At today's cabinet meeting the question was discussed of how to proceed with he transportation of Jews from Iran to Israel. A government spokesman said that the Israel Government has not received as yet any official notification on the closing lown of the Iranian Consulate.

The Damascus radio today reported that the Syrian Fremier was informed by the Iranian Minister in Damascus that Iran has withfrawn its diplomatic representatives from Israel. Other Arab countries have been officially informed of the act by the Iranian Government, the broadcast said.

ISRAEL AND JORDAN SICH AGREEMENT ON NO MAN'S LAND IN JERUSALEM; JORDAN RIVER DIVERTED

JERUSALEM, July 11. (JTA) -- An agreement stipulating conditions under which mormal civilian life would be carried out in the no man's land of Jerusalem was signed here today by Israeli and Jordan representatives and the United Nations chairman of the Israeli-Jordan Mired Armistice Commission.

In addition, a master map of the City of Jerusalem with the position of occupied housen in no man's land designated upon it was signed by the Arabs and the Ieraelis. It was further agreed that no other buildings would be occupied by the forces of either party, except with the prior approval of both. The agreement specifies that both the New City and the Old City of Jerusalem will supply essential services to the respective eneas Mapy Occasion.

The Jordan River has been temporarily diverted for a stretch of over 1,500 feet in the Vicinity of the Bnot Yaacov Bridge in northeastern Israel, it was amounced here today. While the river flows through the new channel, be old bed will be deepened so that it can carry off nonewater from the Huleh marsh area. It has already been noted that the new channel has caused a speedier emptying of Huleh water and a drop in the level of water in the Huleh region.

(Jordan complained to the United Nations today, in a messane-from its Fossian Minister, that damming of the Jordan River by Israel and restricting the flow of the river had greatly increased the salinity of the water, making it less useful for irrigation purposes. The Jordan Government termed this "economic aggression" by Israel and asked Socretary General Tryave Lie to inform it of the measures the U.N. would take to stop the Israel action.)

INEBORN ATTACES U.S. ZIONIST LEADERS SEEKING TO HELP GENERAL ZIONISTS IN ISRAEL

JENUSALEM, July 11. (JTA) -- A severe attack on Zionist leaders in the United ates seeking to strengthen the General Zionist Party in Israel was made at a press inference here today by Rudolf Sonneborn, chairman of the United Palestine Appeal, to is now visiting the Jewish state.

Expressing the hope that the forthcoming World Zionist Congress will carefully preise the role of Israel on one hand and the Zionist movement on the other, Mr. mmsborn criticized "the group of individuals who have almost completely divorced emselves from daily practical work for Israel in the United States and have time or constant maneuvering to associate the Zionist Organization of America with the neval Zionista in Tarsel."

American Jews, Mr. Sonneborn said, resent any effort by any group in the sited States to influence the outcome of political elections in Israel, as well as the recent efforts on the part of individuals or groups in Israel to entangle American cours in political controversies in Israel.

Mr. Someborn expressed the opinion that any attempt made by Israel to cede by of its sovereignty to the world Zionist movement will only embitter relations ith American Jewry. The Zionist movement, he declared, can gain strength from thin itself. "Those who criticize Israel for the weakness of the Zionist movement re merely diverting attention from their own inadequacies," he stated. He highly raised the results of Premier David Ben Gurion's visit to the United States.

AMERICAN EXPERTS SEE PREVIOU IN NEW YORK OF MODEL OF NEW JERUSALEM MEDICAL CENTER

MEW YORK, July 11. (JEA) -- A group of American hospital planners, administrators and architects was given a preview here today of the model and plans of a new Medical Center to be built in Jerusalem, which will contain a radial unit for the acutely 111, designed to reduce substantially the distances traversed by murses and physicians in most hospitals today.

The scale model was displayed in the offices of Hadassah by Joseph Neufeld, the architect, who was prominent in European and Palestinian architectural circles before he came to the United States in 1940, and by Dr. E. D. Rosenfeld, executive director of the proposed Long Island Jewish Hospital, chairman of the Planning and Construction Committee of the Medical Advisory Board of Hadassah and the Habrew University, bulkers of the new Center. Hadassah leaders present were Mrs. S. W. Halprin, national president and Mrs. Rebecca Shulman, chairman of the Medical Center Bulking Committee.

The Center will be constructed in modern Jerusalem, in an area already mapped out for expansion of the fast-growing Iersel capital, whose population has increased to mearly 125,000 since the State was founded three years ago. When complete it will comprise three major units: new quarters for the Henrietta Szold School of Mursing with teaching and living facilities for 150 nurses; the 430 bed Rothschild-Hadassah University Hospital; and the Hebrew University-Hadassah Medical School, first and only Medical School in Iersel, opened in May 1949.

Dr. Resenfeld said that the new Center is designed to combine "the best thinking in hespital architecture and planning in the United States. It has been visualized as a real community health facility, in which the physician and student can come into closer relationship with the hospital, and in which the hospital can combine most of the gractice of medicine within its walls and grounds. We have attempted to concentrate service facilities in central cores, leaving the periphery for patient comfort. Expensive duplications have been avoided."
