FRICK WARNS AMERICAN JEWS ON PROTESTS

BERLIN, August 6. (JTA) -- The Nazi Party has issued an order to all its members to make the month of August the bitterest in the history of the German Jews, it was learned here late last night.

The order specifies that an intensified anti-Jewish campaign is to be conducted right through to the end of August.

Minister of the Interior Wilhelm Frick, speaking at Essen yesterday, warned American Jews "not to think that the anti-German demonstrations in New York will assist their brethren in Germany."

"Such demonstrations," Minister Frick declared, "on the contrary will have the opposite effect."

Yesterday's speech at Essen by Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels, in which he stated that mixed marriages would be officially prohibited, was followed by many arrests throughout Germany, including Berlin, of Jews married to German women.

Many of those seized by the police have been civilly married longer than fifteen years.

Jews seen in the streets in the company of "Aryan" girls were also placed under arrest.

In an editorial in the Voelkischer Beobachter, chief organ of the Nazi Party, it is emphasized that the Goebbels speech at Essen is a declaration of a more vigorous war upon Jews and Catholics.

Other details in the renewed drive against the Jews, as they developed today, follow:

Newsstands throughout Berlin were forbidden to display any German-Jewish publications. The sale of Jewish papers from abroad was altogether prohibited.

Gladbeck became the first city in Germany to close its elementary schools entirely to Jews and also barred them from its swimming pools, tennis courts and other sports places, thus violating Germany's Olympics promise not to discriminate against Jews in sport.

A more serious violation of the Olympics pledge was reported today from Wuertenberg, where Gretel Berkman, high jump champion of the city, was barred from the Olympics trials because of her race.

In Cologne, pictures are prominently displayed throughout the city with the inscription: "Who are these criminals?" The photos show "Aryans" snapped as they entered Jewish shops.

In Berlin, the windows of Jewish firms in Oliverplatz were smeared with anti-Semitic slogans. All Jews, including aged and children, were driven from the city playgrounds and park benches in the vicinity.

REICH ZIONISTS MAY NOT GO TO LUCERNE

BERLIN, August 6. (JTA) -- The German Zionist delegation has not yet decided whether it will participate in the World Zionist Congress at Lucerne, Switzerland, it was learned today. Their indecision is prompted by the fear that anti-Nazi speeches may be made in their presence at the Congress, which opens August 20. It is feared that, in the event such speeches are made, reprisals may be taken against the delegates when they return to Germany.

The delegation consists of 34 members, appointed by mutual agreement of the three parties which decided to divide the mandates equally among them.

If the delegation decides to attend it will be the first Congress for the German Zionists since Hitler came to power. German Zionists were not represented at the last Congress in Praha.

FRENCH JEWS HOLD ANTI-HITLER RALLY

PARIS, August 6. (JTA) -- More than 8,000 persons participated in an anti-Hitler meeting conducted here last night.

The meeting was arranged jointly by all parties to protest against the anti-Jewish and anti-Catholic oppression of the Nazi regime in Germany. Prof. Georg Bernhard, former editor of the Vossische Zeitung in Berlin, and at present editor of the Pariser Tageblatt, addressed the meeting.

Prof. Bernhard told of the excesses now being perpetrated by the Nazis against Jews, Catholics and Protestants. He was enthusiastically hailed by the large audience. Other speakers included Bernard Lecache, noted French-Jewish writer; Abbe Lambert, the Mayor of Oran, and Deputy Pery. A strong anti-Hitler resolution was adopted by the meeting.

The local pro-Hitler newspaper, La Presse, today discontinued publication after appearing for one year.

PENNSYLVANIA GOVERNOR PROTESTS NAZI PERSECUTIONS

PHILADELPHIA, August 6. (JTA) -- "German governmental policy of increased oppression of Protestant, Jewish, Catholic and other great segments of the population of Germany is a backward step in the civilization of a great people," declared Governor George H. Earle in an address before a mass-meeting at the Brith Achim auditorium last night called to report on German boycott work.

Governor Earle decried suppression of liberties in Germany and declared that "the German citizens will tolerate Hitler only so long as the truth is denied them by censorship."

Richard J. Beamish, Pennsylvania chairman of the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League, urged intensification of the German boycott. William B. Leaf, chairman of the Joint Conference of Anti-Nazi Organizations, and Martin O. Levy, grand secretary of the Order Brith Sholom, reported on boycott work.

ANNOUNCE PROGRAM OF POLISH-JEWISH PARLEY

LONDON, August 6. (JTA) -- The international conference of federations of Polish Jews which will be held at Woburn House here September 7 will hear reports of activities of federations in various countries and papers on the economic situation of Polish Jewry, imports and exports made by Jewish artisans in Poland, emigration, cultural problems, and on the advisability of organizing an international federation of Polish Jews, it was announced today.

From Athens it was reported that M. Koretz was elected Greek delegate to the conference. Dutch delegates are: Messrs. Schoenbach, Freundlich, Mersel and Dr. Taubes.

FAMED WOMAN SCIENTIST DEAD IN BERLIN

BERLIN, August 6. (JTA) -- Prof. Lydia Rabinowitsch-Kempner, famous Jewish woman bacteriologist and associate of Prof. Robert Koch in many of his most important investigations, died here on Saturday. She was 64, and had been ill a long time.

Dr. Rabinowitsch-Kempner was the first woman ever to hold the title of professor in Prussia. She was renowned as a specialist in the bacteriology of tuberculosis.

Dr. Rabinowitsch-Kempner was born at Kovno, Russia, on Aug. 22, 1871, daughter of the merchant Leo Rabinowitsch and Minna Werblunsky Rabinowitsch. She was educated at the girls' Gymnasium of her home town and studied natural sciences at the Universities of Zurich and Berne, Switzerland. She was graduated in 1894, took her doctor's degree, and joined the Institute for Infectious Diseases at Berlin, where, under the direction of Prof. Koch, discoverer of the tubercle bacillus, she was engaged in researches of the influence of heat on bacteria and pathogenic yeast specimen.

She lectured at the University of Pennsylvania in 1896.

RABBI ISSERMAN WILL PROBABLY NOT GET GERMAN VISAS

WASHINGTON, D.C., August 6. (JTA) -- Rabbi Ferdinand Isserman of St. Louis, who has until now failed in his efforts to obtain a passport for a tour of Germany, will in all probability not procure the document, it was indicated here at the German Embassy.

Second secretary Johann G. Lohmann said today the German Embassy was "not interested" in the fact that the German consul in St. Louis refused Rabbi Isserman a passport. He said, "The matter concerns only the consulate" and indicated that the Embassy would take no part in attempting to reverse the decision.

Rabbi Isserman was here in Washington Monday and had requested the Embassy to overrule the consul's decision.

Rabbi Isserman, it was learned from Rabbi Norman Gerstenfeld in this city, decided to go to Germany to study at first hand the treatment accorded the Jews there.
