PALESTINE INTENSIFIES PRECAUTIONS AGAINST AIR RAIDS

JERUSALEM, June 9. (JTA) -- Air raid precautions are being intensified throughout the country as a result of latest developments in the international situation.

High Commissioner Sir Harold A. MacMichael has issued an order, under the defense regulations, listing 73 buildings in various parts of Haifa as public air raid shelters. The District Commissioner's office is compiling a register of children, aged, infirm and mothers of infants who should be the first evacuated from Haifa in the event of emergency.

The Jewish Agency's A.R.P. (air raid precautions) adviser, accompanied by a staff, is touring the country advising settlements on organization of precautionary measures, arranging for warning, shelters, fire-fighting and first aid. In the coastal colony of Nathania an A.R.P. instructor has been appointed and a coordinating committee has been set up including the local military commander, civil administration, police and communal heads.

A Jewish special constabulary of 1,000 volunteers is being formed in Tel Aviv under the command of the district superintendent of police, in collaboration with the Jewish Agency and the Tel Aviv municipality. The Government has authorized enrollment of men aged 30 to 45, of good character and prepared to assist the police in maintaining law and order when called upon. The volunteers will be given a short training course and will not be paid. The officers of the corps will also be volunteers.

More than 1,000 young men and women have completed first aid courses and 7,000 more have completed elementary courses given by the Red Shield (Jewish Red Cross), according to an announcement in Tel Aviv. The youths are all volunteers. The Tel Aviv municipality has recommended seafood wartime menus, eliminating a large proportion of the foods which have to be imported.

SHANGHAI EXPECTS NEW INFLOX OF REFUGEES, SPURRED BY SOVIET TRANSIT PERMISSION

SHANGHAI, June 9. (JTA) -- An increased flow of refugees from the Reich and German-occupied territories is expected here as result of decisions by the Soviet and Manchukuoan authorities to permit transit of refugees across Siberia and Manchukuo.

According to information received here, persons holding permits for admission to Shanghai will in the future be able to proceed via a land route. This means a considerable reduction in travel expenses, as compared with the sea journey from Italian ports, which in any case is now closed to refugees.

Prospective emigrants will also be able to buy tickets in Reichsmarks instead of foreign currency. New transit facilities may also make it possible for refugees to reach Shanghai via Vladivostok, thus eliminating the formalities connected with obtaining a Manchukuoan transit visa.

'NO PLACE FOR ANTI-SEMITISM IN NEW POLAND,' EMBASSY AIDE TELLS PARLEY

ASEURY PARK, N.J., June 9. (JTA) -- A declaration that "in the new Poland there will be no place for anti-Semitism" was made today by Michael Kwapiaszewski, First Counsellor of the Polish Embassy, before the 32nd annual convention of the Federation of Polish Jews in America.

"During the last few months," Kwapiaszewski said, "Poland has learned much about the loyalty of her Jewish group and this loyalty must be acknowledged in the new State." He stressed that the new Poland was fostering mutual cooperation, as evidenced by the presence in the Polish National Council, Parliament-in-exile, of Dr. Herman Lieberman and Dr. Ignacy Schwartzbard.

A message from Vice-Premier Kot of the Polish Government-in-exile exhorted all Polish citizens "without distinction of creed or race" to work for a free, democratic Poland.

Resolutions were adopted pledging support of President Roosevelt's defense program, hoping for an Allied victory, urging Federation members to back the United Jewish Appeal, expressing sympathy for persecuted Jewry in Nazi Poland and the hope that a reconstituted Poland would take vigorous measures to prevent anti-Jewish discrimination, and pledging cooperation with the American Jewish Congress, the American ORT Federation and other Jewish groups.

Name of the organization was changed to the American Federation for Aid to Polish Jews. Benjamin Winter was re-elected president and Maldwin Fertig chairman of the Executive Council. Vice-presidents named were Harry J. Rubenstein, Dr. Samuel Margoshes, Abraham Goldberg, Mrs. A.P. Kaplan, Jacob Brown and Abraham E. Weman. Abraham I. Kandel was elected treasurer.

RED CROSS AIDE DENIES 'NO ATROCITIES' STATEMENT QUOTED BY NAZI ORGAN

WASHINGTON, June 9. (JTA) -- James T. Nicholson, American Red Cross official, today branded as a "complete misquotation" an alleged statement attributed to him by a Washington newspaper and recently quoted by Facts in Review, German propaganda organ published in New York, declaring he knew "of no atrocities to Jews in Poland."

Commenting on the Facts in Review story, carried in its May 27 issue, Nicholson said: ".....this statement is a complete misquotation of remarks which I made at a press conference following my return from Poland. Reports of this conference published by other newspapers will bear me out in this." (At the conference, a report of which was carried in the April 19 issue of JTA NEWS, Nicholson had refused to comment on reported mass executions in Poland other than to say, "That's not in my parish," explaining that the Red Cross still had "to do business" in Poland.)

According to Baron de Ropp, Gluchowski conducted a private information bureau in New York which was "in no way connected with any Polish Government agencies." 2 SCHOLARS HONORED AT SEMINARY EXERCISES; ADLER EULOGIZED

NEW YORK, June 9. (JTA) -- Tributes to Dr. Cyrus Adler, late president of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America, and awarding of honorary degrees to two noted Jewish scholars marked commencement exercises this afternoon at the Seminary. Twenty-four students received degrees at the exercises.

Memorial addresses on Dr. Adler were delivered by Prof. Louis Ginzberg, Dean of the Faculty and Professor of Talmud, and Sol M. Stroock, chairman of the Seminary board of directors. Discussing Dr. Adler's contribution to Jewish learning, Prof. Ginzburg said to give an adequate picture of it would be "tantamount to a history of higher Jewish education in America of the last five decades." Analyzing Dr. Adler's relations to the community, Stroock said he was "at once a leader and worker in the ranks" in almost every field of human endeavor.

The honorary degree of Doctor of Hebrew Letters was conferred by Dr. Louis Finkelstein, president of the Seminary, in absentia upon Prof. Jacob Nahum Epstein of the Hebrew University in Jerusalem, in recognition of his contributions to Jewish scholarship. Rabbi Israel H. Levinthal, of the Seminary Faculty and the Brooklyn Jewish Center, was awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity in recognition of his important contributions to Jewish learning and his role in strengthening "religion generally in this land."
