HEEDLESS OF WARNINGS, NEW YORK PRESS DRIVE ON JEWS

---

BERLIN, August 1. (JTA) -- The Jews of Germany today had new evidence of the determination of the Nazi authorities to push their anti-Semitic campaign in the face of world disapproval and even the warnings of Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, Minister of Economics and president of the Reichsbank.

On the heels of the report, obviously emanating from inspired Nazi quarters, that a "truce" on activities against the Jews had been declared following a conference of Hitler, Goering and General Von Blomberg, Jews were presented with evidence that the "truce" was a figment of the imagination calculated to appease foreign sentiment.

Yesterday, the municipal press and the propaganda office issued warning to Jews who were flocking or reported to be flocking from the provinces to this city, to stay away. The warning stated that Jews without money will not receive city relief and will be sent to the workhouse until their expulsion can be arranged.

As this warning was being issued, Dr. Schacht was making a speech, while dedicating a bust of Hitler in the Reichsbank Hall, in which he voiced strong disapproval of Nazi strong-arm methods. Dr. Schacht warned that a continuance of the disturbances will bring economic ruin to the nation, "whether these disturbances occur in the intellectual or economic field."

That his warning, as those he has uttered in the past, has little chance of being heeded, becomes increasingly apparent as instances of anti-Jewish activities continue to pile up.

Yesterday, Willi Zeyn, noted German film director, was expelled by the Reich's Film Chamber for lending his name to a film produced by a Jew.

Hans Hinkel, newly appointed Commissar for Cultural Activities, issued an order prohibiting "Aryans" married to Jews from continuing in cultural activities of any kind.

It was learned today that Dr. Yoffe, a Jewish lawyer, abducted by Nazis during the Kurfuerstendamm riots two weeks ago, has not been heard from since.

The Mayor of Quedlinburg, declaring that Jews are unable to comprehend German culture, issued an order prohibiting them from visiting the cathedral, museum and palace there.

For displaying her husband's war medals in her front window on a placard reading, "These medals were won by a Jew who lost his life for Germany during the war," a Jewish widow in Coblenz was today in the "protective custody" of the Coblenz Authorities.

On Budapesterstrasse in Berlin, a Jewish store manager was shot by an "Aryan" following a quarrel during which the latter suddenly whipped out a revolver and, shouting "Jewish swine," fired four shots into the Jew. The incident was not reported in today's press.

STAY-OUT-OF OLYMPICS SENTIMENT GROWS

NEW YORK, August 1. (JTA) -- Sentiment here continued to mount today in favor of the United States withdrawing from participation in the 1936 Olympics in Berlin.

The Daily News, tabloid newspaper with more than 1,500,000 readers, publishes an editorial today strongly urging that America absent itself from the international game.

Yesterday, Commonweal, influential Catholic weekly, called upon members of the Catholic Church to boycott the event.

Last night in White Plains, Jeremiah T. Mahoney, president of the Amateur Athletic Union, addressing a dinner of the Committee of 100 of the Jewish Education Association, renewed previously voiced objection to American participation in the Olympics. He said the A. A. U. at its convention here in the fall will carefully investigate the question of participation.

DANZIG PAPER CONFISCATED

DANZIG, August 1. (JTA) -- The Danziger Echo, only Jewish newspaper in the German language published here, was confiscated today by the local censor before it went to press.

The last number of the Danziger Echo, published last week, was also confiscated by the authorities for printing a correspondence from Berlin reporting the anti-Jewish excesses there during and after the Kurfuerstendamm riots.

RED HUNGER-STRIKERS PROTEST

JERUSALEM, August 1. (JTA) -- An official statement issued by the authorities here today in connection with the hunger-strike of 52 Communist prisoners who are protesting because they are being treated like criminal prisoners, points out that the Palestine law is similar to the English law in this respect and does not permit political prisoners to receive special treatment unless the Courts verdict expressly recommends it.

"It is not up to the discretion of prison officials to accord special treatment to political prisoners," the Government's statement declares.

The government also points out that only three of the prisoners, including a woman convicted of theft, are forced to wear prison clothes.

The hunger-strikers, says the official statement, are under the care of government doctors. All are taking water and they are in no immediate danger. Two of the strikers however, have been removed to the prison hospital, and one, who is suffering with tuberculosis, was removed to the Government Hospital.

Leszczynski was buried at the Warsaw Jewish Cemetery next to the grave of the late "Bund" leader B. Michalevitch.

BULGARIAN-JEWS RECEIVED BY PREMIER

SOFIA, August 1. (JTA) -- A special delegation representing the Bulgarian Jewish communities was today received by Premier Andreja Toscheff. The delegation demanded that the national status of the Jewish minority in Bulgaria be preserved and that the minorities electoral principle be abided by.

The Jewish Communities sent the delegation to the Premier as the result of a proposal made here two weeks ago for a new law to deprive the national minorities in Bulgaria of their national status. The new law would consider the Jewish minority merely as a religious body, and would deprive the Jews of autonomy in their internal community life. The law would also empower the Government to intervene in the financial affairs of the Jewish community and in the operation of its schools.

The Premier admitted that the Jewish demand was justified and promised the delegation the support of the Government, saying "My government is very favorable to the Jews, after all, we are all members of one big family."

The delegation also expressed its apprehension about the legalization here last week of two anti-Semitic organizations, Rodna Zashchita and the National Legion, while other political organizations are still banned in Bulgaria.

The Premier assured the delegation that the government would not permit any new anti-Semitic activities, as these would be harmful to Bulgarian interests, he said.
