death since

Put Alien British Jews At 55,000

Interesting figures on the Anglicization of British Jews are given in the following editorial in the London Jewish Chronicle:

According to the latest published figures, the number of aliens in England and Wales dropped from some 280,000 in the year 1911 to some 230,000 in 1921. In the following decade they dwindled still further to some 180,000. In twenty years, therefore, their number has fallen by 100,000, or more than a third. Even the past three years, with their improved trade and German refugee influx, registered not an increase but a small drop. Clearly there is no "aliens problem" in this country, though whether the diminution of neighborly contacts with members of other nations is a moral or political gain in these times is another matter. Owing to the absence of a religious census it is impossible to say exactly how many of the 180,000 aliens in the country three years ago were Jews. Assuming that the 55,000 enumerated Russians and Poles were such, and omitting the smaller numbers of the other nationalities, we should arrive at a total of 55,000 foreign-born Jews in our community of 350,000. The Anglicization of British Jewry, even making allowance for foreign-born Jews in Scotland not included in the present figures, is proceeding apace. It is the very few would hear of their existence.

This does not mean, of course, that the Nazi work in the United States should be left unchecked. The checking should be done, however, by institutions, such as the MacCormack Congressional Committee or any other private or government investigating body, rather than by the press. The organizations interested in investigating the Nazi machinations in America will get much better results if the press of America ignores the Nazis for the time being.

The articles in the Nation on "Nazi Jew-Baiting in America" will certainly be appreciated by the Jews. I am afraid, however, that they will be appreciated also by the Nazis. They convey Nazi propaganda indirectly by reproducing Nazi leaflets and quoting Nazi slogans. This is exactly what the Nazis in America wish. They wish to reach those Americans whom they cannot attract through their own publications and their own meetings.

greatest revolution in our communal history, though a silent one!

Spokesman Urges Jewish Press Week

Suggesting that a Jewish Press Week of the Anglo-Jewish press of America be arranged, The Spokesman of Louisville, Ky., writes:

B'nai B'rith, the American Jewish Committee, the American Jewish Congress, the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, the Rabbinical Assembly of America, and the Agudas Rabbanim, would all cooperate in a Jewish Press Week sponsored on a national scale properly arranged by the news services and financed by the newspapers taking part.

From a local standpoint, the cooperation would, of necessity, have to be arranged by the participating papers. However, the local publications would have little difficulty what with the okeh and sponsorship of the national groups. The cost to the Anglo-Jewish press would be very nominal, and the results may be astonishing. Certain it is, that with the passing years, Jewish Press Week would become an institution in American Jewish life.

Rambam Grave Draws Visitors All Over World

Octocentennial Rites Are Continued at Tiberias

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
TIBERIAS, April 25.—Impressive ceremonies at the grave of Maimonides, the Jewish physician and philosopher, marked yesterday the second day of the celebration of the Maimonides octocentennial in Palestine.

Thousands of Jews from all over Palestine flocked here to witness the ceremonies at the grave of the Jewish sage who was born 800 years ago in Cordoba, Spain. The grave of the Rambam is also being visited by many scientists from all over the world interested in collecting direct data on the philosopher's life.

A procession this afternoon was led by Nahum Sokolow, president of the World Zionist Organization. Representatives of all Jewish communities in Palestine as well as of the Jewish National Council and other central Jewish institutions participated in the parade. At the tomb Dr. Sokolow read from a scroll devoted specially to Maimonides.

The festivities were somewhat marred when Arab boy scouts camped near the Maimonides grave.

fathers, but also because without them reaction would remain unchallenged, greed and avarice would rule undisturbed, and the woes of suffering men would continue. Lest we be led astray by Fascist whisperings that freedom and democracy are inefficient media of government in a complex industrial civilization, we must remember that wherever democracy has been destroyed, it has been destroyed not to help the common man, but further to degrade and enslave him. I would rather be a beggar in rags eating a dry morsel, the master of my destiny and the captain of my soul, than a sleek, well-fed, pampered, servile hireling, goose-stepping to the whims and caprices of a dictator or despot.

"Moses, a prince in Egypt, preferred starvation in the desert with freedom to royalty with acquiescence in oppression, injustice and slavery. The first plank in the program of any social justice group must be a rededication to and a declaration of faith in democracy and liberty."

"In this vast continent, which a kind and generous Destiny has entrusted to our safe-keeping, there is no moral and no practical reason why millions of persons should be the wards of private or governmental charity, and millions of others should live continuously on the border line of starvation, while factories are idle and fields lie fallow."

"We suffer not from over-production, but from under-consumption. We have not been as generous in distributing the bounties of nature as Providence has been with us. Who stretched this country from the Atlantic to the Pacific? Who ploughed the courses of its rivers? Who raised its beetling mountains? Who filled its hills with mineral wealth? Who put coal in its mines and oil in its lands? Not man, but God, working through nature, preparing through arduous centuries the abundance now within our grasp."

"We must in the administration of this vast domain be as generous as was God in endowing it. We must, by applying the principles of social justice to our economy, guarantee to every man, woman and child, born and living under our azure skies, the fundamentals of existence, the opportunity for life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. To the rights guaranteed to us in the constitution, we must add a new moral charter, the right of every individual to a job and to freedom from economic insecurity as far as the limitations of our resources permit. These can be attained through the American scheme of government without the importation of any foreign political 'isms.'"

"If this National Union for Social Justice will rally to maintain democracy, and if it will endeavor to secure social justice for men and women of all creeds, of all denominations, of all races, if its program will equally include black and white, Catholic and Protestant, Jew and Christian, native and foreign-born, if it will be animated not with malice but with mercy, not with hate but with love, not with frenzy but with reason, not with fear but with faith, then it

Temple to Mark Anniversary Of Jews' Arrival Here in 1655

The 280th anniversary of the settlement of the Jews in the United States will be celebrated tomorrow evening by the Congregation Shearith Israel at the Spanish and Portuguese Synagogue, 2 West Seventieth street, it was announced yesterday. The congregation, oldest Jewish community in the country, will mark at the same time its own 280th birthday.

The oldest churches in the city will be represented in a symposium that is to be part of the ceremonies.

On April 26, 1655, a group of Jews landed in Manhattan, the first of their race in North America. Peter Stuyvesant was not cordial to the strangers in his colony, but the Dutch West India Company approved their settlement. The band grew in numbers and strength, winning its place among the recognized religious communities in New Amsterdam. This struggle for liberty will be dramatized tomorrow evening by readings from some of the correspondence between the Jews, Peter Stuyvesant, and the Dutch West India Company.

may become a great instrument in establishing a new order of social justice in the United States, and thus blaze a trail of hope for the children of men everywhere. Maynard of the Huguenot group, Michael Williams, editor of The Commonwealth, for the Catholics; Dr. Samuel Trexler of the Lutheran group and Dr. Donald B. Aldrich of the Episcopal Church will speak.

Dr. David de Sola Pool, minister of the Congregation Shearith Israel, will tell of the traditions made and shared by the Jews of New York City for almost three centuries.

Riot in Cernowitz Breaks Up Show

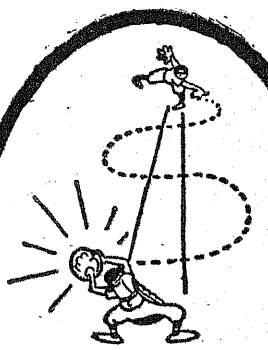

Students Object When Jew Is Found Conducting Orchestra

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
BUCHAREST, April 25.—Anti-Semitic riots broke out last night in the National Theatre in Cernowitz, resulting in the abrupt termination of the performance of a musical comedy.

The riots started when anti-Semitic students discovered that the conductor of the orchestra is a Jew.

Police took immediate precautions to prevent the disturbance from spreading outside the theatre. None of the anti-Semitic students who caused the disturbances were arrested.

Youth Day in the synagogue will be observed throughout Brooklyn tomorrow as part of the program mapped out for Brooklyn Youth Week.

Federal Aid Is Sought for Jews in Poland

Delegation Tells Cabinet Member of Plight; Lodz Endeks Split

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
WARSAW, April 25.—A delegation of Jews appeared today before the Minister of the Interior and submitted to him a memorandum on the Jewish economic plight in the country.

The delegation asked for government aid to relieve the great misery prevailing among the Jews.

The National Democratic faction in the Lodz municipality, which formed a majority in the Municipal Council and passing numerous anti-Jewish laws split today. Five members of this faction joined the opposition, taking from the National Democrats its control over the Municipal Council in Lodz.

The sudden split in the National Democratic faction is expected to prevent any anti-Jewish municipal legislation in the future.

sion in regard to the clear and definite racial ideas set up by our party program," the Nazi paper says, protesting against the intentions of the Nazis in Frankfurt.

'Nazi Jews' Hold Stormy Berlin Session

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
BERLIN, April 25.—A meeting called by Dr. Max Naumann, leader of the so-called "Nazi Jews," a minority group, who are advocating complete loyalty to the Nazi program, was converted here last night into a near-riot, when many Jews present at the meeting protested against the message of congratulations which Dr. Naumann sent to Hitler on the day of the Chancellor's birthday.

Dr. Naumann was heckled when he appeared on the platform. Voices from the audience called him "anti-Semite" and urged him to refrain from misrepresenting Jewish sentiment.

Replying to his attackers, Dr. Naumann branded them as Zionists and emphasized that even if the situation for the Jews in Germany grows worse, he and his followers will still remain loyal to the Nazis and their program.

Catholics Included in Nazi Boycott Directory

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
BERLIN, April 25.—The Catholic population of the city of Trier, in the Rhine, is highly excited over distribution of a special directory of "non-Aryan" business firms which includes names of Jews as well as of non-Jews.

The city of Trier is populated chiefly by Catholics, who resented the inclusion in the directory of many Catholic firms.

The Jewish firm of Berncastel in Trier was attacked yesterday by Nazi hooligans who smashed the windows and painted the walls of the firm with slanderous inscriptions.

German Envoy Thanks Jewish Family in Oslo

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
OSLO, April 25.—A message of thanks was received here today from the German Ambassador by a Jewish family for sheltering victims of the Dresden disaster last summer.

In reply, the family wrote to the Ambassador: "Because we are Jews we deal kindly with other people. Love Thy Neighbor is the supreme commandment of Judaism."

Lamports Give $8,100 For Hebrew U. Fund

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
JERUSALEM, April 25.—A fund of $8,100, to be distributed among students who distinguish themselves in their work at the Hebrew University, was announced here today as having been established by the Lamport family of New York.

A rare manuscript on metaphysics, written in Yemen, on the Arabian Peninsula, in the year 1498 and believed to have been studied by Maimonides, the Jewish philosopher and physician, has been acquired by the Hebrew University Library, an announcement here states.

Cohen Ridicules Nazi Charges

In order to prove that the "Protocols," which the Nazis and other anti-Semites are utilizing in their propaganda against the Jews, is a rank forgery, the Federation will ask the court to clarify through experts the following questions:

1. Is it true, as the forged "Protocols" claim, that the program of the first Zionist Congress held in Basle in 1897 provides for Jewish domination the world over, or only for the creation of a Jewish National Home in Palestine?

2. Is it true that Achad Haam, Zionist leader and theoretician, is the author of the notorious "Proocols" as the Nazis claim?

3. Is it not true that the first Zionist Congress took place openly and held no secret sessions?

4. Is it not true that the "Protocols" are in many parts a copy of a book issued by a Frenchman, Maurice Jolley, in 1864, years before the first Zionist Congress took place?

Fourteen other questions which aim to establish the forgery of the "Protocols" and to bring out the fact that they are the creation of a Russian anti-Semitic journalist under the Czarist regime, have been presented by the Federation to the court in Berne to be submitted to the experts at the trial.

The trial is scheduled to end May 4, and it is expected that the verdict will once and forever establish the falsity of the "Pro-

8,271 men and women visited the Chesterfield factories during the past year . . .

A man who visited a Chesterfield factory recently, said: "Now that I have seen Chesterfields made, I understand better than ever why people say Chesterfields are milder and have a better taste."

If you too could visit our factories you could see the clean, airy surroundings; the employees in their spotless uniforms, and the modern cigarette making machinery.

You could notice how carefully each Chesterfield cigarette is inspected and see also how Chesterfields are practically untouched by human hands.

Whenever you happen to be in Richmond, Va., Durham, N. C., or San Francisco, California, we invite you to stop at the Liggett & Myers plants and see how Chesterfields are made.
