NAZIS EXPEL ALL JEWS FROM LUCK; HANG JEWISH LAWYER IN LUBLIN GHETTO

LONDON, Jan. 12. (JTA)-- The entire Jewish population of the city of Luck, in Nazi-occupied Poland, has been expelled from the city, Reuters, Britain's leading news agency, reported today. No details of the expulsion were given. The place to where the 50,000 Jewish inhabitants of Luck were deported was also not mentioned in the report.

Polish government circles here today received a report that a Jewish lawyer was hanged by the Gestapo in the Lublin ghetto for alleged anti-Nazi activities. The name of the lawyer was not revealed, but it was said that he was an active member of the illegal Jewish Socialist Bund which is working hand-in-hand with the Polish underground groups in spreading anti-Nazi information picked up from foreign broadcasts. The Jewish lawyer, according to the report, was caught by Gestapo agents, half-frozen, on the road leading to Lublin from a neighboring town where he had spread illegal leaflets.

Despite the fact that the ghetto in Lublin is strongly guarded, many young Jews there, according to the Polish report, are risking their lives and taking secret trips to neighboring townships and villages to keep the Polish peasantry informed as to what the Polish Government in London is doing for the liberation of Poland. The young Jewish lawyer whom the Gestapo hanged was termed by Poles here as "one of the most fearless organizers of anti-Nazi opposition in Poland."

The report stated that due to ever-growing misery among the Warsaw Jews, the number of soup kitchens for children in the ghetto has been increased from 35 to 45, while the number of kitchens for adults has been increased to 105 as compared with 88 a few weeks ago. Two special kitchens have been opened for Jewish policemen and three kitchens were established to feed Jewish forced laborers. Some 135,000 meals are now being served daily in the Jewish soup kitchens in the ghetto, the report said.

The extent of the growing need in the Warsaw ghetto can best be judged from the fact that more than 60,000 meals are supplied daily to Jewish inmates in hospitals, in homes for aged as well as to children's homes. Adding that anti-Semitism is not a danger to Jews alone, Sheean states: "Experience has abundantly shown that anti-Semitic prejudice, once it gets organized into a party, is the ally of every reactionary force, utilizes any and all methods and develops straight into violence as a way of action. The ballot box is too slow for the anti-Semites and their colleagues - the Fascists in general. The club or revolver suits their temperaments better.
