ITZHAK BEN ZVI SWORN IN FOR SECOND TERM AS PRESIDENT OF ISRAEL

JERUSALEM, Oct. 30. (JTA) -- Seventy-three-year-old Itzhak Ben Zvi was sworn in today for a second five-year term as President of Israel in a festively-adorned Knesset hall, the floor of which, only a few hours before, had been spattered with blood from the wounds of five Cabinet ministers who were victims of a madman's grenade attack.

Mr. Ben Zvi entered the Knesset at 11 A.M. sharp to the blasts of two shofars. He was welcomed by Speaker Josef Sprinzak, who called on him to swear allegiance to Israel and her laws. Members of the diplomatic corps, headed by Soviet Ambassador Alexander Abramov as acting dean, stood in front of the visitors' gallery while the President was sworn in. Guns outside boomed in a 21-gun salute.

Refers in Speech to Bomb Outrage

Departing from his original text at the start of his inaugural address, Mr. Ben Zvi expressed in his own name and that of Israel the sense of "profoundest shock" at Tuesday's grenade attack. In the name of the nation, the President expressed wishes for a speedy recovery for the five wounded Cabinet Ministers, four of whom, including Prime Minister David Ben Gurion, were hospitalized and absent from the ceremonies.

The inauguration ceremony began with the departure of a Knesset delegation to the President's residence to invite him to take the oath of office. Responding to the invitation, the President expressed special gratification that the delegation represented the entire Knesset from left to right, symbolizing the nation's unity.

In his inaugural address, the President stressed the importance of preserving this unity for majority and minority alike, citing the Scriptural principle: "Ye shall have one law and one judgment."

Thousands lined along all sides of Parliament Square heard the ceremony via loudspeakers. The audience vented their enthusiasm and gratification at the miraculously narrow escape of the ministers by cheering each dignitary as he entered the building, which was cordoned off for security reasons.

Former members of Knesset, Moslem and Christian religious leaders, Supreme Court members and Chief of Staff Moshe Dayan were among the distinguished visitors in the hall. The wives of the President and of the Prime Minister and Mrs. Chaim Weizmann sat in the presidential box encircled by representatives of 27 foreign missions.

Reviews Events of the Five Years of His Presidency

The President, who appeared deeply moved, donned a hat as he placed his hand on the Bible in taking the oath which was followed by mass singing of the Hatikvah. All members joined the Speaker in a lusty cheer: "Long Live the President."

Reviewing the events of his first five years as President, Mr. Ben Zvi discussed the Sinai campaign, which was launched one year ago today. He said it had "achieved freedom of approach and passage by sea to our gateway to the east, the port of Elath."

"Even the nations which at first opposed the campaign itself or doubted its justification are little by little changing their attitude and realizing it was not for conquest of foreign territories that we made such painful sacrifices but for the sake of Israel's survival," he said.

"Security," he said, "is not an aim in itself but a means for the redemption of the homeland's soil from desolation and for deliverance of Israel's scattered sons returning to Israel. We must still aim for this goal in the tenth year not less than in the first year of Israel's existence."

Noting that half a million of the nation's 900,000 immigrants were from Moslem countries, Mr. Ben Zvi expressed the "fervent hope" that the stream of immigration would not be halted nor slowed down and that "we will be privileged to welcome immigrants from all parts of the Diaspora, from countries near and from the distant as well as from the countries of Eastern Europe, the gates of many of which are still locked and sealed."

He expressed the "prayerful hope" that the next five years would witness peace between all nations as well as "the advancement of Israel, the intensification of the building of our country and the homecoming of the scattered sons of our people."

SHAPIRA CONDITION 'GRAVE'; BEN GURION, MEIR, CARMEL HOSPITALIZED

JERUSALEM, Oct. 30. (JTA) -- Moshe Shapira, Israel Minister of Religion, who suffered abdominal, chest and head wounds yesterday when a deranged immigrant threw a hand grenade at the ministerial bench in the Knesset, was reported by Hadassah Hospital tonight to be slightly improved but his condition was stated to be "still very serious."

Mr. Shapira, 55, was the most severely injured of the five Cabinet ministers struck by grenade fragments. Fears that he would not be able to resume his duties in the Cabinet and as leader of the Religious National Party for some time to come were confirmed tonight when the party cabled Minister of Posts Joseph Burg, who is now in the United States, to return immediately. Dr. Burg is the party's second member of the Cabinet.

(Dr. Burg disclosed in New York Wednesday that he had cancelled 22 addresses he was scheduled to make throughout the country for the Israel Bond drive and would leave for Israel Thursday afternoon in response to his party's emergency call.)

Prime Minister David Ben Gurion, who was treated at the hospital last night for bomb splinters in his hand and was recalled to the hospital for further observation after having been released, will have to remain there for some days, it was indicated today, because of the condition of his hand.

Mrs. Golda Meir, the Foreign Minister, who spent the night at the hospital for observation after treatment for a leg injury, will be released tomorrow. The Minister of Transport, Moshe Carmel, who suffered a broken arm, will be detained until next week. The only wounded Cabinet member to escape hospitalization was Israel Barzilai, the Minister of Health. After first-aid treatment, he was able to attend the resumed session of the Knesset last night. The Premier, Mrs. Meir and Mr. Carmel all had to be absent from the Knesset this morning during the inaugural ceremonies for President Ben Zvi.

The Foreign Ministry reported receipt today of scores of messages of sympathy from all parts of the world, among them from Secretary of State Dulles and acting Foreign Minister Christian Pineau of France. Jewish organizations in many countries also cabled expressions of regret over the incident and relief that the assassination attempt had miscarried.

Premier Writes Family of Would-be Assassin Absolving Them of Blame

From Hadassah Hospital today, Premier Ben Gurion wrote to the parents of Moshe Douek, the 25-year-old immigrant from Iraq, absolving them of any blame for their son's act yesterday in throwing a hand grenade in the Israel Parliament. The letter was generally regarded as a precaution on Mr. Ben Gurion's part against any misguided acts of revenge which might be directed against the deranged youth's family.

"You are living in the State of Israel which is governed by right and justice," the Premier wrote the Douek family. "I hope no harm of any kind will befall you and your children. I hope you will succeed in bringing up your other children to good deeds and a love of Israel."

Young Douek, according to police, freely admitted hurling the hand grenade from the visitors' gallery of the Knesset in an effort to wipe out the entire Cabinet and so to "avenge" himself for fancied wrongs. The police stated officially that there was no evidence of any political motive for the assassination attempt.

Police said Douek told them he had stolen the hand grenade from a soldier. They reported that Douek had suffered head injuries some years ago and had been considered mentally unbalanced ever since.

EISENHOWER SAYS ALL CIVILIZED PEOPLE DEPLORE KNESSET BOMB INCIDENT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30. (JTA) -- President Eisenhower said today that all civilized people must deplore such incidents as the bomb attack on the Israel Cabinet yesterday. He volunteered his statement at the outset of his press conference before opening the meeting to questions from correspondents. Additional security measures were in evidence at the press conference but it could not be ascertained if these were due to yesterday's event.

"I should like first this morning to comment on the bombing of the Israeli Cabinet," Mr. Eisenhower told the correspondents. "I am sure that all civilized people deplore such incidents, and the same people will take some satisfaction in the circumstances that there were no fatalities and, except for Mr. Shapira, no one seriously injured. It is the kind of thing that I think all nations can deplore, regardless of any kind of political antagonisms to the particular country involved."

A State Department spokesman said today that the United States Government was expressing to the Government of Israel "regret that a number of members of the Israel Government were injured, one of them gravely." The message was to be transmitted through the American Embassy in Israel.

MOSCOW PAPER SAYS U.S. WAS 'MASTER-MIND' OF SINAI OPERATION

LONDON, Oct. 30. (JTA) -- The Soviet propaganda machine took note today of the first anniversary of Israel's Sinai campaign with a charge that the United States had actually masterminded the blitz foray into Egypt. The charge was made in an editorial in "Trud," the Communist Labor newspaper and broadcast by Moscow Radio.

A British newspaper, the London Daily Express, in a survey of the effect of the Sinai campaign, declared today that apart from the fact that he was still in office, President Nasser of Egypt had little to celebrate "on this first anniversary."

"Both the morale and equipment of his army has been destroyed," the Daily Express said. "His air force is no longer taken seriously. His vital Aswan dam project is further away than ever."

The newspaper added that "Israel, whom he planned to destroy, is stronger and more prosperous, with ships busily plying the long-blockaded Gulf of Akaba."

PRESIDENT SAYS EXPANSION OF EISENHOWER DOCTRINE NOT BEING CONSIDERED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30. (JTA) -- President Eisenhower told his press conference today that the United States has not considered expansion of the Eisenhower Doctrine in the Middle East and that he doubted whether its functions could be greatly expanded under the concept of the United States Constitution.

The President said "I doubt whether it could be expanded greatly and be acceptable either to me or to the Congress or indeed, possibly, under our concepts of the Constitution."

U.S. SUES BULGARIA FOR DAMAGES IN ATTACK ON ISRAEL PLANE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30. (JTA) -- The United States Government has filed a suit at the International Court of Justice at The Hague this week against Communist Bulgaria because that nation has done nothing to fulfill reparations promises made in 1955 when the Bulgarians shot down an El Al Israel airliner. The U.S. claim is to cover damages for nine American passengers who were killed. It seeks payment of $258,000.

It was pointed out here that at the time Bulgaria promised to pay, it was trying to get United Nations membership. Now that the desired U.N. status was attained, Bulgaria has, in effect, repudiated its promise.

American officials anticipate that Bulgaria will seek to evade the issue now before the International Court. The pre-Communist government of Bulgaria recognized the court's jurisdiction in the 1920's.

Israel filed an action with the tribunal earlier this month.

RED CROSS ENVOY STILL TRYING TO VISIT ISRAELIS HELD BY EGYPT

GENEVA, Oct. 30. (JTA) -- A spokesman for the International Red Cross denied today reports that the organization's special envoy to the Middle East was due to return to Geneva to present a full report on his efforts in behalf of the six-man crew of the Israel fishing trawler, the Doron, detained by Egypt since September 25.

The spokesman said the Red Cross envoy was still negotiating with Egyptian authorities and was not expected to return to Geneva "for the time being." It was learned that the Red Cross has little hope of being allowed to visit the six fishermen and that it was not considering serious action to press Egypt to comply with the Geneva convention governing the detention of the crew and the 70-ton trawler. The Red Cross hopes that there will be a prompt release of the crew to release the international agency from its present "face-losing enterprise."

ISRAEL NEWS BRIEFS

MONTEVIDEO, Oct. 30. (JTA) -- Jewish youths from Latin America will leave for Israel during the next few weeks, a conference of Israel Hatzaira, the General Zionist youth movement, was informed. Delegates from Argentina, Chile, Brazil and Uruguay voted to encourage emigration to Israel.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. (JTA) -- Lord Samuel, president of the British Friends of the Hebrew University at Jerusalem, informed the annual meeting of that body that the university's research budget is now about two million pounds sterling ($5,600,000) annually.

SYLVAN LISBERGER OF SAN FRANCISCO WINS ROSENBERG AWARD OF C. J. F. W. F.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. (JTA) -- Sylvan J. Lisberger, San Francisco Jewish community leader, has been named winner of the second annual Edwin Rosenberg Award for leadership in Jewish communal service. It was announced today by Julian Freeman, chairman of the Rosenberg Award Committee. The award will be presented at the 26th General Assembly of the Council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Funds in New Orleans November 16. The Council sponsors the award.

Mr. Lisberger was honored for his leadership in guiding the merger efforts of the Jewish Welfare Fund and the Federation of Jewish Charities, San Francisco's two major central Jewish organizations into a single, united agency, the Jewish Welfare Federation of San Francisco, Marin County and the Peninsula.

The new agency embraces an area extending over a radius of 40 miles and serving a Jewish population of some 50,000. In addition, the agency serves the overall community through several of its agencies which function on a non-sectarian basis. Mr. Lisberger was elected one of the vice presidents of the consolidated agency.

CORAL GARDENS ENDS ZONING DISPUTE WITH JEWISH CENTER

CORAL GABLES, Fla., Oct. 30. (JTA) -- A recommendation that the city commission of this Miami suburb extend official recognition to a Jewish center as a synagogue appeared likely today to pave the way for settlement of a lengthy zoning dispute between city officials and the congregation.

The argument has involved charges from city officials that the Zamora Jewish Center had engaged in commercial activities in violation of local ordinances. A five-man committee, named at the suggestion of Rabbi B. Leon Hurwitz, spiritual leader of the center, made the recommendation after a meeting with W. Keith Phillips, Coral Gables mayor.

Alan Brown, chairman of the local zoning board, told Mayor Phillips that Zamora's original charter in 1951 permitted it facilities "as a Youth Center." The city attorney had asserted that the opening of a branch of the Miami Beach Hebrew Academy constituted a violation of a zoning board permit giving the center only the right to hold religious services.

Rabbi Hurwitz said that the conflict of opinion between Mr. Brown and the city attorney proved his contention that the problem was one of an "antiquated" zoning ordinance and "not any alleged violation."

PIONEER WOMEN ASK WORLD PROGRESSIVE FORCES TO AID ISRAEL

BOSTON, Oct. 30. (JTA) -- Mrs. Chaya Surchin, president of Pioneer Women, presented today to an Israel delegate a check for $108,000 as first payment on a pledge of the 15th national biennial convention of $2,500,000 for the Labor Zionist Women's program in Israel in the next two years. The check was accepted by Mrs. Yehudit Simhoni.

The Brandeis University Medallion was presented to Mrs. Simhoni at a special convocation. Dr. Abram Saclar, University president, made the award in tribute to Mrs. Simhoni's service and leadership to women as a member of the first Knesset and as director of the cultural and educational program of the Working Women's Council in Israel.

Convention delegates approved resolutions pledging aid to Israel in its goal of a population of 3,000,000, expressing concern over "the current advance of Communist influence in the Middle East and the dominance of the Soviet Union over Egypt and Syria," and declaring that "the best preventative to an irresponsible outbreak of hostilities that could flare up into a world conflagration is to rally the progressive forces of the world around the State of Israel to help build a strong, stable nation."

The Eisenhower Administration, in another resolution, was urged to stop sending arms to the Arab states and to continue economic aid to the Middle East through development of regional water resources.

In addition to re-election of Mrs. Surchin as president, the delegates named Mrs. Clara Leff and Mrs. Blance Fine of New York as vice-presidents; Mrs. Esther Kravitz of Montreal as third vice-president; Mrs. Claire Greenwald of New York, treasurer; Mrs. Selma Horowitz of New York, financial secretary; Mrs. Dunia Margolis of New York, recording secretary; and Mrs. Ida Krakower of Toronto, Canadian treasurer.

WOMEN'S DIVISION OF N. Y. FEDERATION ANNOUNCES $500,000 IN ADVANCE GIFTS

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. (JTA) -- A total of $500,000 in advance gifts and pledges were announced here yesterday by the women's division of the Federation of Jewish Philanthropies. The Federation is seeking the record sum of $20,900,000 in this year's campaign for the support of 116 affiliated health and welfare agencies.
