Sees Danger Growing for Polish Jews

Ruling Party Absorbing Endeks, Socialist Leader Warns

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

WARSAW, May 28—The danger which the near future holds for the Jews of Poland is pointed out today by M. Niedzialkowski, a leader of the Polish Socialist Party in the Sejm, in an article in "Robotnik," official organ of the party.

The Socialist leader discloses that the Government Party is now quietly absorbing large sections of the anti-Semitic National Democratic Party, (Endeks) thus taking in increasingly large doses of political anti-Jewish doctrines.

Keep Anti-Semitism

Dissatisfied with the present tactics of the National Democratic Party, especially after the death of Pilsudski, many members of this anti-Jewish group which was in opposition to the present government are now changing their minds and joining the pro-government ranks.

These elements do not, however, change their minds as to their anti-Jewish attitude. Their influence in the pro-government party may therefore spell eventual danger for Polish Jewry.

While the analysis of the Polish Socialist leader on the Jewish situation in the near future may be correct, Jewish leaders here abstain from committing themselves to any opinion. Their policy today is one of watchful waiting, since the country is still mourning the death of the late Marshal Pilsudski.

Soviet Rejects Many For Biro-Bidjan

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

MOSCOW, May 28—Seven hundred and nineteen qualified technicians, agronomists, and workers, applied to the Soviet government last month to be sent to Biro-Bidjan, but less than half of them were accepted, it was officially announced here today.

Two hundred and eighty-nine applications were rejected by the Comzet for various reasons, two hundred and twenty-three were accepted, and the rest are being investigated.

Revisionists Expel Brutzkus from Party

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

PARIS, May 28—Dr. Julius Brutzkus, former member of the World Revisionist Executive, was the first to be expelled from the Revisionist Party today for buying a Shekel for the next Zionist Congress.

Dr. Brutzkus recently resigned from the Revisionist Executive but remained a member of the Revisionist organization. His purchase of a Shekel despite the decision of the Revisionist Executive to boycott the Congress was considered a breach of party discipline.

Assails War On Religion In the Soviet

Orthodox Jewry Being Crushed, Chief Rabbi Of England Says

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

LONDON, May 28—A scathing attack on the anti-religious propaganda conducted in Soviet Russia was made today at the opening of the annual Anglo-Jewish Preachers Conference by Chief Rabbi Hertz of England.

Rabbi Hertz declared that the religious element in Soviet Jewry is undergoing a slow extermination. The Soviet rulers are fanatical apostles of Godlessness, he said.

Referring to the German situation, Rabbi Hertz criticized the German universities for doing nothing to counteract the Nazi barbarism.

Hits Indifference

"Most terrible of all is the fact that the world has come to accept as normal the outlawing of 500,000 human beings in Central Europe and that outside governments consider this situation as something in which they have not the least right to interfere," the Chief Rabbi said.

Declaring that the present situation of the Jews is dark, Rabbi Hertz voiced enthusiasm at the promise which Palestine holds for the Jews.

A world conference of Sephardic Jews opened in London today under the chairmanship of Sir Francis Montefiore. Representatives of a dozen European countries

Rail Strike Looms in Palestine

Government Is Warned By Employes to Raise Wages

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

JERUSALEM, May 28—The possibility of a railway strike in Palestine was discussed today at a convention of railway workers held in Haifa in connection with the new government laws regulating wages for workers.

Dissatisfied with these laws, the convention today decided to send a delegation to the High Commissioner of Palestine to demand that the laws be amended so as to secure higher wages for the railway workers. Instructions were given to the delegation to warn the government that "quick action had better be taken" with regard to the wage scale.

Posters announcing the establishment of a new branch of the Arab Youth Federation in Palestine appeared today in Tulkarm, with slogans reading, "Nation Above Government," "Justice Above Force."

The all-Arab city of Tulkarm was also decorated today with posters urging the Arabs not to pay government taxes as a protest against the increased Jewish immigration. Some of the posters also urged the killing of British officials.

Predict Wide College Probe

Ask State Investigation Of Pro-Nazism at Rutgers

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., May 28—A nation-wide investigation into all American colleges to establish the extent of Nazi propaganda there, may be the outcome of the investigation now being held here in connection with the charges against Dr. Frederick J. Hauptmann, it was indicated today.

Dr. Hauptmann, head of the German department of the women's college of Rutgers University, is charged with spreading anti-Semitism and pro-Nazi propaganda among the students of his department.

No hearing was held today by the investigation committee. The hearing will be resumed tomorrow.

Meanwhile, great interest was aroused here by the resolution introduced yesterday in the New Jersey Assembly at Trenton, calling for a State investigation into the un-American activities and the spreading of Nazi propaganda in the New Jersey Women's College.

No Paper Tomorrow

The Jewish Daily Bulletin will not be published tomorrow, Decoration Day. It will appear as usual the following day.

Film on Palestine Is Shown in Berlin

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, May 8—The first showing of a Palestine film, "Land of Promise," was given here last night, attracting large audiences.

The authorities today notified the distributors that exhibition of the film would be restricted to Jewish audiences. Only under this restriction will the film be permitted throughout the country, the order states.

Efforts to Aid Doctors Fail In Austria

Physicians' Union Cites Continued Bias in State Hospitals

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

VIENNA, May 28—The plight of Jewish doctors in Vienna as a result of the anti-Jewish discrimination in State and Municipal institutions, is described today in a report by the Union of Jewish Doctors in Austria, made public here.

"The position of the young Jewish doctors in the medical institutions continues to be the subject of repeated effort, petitions, representations and negotiations," the report says. "We must regretfully state that we have not achieved anything in this regard."

The report complains that Jews continue to be passed over in medical appointments, except for isolated instances. The principal of ignoring Jewish applicants is being carried so far that positions are left vacant for no other reason than that there are no other candidates but Jews, the report emphasizes.

In the General Hospital of Vienna, there are only two Jews now among the sixty-one doctors and assistants. The Franz Josef Hospital has only seven Jews among the forty medical assistants. These seven will be leaving the hospital on October 31. The Wilhelmina Hospital has only two Jews among its eighty medical assistants. In the Rudolf Hospital there is only one Jew.

The report of the Union of Jewish Doctors states that the attention of the Ministry of Social Ad-

Reich Urged To Seize Jews' Land

Plan to Convert Synagogues to Museums Is Presented

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

BERLIN, May 28—A project to confiscate all real estate held by Jews in Germany is advanced today in the Juedenkenner, the anti-Semitic weekly in Berlin which emulates Julius Streicher's publication, Der Stuermer.

The paper puts forward an elaborate plan to oust all Jewish landholders from Berlin and to concentrate them in purely Jewish districts. The dispossessed Jewish landlords should be given land in the province of Brandenburg, instead of money as compensation, the paper recommends.

Would Seize Synagogues

The synagogues of Berlin would be taken over by the municipality, according to the paper's project, and could be converted into museums or used for other public purposes.

"Berlin, the 'Aryan' capital of the world, would once more become a German city worthy of the new Reich, if all the Jews were transplanted from the city into a new pale," the paper says.

The performance of "The Song of Songs" by a Jewish choir and orchestra was prohibited last night by the secret political police. The official reason given was that tickets for the concert were sold to non-Jews in violation of the regulations.

Report $20,000,000 Raised by J. N. Fund

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

JERUSALEM, May 28—The sum of $20,000,000 has been collected by the Jewish National Fund since its inception, it was officially announced today.

An appeal was issued today by the Jewish National Fund for $5,000,000 to be collected within the next two years. The appeal points out that of the $20,000,000 raised so far, the first $5,000,000 was collected in the course of 21 years. The other $15,000,000, however, were collected at the rate of $5,000,000 every four years.

England Gets Jewish Radio; Reich Exile to Direct Station

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

LONDON, May 28—The establishment of a Jewish broadcasting station in England was announced today. The station, the first private and Jewish enterprise of its kind in England, was incorporated in London today as the Jewish Radio, Ltd.

In a statement to the Jewish Telegraphic Agency, Dr. S. Goldberg, a German-Jewish refugee who has been appointed managing director of the enterprise, declared that the station will eschew political or aggressive policies.

Dr. Goldberg, who was the president of the Jewish Peace Temple in Berlin, emphasized that the work of the station will be devoted to demonstrating the cultural achievements of the Jews in artistic, scientific and spiritual life.

"We want to secure a world-wide understanding of the Jewish problem by means of a defensive activity against the unjust anti-Jewish accusations. Our station will work in the service of the ideals of liberty and peace," Dr. Goldberg said.

1,500 Polish Peasants Demand Jewish Ritual for Children

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)

WARSAW, May 28—A delegation of three non-Jewish peasants representing a group of 1,500 peasants in Polesia, Poland, appeared today before the Warsaw Rabbinate and asked the Rabbinate to send them three religious Jews qualified to circumcize their children, in accordance with the Jewish ritual.

"Our group feels like Jews," the delegation explained. "We pray three times each day. We do not eat treif. We observe all the Jewish laws."

The Rabbinate promised the delegation to consider its request. The peculiar pro-Jewish religious movement among the peasants of Polesia, the Polish district adjoining the Soviet, has provoked great interest and puzzlement in government circles. The movement is termed by official as the "New Jews" movement. Its leader is Olga Krilitchuck, a peasant woman.

The Bureya's First Birthday

By DAVID WENDROFF
(J.T.A. Staff Correspondent)

MOSCOW.

Soviet Russia this month celebrated the first anniversary of the proclamation of Biro-Bidjan as an autonomous Jewish region with the customary fanfare in the press. The Jewish papers in particular, as would naturally be expected, printed a great deal about the region, reviewing the accomplishments of a year and describing the plans and personalities bulking large in the future of the Russian Jewish state.

They agree that great progress has been made during the twelve months since May 9, 1934 when the Central Executive Committee of the Soviets proclaimed Biro-Bidjan an autonomous Jewish region. They point out that in recent years sentiment with respect to the new region in the Far East of Siberia has changed and that the Comzet, the government organization for settling Jews on the land, is now flooded with applications from prospective settlers. The old problem of re-emigration is dead, since the conditions that formerly led settlers to abandon the region no longer exist.

Points to Progress

"During the past year," declares the Emes, Communist Yiddish daily, "the Jewish autonomous region has taken great forward strides. The area under cultivation has increased twenty per cent. Ten thousand hectares of land have been ameliorated, the industrial and co-operative enterprises have been consolidated, and have produced the quotas assigned to them. There is a more systematic house-building activity. The town of Biro-Bidjan, the center of the region, has had new roads built, post and telegraph services have been improved and the budget for cultural work has been increased by 8,000,000 roubles this year.

"There are ninety schools in the region, attended by more than 10,000 children. There is a State theatre, a talkie cinema, ten hospitals, a radio station, etc.

Re-emigration Checked

"Re-emigration has completely stopped this year. Many who had left Biro-Bidjan are now anxious to be sent back there. The Comzet is flooded with applications from settlers to allow friends and relatives to join them.

"One of the most important problems for the whole of the Far East, and particularly for the Jewish autonomous region, is to increase as rapidly as possible the population which is needed for building up the Region and mastering its natural wealth.

"Immigration plans for 1935 foresee an immigration of 4,000 families, or 12,000 souls, which is more than the total number who have till now established themselves in Biro-Bidjan.

Called Jewish National State

"The biggest point about the Jewish autonomous region is the growing feeling of a State among the masses both of the Jewish autonomous region and throughout the Soviet Republic," the paper writes. "How true are Kalinin's words, that we look upon Biro-Bidjan as a Jewish National State and that Biro-Bidjan interests us as a Jewish State unit, where every Jew in five or six years' time will be like the German in the Soviet Union, who knows that there is a German Soviet Republic on the Volga, or the Tartar who knows that there is a Tartar Republic.

"The idea is taking hold of the Jewish masses. That applies not only to those who believe and work in the Jewish autonomous region, but also outside its boundaries. It finds expression in the achievements of hundreds of skilled workers, specialists, and cultural workers who went together to work in Biro-Bidjan, in order to build up the Jewish Region. Biro-Bidjan will grow into a real Socialist Jewish center of culture, and everyone who cherishes this idea should help," the paper concludes.

A "Refugee Stamp"

The Duchy of Luxembourg has now embarked upon a novel method of helping Jewish and other refugees from Germany. It has issued a special set of postage stamps bearing a surplus tax, which will be devoted to the assistance of refugees.

The number of refugees from Germany now in Luxembourg is not large. Considering, however, the small size of the country, any influx of foreigners dependent upon charity, is a burden to the government.

As a country which covers the major part of its budget by issuing stamps which are of value to stamp collectors, the administration of Luxembourg hopes that the special tax levied on the postage stamps this year will be sufficient to provide the necessary relief for the refugees.

International Relief

In issuing the special set of stamps, the Luxembourg government feels confident that these stamps, because of their purpose, will attract interest, not only in Luxembourg but all over the world. The government believes that the new stamps will be regarded as a means for an international relief action to alleviate the distress of the displaced scientists, artists and other professionals from Germany and to afford them a breathing spell until they can adjust themselves to a new life.

These stamps are of exceptional interest. They display symbolic images of those whom the issue is meant to help. They represent a professor, a painter, journalist, an engineer, a chemist, a lawyer and a physician—all those who have been ousted from their positions by the Nazis in Germany as non-Aryans.

One Year in Circulation

The "refugee stamps" now issued by the Luxembourg Government will be in circulation for one year only. They will travel all over the world proclaiming the warm-hearted generosity of a minute country which has given practical expression to its sense of duty toward humanity by helping those to whom humanity owes so much.

There are hundreds of refugees now in danger of actual starvation, not only in Luxembourg but in other countries neighboring Germany. The humanitarian postage stamps issued by the Duchy of Luxembourg will no doubt be of benefit also to those refugees who are not at present in Luxembourg. It is expected that a proportion of the income which the Luxembourg government expects to derive from the "refugee stamps," will be divided is also why the "refugee stamps" Luxembourg through special committees.

Combatting Indifference

In these days of political insecurity and economic depression, when innumerable professional workers in Germany, Austria and other countries are deprived of the possibility of carrying on their professional activities and earning a livelihood, the novel method of relief devised by the Luxembourg government will in a measure serve to rouse other nations from the general indifference to the position of the professional in exile. It will make the purchasers of the "refugee stamps" feel that they are directly contributing toward the alleviation of the precarious position of the refugees.

This is why the government of Luxembourg ought to be congratulated for its original idea. This

Sees No Hope For Jews Under Nazis

Frederick T. Birchall, analyzing the Jewish situation in Germany, cables the following from Berlin to the New York Times:

The prospect is that so long as this National Socialist regime lasts there will be no future for German-born or alien-born Jews in Germany. Their relegation to an inferior status is now an integral part of the law of the land and denial of their German status is a cardinal point in the Nazi creed. Only a few weeks ago an eminent Jewish advocate who had been touring Germany counseling his people to sit tight, keep quiet, obey the law and wait for better times was summoned before constituted authority and directed to end his activities.

Jews, whether law-abiding or not, are not wanted in Germany, he was told, and the best thing they can do is to get out.

The position of the great Jewish bankers is easy to understand. They do not emigrate because their entire resources are tied up in Germany and cannot be extricated without physical danger to themselves. They are tolerated and even well-treated because they are necessary; and, in these circumstances, they are taking the long chance of remaining because they, too, hope for a change, under which they can remain.

But the position of the Jews as a whole has not changed nor is it likely to under this regime except possibly for the worse. Julius Streicher, their bitterest foe, is just now enjoying great favor and his activities are extending. He is perfecting plans for issuing his Jew-baiting newspaper, the Stuermer, now published in Nuremberg, in all the great cities throughout Germany, including Berlin.

Upholds Shavuoth Gifts Custom

Should Jewish children accept confirmation gifts? The Sentinel, Chicago Jewish weekly, answers the question as follows:

The approaching festival of is also why the "refugee stamps" of the Luxembourg government will find a ready circulation in many countries outside of Luxembourg.

Shavouth will witness the confirmation of a large number of our boys and girls and the question of confirmation gifts is once again in the air. Many objections have been offered against the acceptance of gifts by confirmants. It has been argued that gifts divert the attention of the child from the main purpose of confirmation which is initiation into Judaism, and the suggestion has been made that in lieu of gifts, relatives and friends should make donations to charitable institutions in honor of confirmants. We are one hundred percent in favor of contributions to worthy institutions and we think it beautiful to make them in honor of confirmants—but to discourage a child from accepting gifts is bad Judaism and worse psychology. Some people are naive enough to expect children to act like angels when it is sufficient that they act like normal children. We believe that it is a wonderful thing for our children to receive confirmation gifts, for thereby the importance of this ceremony is concretely accentuated.

Mosley Queried on Streicher Hints

The Sunday Referee, a London newspaper, carries the following editorial under the headline "Yes or No, Sir Oswald?":

Those simpletons who believe that British Fascism is more virtuous than the German brand would do well to ponder the correspondence, published in the German Press, between Sir Oswald Mosley and Julius Streicher, chief Nazi anti-Semite.

In reply to a telegram from Streicher, Sir Oswald is reported to have said: "I value your message. . . . The forces of Jewish corruption in all great lands must be defeated before the future of Europe can be ensured in justice and peace. . . ."

If this message is an incorrect report, Sir Oswald ought to disclaim it at once. If it is true, then the British people will know their man.

Bentwich Ends His Drive Here To Aid Appeal

League Aide Is Given Farewell Reception By Leaders

With the plaudits of Jewish communities in scores of cities ringing in his ears, Norman Bentwich, associate on the League of Nations High Commission for Refugees, was preparing yesterday for his departure to Palestine after a visit here of two months.

During his stay, Mr. Bentwich, who is professor of international relations at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem, made many appearances in behalf of the United Jewish Appeal's nation-wide campaign for $3,250,000. He leaves tomorrow night on the Berengaria.

At a farewell reception Monday night at the home of William Rosenwald, a national co-chairman of the Appeal, Mr. Bentwich made a final plea to America for "understanding of the gravity of the need" of the refugees from Germany and of persecuted Jewish masses in Germany and other European lands.

Commenting on visits he had made to more than a score of cities throughout the East and Middle West on behalf of the refugees from Germany, Mr. Bentwich said that he "admired everywhere the largeness and the efficiency of the organization, the vision and the zeal of the leaders in the communities; the devotion of the workers," but added that he felt that "the response of American Jewry seems to me to be inadequate for the greatness of the cause and the urgency of the need."

The liberals and Christian bodies of the United States have contributed little for the 15,000 Christian refugees from Germany, and "their need is not less grave than that of the Jewish refugees," Mr. Bentwich declared, and reiterated the remark of Lord Cecil that "what has happened in Germany is a challenge to the principles of Christian civilization."

Mr. Rosenwald presided, and others who spoke were I. Edwin Goldwasser, co-chairman of the Greater New York campaign, and Samuel J. Bloomingdale.

Wilmington Honors David Snellenburg

(Special to the J.D.B.)

WILMINGTON, Del., May 28—The Jewish community of Wilmington, with representatives of every element present, tonight paid tribute to David Snellenburg, regarded as one of the outstanding figures in communal fund-raising not merely in this community, but throughout the United States. Various local leaders and Isidore Coons, national director of the United Jewish Appeal, pointed out that Mr. Snellenburg has been the key figure in every Jewish fund-raising project this city has known for almost two decades. In 1918 he led the first non-sectarian campaign for Jewish war relief. The idea that he originated then spread throughout the United States.

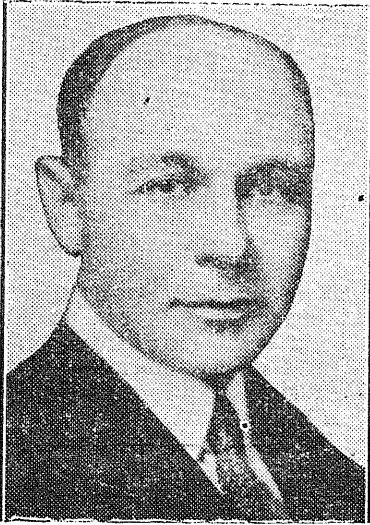

Mr. Snellenburg has been chairman of every Joint Distribution Committee and United Jewish Appeal campaign held in Wilmington. This year, too, he is the principal officer of the United Jewish Appeal in this city. He is also a national vice-chairman of the United Jewish Appeal.

Meat Boycott Closes 3,500 Kosher Shops

Packers Meet Public Today in Effort At Peace

With the consumer-retailer boycott against kosher meat packers spreading throughout the city, a delegation of the City Action Committee against the High Cost of Living will meet with representatives of the Institute of American Meat Packers this afternoon at the office of Commissioner William Fel-lows Morgan, Jr., of the Department of Public Markets, Weights and Measures, in an attempt to reach an agreement.

The Action Committee estimated yesterday that about 3,500 kosher butchers had closed their shops in sympathy with the housewives' efforts to force a ten-cent per pound reduction in the price of meat.

It was learned that executives of the Federation of Kosher Butchers held a secret conference yesterday to consider a course of action. The executives have been closeted in conferences ever since the rank-and-file butchers voted last Sunday night at Webster Hall to strike in sympathy with the consumers.

Shops Picketed

A number of butcher shops, notably in Manhattan where the boycott is the weakest, were still being picketed by women adherents of the boycott movement.

Charges that certain kosher butchers had stored meat for more than the ritual limit of seventy-two hours were discounted yesterday by George Ringler of the State Department of Agriculture and Markets. He said that on returning from Albany where he conferred with the department officials, he investigated the complaints and found them baseless.

Rebuffed Monday in presenting demands for a price-cut to meat packers, a committee of three representing the action committee interviewed Commissioner Morgan at his office yesterday. He expressed a desire to be helpful and arranged this afternoon's meeting.

Mr. Morgan was non-committal about charges that the meat packers are keeping wholesale prices high to increase their profits. He said he had not investigated the accusations as yet.

Wins Scholarship To Palestine School

Socolow Award for 8 Months At Hebrew U. Goes to Bronx Teacher

Israel S. Chipkin, chairman of the board of trustees of the Lena Socolow Palestine Scholarship Fund, announced yesterday that Leslie Flaksman of the Bronx, has been selected from among seventy-five applicants as the winner of the scholarship for this year. The award provides for living expenses and tuition during an eight months' stay in Palestine under the auspices of the Hebrew University in Jerusalem. Provision will also be made for visits and sojourns in the agricultural and industrial settlements and places of historic and religious significance.

Mr. Flaksman is a graduate of Harvard University and of the Hebrew Teachers College of Boston, Mass. For the past three years he has been club activities director at the Bronx House, 1637 Washington Avenue.

for You

Professor Albert Einstein is one of the most modest men in the world. For many years his friends were unable to prevail upon him to publish in permanent form any except his scientific writings.

Now, at last, Professor Einstein has relented and in this book there are collected his ideas and thoughts on a multitude of subjects. Under the title

"The World As I See It"

Professor Einstein speaks out with impassioned sincerity on the things nearest his heart, on Judaism, Germany, War, Peace, Politics, and Science. For the first time he explains with brilliant clarity, in non-technical language, the meaning of his Theory of Relativity. For the first time he discloses to the world his correspondence with the Prussian Academy of Sciences concerning his resignation out of disgust with the Nazi government. In addition, Professor Einstein here expresses his philosophy of life, his ideas on good and evil, on society, on the religiousness of science, on his impressions of America, and on his hopes for mankind. Never before has he shown himself in so many moods and with such unrestraint.

"It is not a theory that is revealed in these pages, it is a person, and a compelling person. As a mathematician Einstein may be difficult; as a man he is irresistible," said the New York Times Book Review about The World as I See It. All we can add is that here is a readable, extremely interesting book of the utmost importance. Those who unite in considering Professor Einstein one of the foremost personalities of our age cannot afford to miss reading The World as I See It.

British Jews Hail Memory Of Maimonides

Colorful Rites Held at Spanish - Portuguese Temple in London

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
LONDON, May 28—Representatives of all parts of the Jewish community in England as well as representatives of Sephardic communities in Europe, attended today special services in memory of Maimonides, the Jewish physician and philosopher whose 800th birthday is being celebrated throughout the world.

The services were held in the Spanish-Portuguese Synagogue of London and were distinguished by a special ceremony which included three processions with the Torah and the lighting of a perpetual lamp in memory of the great Jewish philosopher.

Chief Rabbi Hertz delivered the main prayer while Rabbi D. B. De Mesquita of the Spanish-Portuguese Congregation performed the ceremony.

A large and distinguished gathering also attended a lecture on Maimonides by Prof. A. S. Yahuda, lately professor of Hebrew at the University of Madrid. The lecture was delivered at King's College, London University, under the chairmanship of the Spanish Ambassador in London, Don Raymon Perez de Ayala, who is the most prominent Spanish novelist and poet of the younger generation. The Ambassador emphasized that the government of Spain is proud of the fact that Maimonides was born in Cordova, Spain.

Upsetting the NRA Cost Him $100,000

The man who is the hero of jubilant opponents of NRA throughout the country, was himself sunk in gloom yesterday.

Joseph Schechter, head of the Schechter Live Poultry Corporation, had computed and computed and finally realized that it had cost him $100,000 to overthrow the NRA codes in the Supreme Court.

"I would have preferred the jail sentence," he said, "if I would have known that legal fees were going to cost that much."

Zionists Map Plans For Election Drive

150 Voting Booths to be Set Up in New York Area for Congress Balloting

Plans for a city-wide campaign in preparation for the election of delegates to the nineteenth Zionist Congress, to be held on Sunday, June 23, were adopted Monday night at a special conference at the Hotel Astor, of more than 100 Zionist leaders of New York.

The conference, called by the New York Zionist Region, pledged its support of the joint slate of candidates of the Zionist Organization of America, Hadassah and the Order Sons of Zion, who have formed a united front in order to gain a larger representation for American Zionists at the World Zionist Congress. The Congress is scheduled to open in Lucerne August 27.

Detailed plans for carrying out the election by secret ballot of the American delegates to the Congress were outlined. More than 1,000 polling places will be set up in numerous parts of the country on June 23. Of these, 150 will be located in Greater New York.

New Zionist Party is Formed By Rabbi S. J. Kohn of Utica

(Special to the J.D.B.)
UTICA, N. Y., May 8—The organization of a new Zionist party in America for the forthcoming elections to the nineteenth World Zionist Congress was announced here today by Rabbi S. Joshua Kohn of Utica, its founder.

The new group is to be known as the Community Party. Its list of candidates will appear as "List No. 4" on the ballot in the elections to the Zionist Congress.

"A new orientation in Zionism is absolutely necessary," Rabbi Kohn said in explaining the party's founding. "The forthcoming nineteenth World Zionist Congress is a challenge to every Jew, especially to the conservative movement. There is great dissension in the Zionist ranks. Zionist unity is endangered. The Revisionists have broken away from the World Zionist Organization. The Mizrahi seems to be luke-warm to Zionist unity. The Jewish Farmers' Federation in Palestine is in opposition. The Agudah always has opposed Zionism."

Explaining that "this sudden outburst of opposition to the World Zionist Executive is due to the fact that the Labor group won domination at the last Zionist Congress," Rabbi Kohn says that although it cannot be denied that labor in Palestine is responsible for the finest ideals, labor in general has been unsympathetic toward Judaism "as we understand it in a traditional sense." Rabbi Kohn believes, however, that if the Laborites in Palestine are given support in their social upbuilding, they will come in time to see that a Palestine without Judaism cannot prevail.

The program of the new Community Party is given by Rabbi Kohn as follows:

1. To support Labor Palestine in the social ideals.
2. To win labor to a sympathetic attitude towards Judaism.
3. To make Zionism a mass movement in every community and throw the weight of the conservative movement solidly behind the Zionist Executive and strengthen its power.

4. To strengthen the Jewish National Fund and to expose and vigorously oppose the land speculators and profiteers in Palestine.

Rabbi Kohn has been active in Zionist work since 1911. He was one of the founders of the Avukah Zionist Student Organization. He is now the spiritual leader of Temple Beth El here.

Arrest of Nazi Pickets Ordered by Hitler

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
MUNICH, May 28—Acting upon direct instructions from Hitler, the authorities here today arrested a number of Nazis involved in attacking Jewish stores last Saturday.

Despite the fact that the Bavarian Minister of Interior, Adolf Wagner, in his announcement yesterday, declared that the attacks were organized by expelled Nazi members, it was reported here today that Wagner himself incited university students to picket the Jewish stores in the city, and helped organize the picket groups in the City Hall.

Doubts Sincerity Of Nazi Authorities

(Jewish Telegraphic Agency)
LONDON, May 28—"The sincerity of the Nazi authorities in their move to prevent further terrorism in Munich can be proven only when action is taken by them against Julius Streicher, the chief instigator of the anti-Jewish outbreaks," the London Morning Post declares today, commenting on the anti-Jewish riots in Munich.

The London paper discloses that the Jewish shops in Munich suffered in Saturday's attack more than Jewish firms in Berlin suffered two years ago on the famous "picketing day" of April 1, 1933. Shop windows painted with indelible acids gleamed in letters four and five feet high with the word "Jew." Half-a-dozen of the most prominent shops attacked include firms which are only 100 yards away from the Bavarian Ministry of Justice.

Among the shops attacked were also some owned by Catholics of Jewish ancestry, the Morning Post reports. The glaziers were busy on Monday throughout the business district, scraping plate glass windows to remove traces of anti-Semitic defacement, the London paper relates.

J. N. Fund Flower Day To Be Marked June 2

In four hundred Jewish communities throughout the United States Sunday, June 2, will be observed the 22nd annual Palestine Flower Day, an occasion arranged annually by the Jewish National Fund of America to intensify interest in the upbuilding of Palestine as the Jewish National Home and to obtain public support for its land redemption work.

The observance is expected to add impetus to the nation-wide drive now on foot to raise $500,000 for the acquisition of land to fill the need created by the influx in Palestine of thousands of refugees from Germany, and pioneers from other countries.
