EXECUTION OF ALL U.S. JEWS DEMANDED BY ANTI-SEMITIC WITNESSES AT WASHINGTON HEARING

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21. (JTA)-- The House Committee Investigating Un-American Activities today secretly questioned witnesses active in disseminating anti-Jewish propaganda in this country, some of whom admitted at the hearing that they are "in favor of executing all the Jews in the United States."

While the names of the witnesses were withheld, Martin Dies, the chairman of the Committee, disclosed after the hearing that all the material submitted by the witnesses was directed against the Jews. One of the witnesses, he said, expressed himself freely, stating he favored "not persecution but execution of the Jews." Dies added that the committee report, when completed, will show that the Fascist elements in this country are conducting a tremendous amount of anti-Semitic activities. "The report will disclose that the Fascist movement in America is as well organized and has as many people connected with it as it did in Germany shortly after the Nazi movement had started," Dies declared.

William Dudley Pelley, anti-Semitic leader of the Silver Shirts of America, was yesterday sentenced by Superior Court Judge F. Phillips in Ashville, N.C., to serve two to three years in prison for violating the North Carolina Security Laws. The judge directed that Pelley be immediately confined in the county jail.

NAZIS RESUME DEPORTATION OF JEWS FROM REICH AFTER BRIEF RESPITE

STOCKHOLM, Jan. 21. (JTA)-- The deportation of German Jews to Nazi-occupied Eastern territories which was suddenly suspended during the week-end was resumed on Monday night, the Berlin correspondent of the Gotesborg Posten, a Swedish newspaper, reported today. Prior to their deportation, the Jews were ordered by the Gestapo to surrender all woolen articles they possessed, the correspondent informs.

The Berlin correspondent of another Swedish newspaper, Svenska Dagbladet, reports today that the Jewish Community of Berlin issued an appeal to its members to donate food ration coupons to the deported Jews in order to provide them with food for the journey. The appeal asked each Jew to contribute coupons for 100 grams of bread, 20 grams of margarine, 50 grams of meat and 50 grams of macaroni.

NON-JEWS IN HOLLAND DISPLAY SOLIDARITY WITH JEWS BY SUPPORTING THEM FINANCIALLY

ZURICH, Jan. 21. (JTA)-- A striking example of solidarity between the non-Jews in Holland and the Jews there is reported in the Amsterdam press reaching here today. The reports reveal that 37 non-Jewish butchers in Bussum and 13 butchers in Naarden have each pledged themselves to pay every week the equivalent of fifty American cents for the support of Jewish butchers in Bussum who are no longer allowed to procure and sell meat.

JEWS IN RUMANIA TO PAY CASH FOR NON-DELIVERY OF WINTER CLOTHING TO ARMY

BERNE, Jan. 21. (JTA)-- Rumanian authorities today issued an order in Bucharest stating that Jews who are unable to deliver warm clothing for the army as requested, will have to pay cash instead. The order was announced over the Rumanian radio stations.

The following prices are to be paid by Jews to the government: 10,000 lei for an overcoat; 6,500 lei for a suit; 3,500 for a pair of trousers; 3,000 for a blanket; 1,500 for a sheet of linen or a straw mattress; 1,500 for a cap or a hat; 800 lei for a shirt; 500 lei for underwear; 200 lei for a towel; 150 lei for a pair of socks and 100 lei for a handkerchief.

FURTHER RESTRICTIONS AGAINST JEWS REPORTED FROM SLOVAKIA AND BULGARIA

GENEVA, Jan. 21. (JTA)-- Half of the 15,000 Jewish population of Bratislava, the Slovakian capital, have already been deported from the city and sent to labor camps, the Slovak press reaching here today reported. It quoted high officials as announcing at a press conference that "soon all Jews will be deported from towns with a population of over 1,500 inhabitants."

The Slovakian newspaper Grenzboten reports that the Bulgarian government issued a decree in Sofia, capital of Bulgaria, prohibiting Jews from establishing new business enterprises or taking over such enterprises from Jews who wish to sell them.

ALLOWANCES FOR PALESTINE JEWISH SOLDIERS TO BE INVESTIGATED, MINISTER PROMISES

LONDON, Jan. 21. (JTA)-- The British Government is investigating to determine whether any special action is necessary in connection with the allowances and pensions for Palestine Jewish soldiers, it was announced today by Sir Edward Grigg, Under-Secretary of War, in reply to a question in Commons by A. Creech Jones, Labourite M.P.

Sir Edward stated that the family allowances in Palestine were granted after consideration of all related circumstances and that they had been raised from time to time as the rates allowed dependent families of soldiers in England had been increased. Awards to disabled Palestinian Jewish soldiers are now about two-thirds of those paid to English soldiers at home, he said.

DR. NELSON GLUECK TO BECOME EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF UNION OF AMERICAN HEBREW CONGREGATIONS

CINCINNATI, Jan. 21. (JTA)-- Dr. Nelson Glueck, professor of Bible and Biblical Archaeology at the Hebrew Union College, has been invited by the Union of American Hebrew Congregations to assume the post of executive director of the Union, it was revealed here today by the American Israelite. He would succeed the late Dr. Edward Israel who died from a heart attack last October.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE FOR PALESTINE PURCHASES $76,000 IN DEFENSE BONDS

NEW YORK, Jan. 21. (JTA)-- The purchase of $76,425 in defense bonds was announced yesterday by the Women's League for Palestine at its tenth donor luncheon here. The luncheon marked the half-way point in the League's drive to buy $150,000 worth of defense bonds. A donation of $1,000 was presented to the Red Cross at the same time.

SIMPLE RITES WILL MARK FUNERAL SERVICES FOR DR. SOLOMON LOWENSTEIN TODAY

NEW YORK, Jan. 21. (JTA)-- Simple rites will mark the funeral services for Dr. Solomon Lowenstein, executive vice-president of the Federation for the Support of Philanthropic Societies, vice-chairman of the Joint Distribution Committee and director of numerous leading Jewish organizations, which will be held tomorrow at 11 A.M. in the Central Synagogue here. There will be no honorary pallbearers, in accordance with Dr. Lowenstein's request in a letter which he left.

Messages of condolence were received today by the Federation from various parts of the country as well as from the 116 medical and social agencies in New York and Brooklyn affiliated with the Federation. The Board of Trustees, officers and staff of the Federation which was guided by Dr. Lowenstein for 22 years made public a statement expressing their grief over his passing. "His warm sympathies and unflinching kindness endeared him to us all, and there is no measuring what the Federation and the community owe to his wisdom, his deep humanity and his unfaltering devotion," the statement said.

He Contributed Much to Human Betterment, Says Medalie

George Z. Medalie, President of the Federation for the Support of Jewish Philanthropic Societies of New York, in a statement to the Jewish Telegraphic Agency declared: "The news of Dr. Lowenstein's sudden death will bring a deep sense of personal loss to the host of men and women who have been associated with him in his lifelong span of youthfulness in so many areas of our community life. We honored him as a pioneering liberal spirit in social welfare who contributed much to human betterment in our time through his labors, both in Jewish Federation and other voluntary philanthropies, and in the public service. We shall miss his broad scholarship and human sympathies, his keen practical judgement and his forceful and enduring advocacy and leadership in all good causes."

A Loss to American Community, Wertheim States

Maurice Wertheim, President of the American Jewish Committee, in a statement to the Jewish Telegraphic Agency said: "In the death of Solomon Lowenstein those who knew him mourn the passing of the kindest of friends whose spirit of self-sacrifice in the cause of doing good was at all times a shining example and inspiration. The American community as a whole and the Jewish community in particular have lost a leader whose great kindness, insight and devotion to the cause of human welfare cannot be replaced."

Dr. Silver, Jonah B. Wise Express Grief In Behalf of U.J.A.

The United Jewish Appeal, of which Dr. Lowenstein was national co-chairman, issued a statement under the signatures of Dr. Abba Hillel Silver and Jonah B. Wise, declaring that: "The officers of the United Jewish Appeal for Refugees, Overseas Needs and Palestine are profoundly grieved by the sudden death of Dr. Solomon Lowenstein, one of its national co-chairmen.

"Dr. Lowenstein was guided by a deep devotion to the progressive development of the Jewish community in the United States; his broad outlook on Jewish life encompassed all spheres of social, communal and cultural endeavor; his vision, his keen insight and his abounding energy were directed toward the preservation of the highest ideals of the Jewish people; his colleagues and co-workers in the United Jewish Appeal mourn the loss of one whose statesmanlike leadership and counsel were invaluable assets in the cause of Jewish survival which he served."

Was An Acknowledged Leader Among Social Workers, Says Weil

Frank L. Weil, President of the Jewish Welfare Board, issued the following statement: "Solomon Lowenstein exemplified in every way the spirit of service to mankind. He was a humanitarian, schooled in the ideals and ethical teachings of Judaism who preached and practiced these ideals in the many fields of social endeavor in which he was engaged. He served at home and abroad, in the nation and in the city of New York with equal self-sacrifice and with an ever-ready response to every worthwhile cause. Among the ranks of social workers he was an acknowledged leader; to every Jewish colleague a wise councillor and among laymen, the personification of the best qualities in the professional communal leader. He lived courageously and died with many noble achievements as an enduring memory."

Friends of Hebrew University Mourn His Loss

The Board of Directors of the American Friends of the Hebrew University, of which Dr. Lowenstein was a vice-chairman, issued a statement under the signatures of A.S.W. Rosenbach and Edward M. M. Warburg, reading: "The Board learns with profound sorrow of the death of Solomon Lowenstein, one of its vice-presidents. He was identified with the American Friends since its inception in 1925 and helped to plan its course with his customary sound judgment and vision. Dr. Lowenstein shared with Dr. Magnes and Felix Warburg faith in the university's high purpose and shared also the burdens of the university in its difficult early days. His passing is a great loss to Hebrew University and to all his colleagues in the American Friends."

The American Jewish Congress in a statement said: "The American Jewish Congress mourns the passing of a distinguished representative of the Jewish people. All who knew him acknowledged his ability, sincerity and his unstinting giving of himself. He leaves behind him a stalwart record of achievement. In these grave times his clear thinking and unselfish devotion will be sorely missed."

Y.M.H.A.; Other Organizations Eulogize Lowenstein

Frederick M. Warburg, president of the Y.M.H.A., made the following statement. "The Young Men's Hebrew Association has learned with profound sorrow of the death of Solomon Lowenstein, an outstanding leader in social work and the life of the community by reason of his sterling qualities, his fine mind and his great heart. Unstintingly he was part of every cause that made for the betterment of mankind. This Association has lost a friend and loyal adviser."

The National Conference of Jewish Social Welfare issued the following: "The sudden passing of Solomon Lowenstein leaves a void in American Jewry which will not soon be filled. No single organization can lay claim to him; his interests were as broad as life itself. He died as he had lived, in the service of all humanity."

The American Jewish Physicians Committee in a statement said that it is "deeply grieved to learn of the sudden death of Solomon Lowenstein, one of its staunchest friends. He always showed deep interest in our work and was appreciative of our accomplishments. We mourn his passing and shall always hold his memory in the greatest reverence."
