CLAUSE ON ARAB BIAS AGAINST U. S. JEWS RESTORED IN FOREIGN AID BILL

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18. (JTA) -- Rep. John J. Rooney, New York Democrat, today made known that the House Foreign Operations Appropriations Subcommittee, restored an anti-bias clause deleted by the State Department from the Foreign Aid Act for fiscal 1963 appropriations.

Rep. Rooney got the subcommittee, on which he is a member, to restore the anti-bias wording aimed at the Arab states. The subcommittee, headed by Rep. Otto E. Passman, Louisiana Democrat, reported out the bill today and revealed that drastic reductions had been made in funds requested by the Administration.

The clause inserted by the Subcommittee, and accepted by the full committee in the bill sent to the floor, said: "It is the sense of Congress that any attempt by foreign nations to create distinctions because of their race or religion among American citizens in the granting of personal or commercial access or any other rights otherwise available to U. S. citizens generally is repugnant to our principles; and in all negotiations between the United States and any foreign state arising as a result of funds appropriated under this title these principles shall be applied as the President may determine."

Rep. Rooney said he insisted on this wording because he felt that if an Arab state discriminated against American citizens purely on the basis of religion the state should be denied U. S. assistance financed by American taxpayers."

HADASSAH CONVENTION ASKS U. S. TO ENCOURAGE DIRECT ARAB-ISRAEL TALKS

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 18. (JTA) -- A resolution urging the United States Government "to support all efforts designed to encourage direct Arab-Israel peace negotiations, especially those proposed by member nations of the United Nations," was adopted here today at the 48th national convention of Hadassah.

The resolution also called upon the U. S. Government "to make unequivocally clear to the Arab nations that the United States will not permit any act of aggression in the Middle East area." It asked the U. S. "to take such steps as are necessary to remedy the dangerous arms imbalance resulting from Egypt's possession of the most modern military materiel, which constitutes an invitation to aggression."

"Hadassah, representing 318,000 American Jewish women from every state of the United States in convention assembled, watches with anxiety and alarm the mounting military buildup of Israel's Arab neighbors, especially Egypt," the resolution said. "The President of Egypt publicly boasts that Egypt is now producing long-range rockets in large scale and loudly proclaims that they will be used to destroy Israel. This represents a clear and present danger to Israel's security; to the stability of the Middle East, and, if unchecked, to world peace."

In another resolution, Hadassah called upon the U. S. Government to "exert its influence, particularly in the forums of the United Nations, to impress upon the community of nations the necessity of taking such measures as are necessary to stop persecution wherever it exists." The resolution stated that the world must be made "to understand that persecution of any group of people anywhere because of their color, race, or creed, threatens the freedom of people everywhere."

Study Launched on How to Strengthen American Zionist Movement

Mrs. Herman Shulman of New York, former national president of Hadassah and now national chairman of Hadassah's committee on Zionist affairs, told the convention that Hadassah has embarked upon a one-year study to determine how the American Zionist movement can be "strengthened and invigorated."

"The Zionist movement is being challenged to demonstrate its validity for our day," she said. "Indeed, the Zionist movement is challenging itself. Throughout the world, the most serious thought is being given as to how the movement might be strengthened and invigorated. This is particularly true of the United States, the largest and most influential Jewish community in the world."

At a different session, Mrs. J. Leonard Weiss of Irvington, N. J., Hadassah's national chairman for the Jewish National Fund, announced that Hadassah is embarking upon a

$2,100,000 Jewish National Fund project to create a new settlement in the Arava area of the Negev, south of the Dead Sea to be known as Hevel Hadassah."

Moshe Kol, world director of Youth Aliyah, told the delegates that his agency is making preparations this year to absorb at least 6,000 new children--between 12 and 17 years of age--in comparison with the 4,000 absorbed in the last 12 months. "The need to increase Youth Aliyah's absorptive capacity became very urgent in view of the political and social upheavals in Jewish communities in countries experiencing very crucial periods," Mr. Kol reported. "Jewish communities that have been secure for generations in North Africa and South America are living in tension and insecurity today. This is having a great impact upon the young generations for whom parents seek to insure a free and secure life in Israel."

PERIL FOR ISRAEL STRESSED AT CONVENTION BY FORMER MILITARY COMMANDER

TEL AVIV, Sept. 18. (JTA) -- The grave situation developing from Egyptian progress in improving both the equipment and fighting techniques of its armed forces, was stressed here by Yigal Allon, Minister of Labor and former commander of Israel's Palmach commando units.

Mr. Allon, who addressed the closing session of the national convention of Ahdut Avodah, the moderately leftist labor party, said that the most serious aspect of the Middle East arms situation was the missile race in which, he said, Egypt now has the lead.

Resolutions adopted by the convention called for the abolition of military rule in parts of the country, urged legislation to ensure the separation of religion and the state, and expressed opposition to any attempts to postpone the Histadrut elections scheduled for next year.

JEWS IN FRANCE URGED TO INTENSIFY AID TO REFUGEES FROM ALGERIA

PARIS, Sept. 18. (JTA) -- An appeal to world-wide Jewry in general, and to the Jewish community in France particularly, to aid the integration and settlement in this country of the more than 100,000 Jewish refugees who have come here from Algeria was issued today by the Fonds Social Juif Unifié, major Jewish welfare organization in this country, following the conclusion of a two-day special conference of French Jewry, held at Grenoble.

The FSJU directorate announced at the same time that the Jewish Agency in Jerusalem, through its immigration department and Youth Aliyah, has offered to "give shelter" to all Algerian Jewish refugees who wish to settle in the Jewish State. "All such immigrants," stated the Agency offer, "will be assured work and lodging." Israeli work contracts, according to the Agency offer, could be furnished to prospective immigrants while they are still in France.

Israel, the Jewish Agency informed FSJU, is prepared to grant scholarships to 100 university students from the ranks of Algerian Jewish refugees here, and to furnish free high school education to all Jewish refugee children between the ages of 12 and 17. Ordinarily, high school education in Israel is not free.

Julien Samuel, director-general of the FSJU, reiterated here today, upon his return from the extraordinary sessions at Grenoble, that the influx of the refugees from Algeria has created "extraordinary problems." One of these problems, he said, is centered about the fact that "many of the Algerian repatriates are still closely bound to their ancestral religion and are pious in their religious practices." For that reason, he said, the French synagogues will have to play a heavy role in the efforts to integrate the refugees into Jewish communal life in this country."

Mr. Samuel particularly besought French Jewry to "contribute heavily to a special fund established to aid the tens of thousands of the refugees who are special hardship cases." He thanked the Joint Distribution Committee for the financial aid given the French Jewish Jewish community since the problem of the refugees from Algeria started.

"The Grenoble conference," said Mr. Samuel, "has demonstrated the determination of French Jewry, as well as Jews outside this country, to implement concrete plans which should result in the integration of the Algerian Jewish refugees into French life at the earliest possible time."

GERMAN PARTY WHICH BROUGHT HITLER TO POWER MAKES PLANS FOR REVIVAL

HAMBURG, Sept. 18. (JTA) -- Plans for reconstituting the prewar German National Peoples Party, considered a reservoir of right-wing and other conservative elements in West Germany, were revealed here today.

The party's "preparatory commission" today confirmed it had sent out notices to its leading cadres, calling for a national convention to be held next Sunday to revive the organization. An influential political grouping during the Weimar Republic, the old German National Peoples Party was instrumental in bringing Hitler to power in 1933.

The police chief of Mannheim who stated that not enough Jews had been killed by Hitler was today declared not guilty of making anti-Semitic remarks, by a court at Weinheim, in the State of Baden.

WASHINGTON MONETARY PARLEY FINDS ISRAEL'S CURRENCY POLICY SOUND

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18. (JTA) -- Israel's improved financial situation was stressed today by Per Jacobson, managing director of the International Monetary Fund in an annual report on world currency conditions at the 1962 meeting here on the Fund's board of governors.

"Israel, in January of this year, after detailed discussions with the Fund, adopted a new par value, discarding its previous system of complex multiple rates," Mr. Jacobson reported. "It did so without requesting the financial assistance of the Fund, being confident, as developments have borne out, that its reserves would steadily increase after the new par value had been fixed."

Israel's monetary progress and achievements were singled out for favorable comment in light of the Fund's desire to achieve simplicity and uniformity in exchange rates, to make the rate commensurate with actual purchase value.

Israel Finance Minister Levi Eshkol is in attendance at the world gathering which includes the boards of governors of the International Monetary Fund, the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, International Finance Corporation, and International Development Association. Mr. Eshkol is scheduled to make an oral report.

MIZRACHI WOMEN'S CONVENTION ADOPTS $1,285,000 BUDGET FOR YEAR

NEW YORK, Sept. 18. (JTA) -- A budget totaling $1,285,000 was adopted here today by the Mizrahi Women's Organization of America to meet the needs of the organization's child care, social service and vocational training programs in Israel and to finance its educational and cultural activities in the United States during the coming year. The budget was approved at the 37th annual national convention here of the religious women's Zionist organization.

The largest allocation in the budget, $475,000, is earmarked for the maintenance and expansion of children's villages and youth centers in Israel caring for youngsters brought to Israel under the supervision of Youth Aliyah. Another $325,000 will be spent for vocational training and education in the five high schools sponsored by Mizrahi Women. Included in this allocation is $125,000 for equipping the Beersheba Vocational High School for Girls, which will open next month.

Principal speakers at the convention included Israel Ambassador Avraham Harman; Moshe Kol, world director of Youth Aliyah; and Rabbi Mordecai Kirshblum, president of the Religious Zionists of America. Mrs. Eli Resnikoff, of Brooklyn, was elected unanimously to the national presidency of the organization. She succeeds Mrs. Moses Dyckman, who was named to the honorary post of past national president.

DEMOCRATIC PARTY NAMES MORGENTHAU AS CANDIDATE FOR N.Y. GOVERNOR

NEW YORK, Sept. 18. (JTA) -- Robert M. Morgenthau, scion of a famous American Jewish family, was nominated today for the New York State Governorship by the Democratic state convention, meeting at Syracuse. Thus he will be the opponent, in next November's state election, of Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller, certain of nomination for re-election by the Republican Party convention at Buffalo.

Both major parties in this state are sure to have a total of four Jewish candidates for major office. The Republicans have scheduled nominations for re-electing United States Senator Jacob K. Javits and State Attorney General Louis J. Lefkowitz. The Democrats are slated to nominate for re-election State Controller Arthur Levitt.

The Democratic nominee for the governorship is a son of former U.S. Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr., a close associate of President Franklin D. Roosevelt. Henry Morgenthau, Sr., a supporter of President Woodrow Wilson, served as the United States Ambassador to Turkey, and was active on many other diplomatic missions under President Wilson.

Democratic Party Pledges Sunday Law Exemption for Orthodox Jews

SYRACUSE, N.Y., Sept. 18. (JTA) -- New York State's Democratic Party was pledged today to back new legislation permitting Jews who observe the Sabbath to keep their businesses open Sundays. At the same time, the Republican Party's state convention, meeting in Buffalo, has a similar plank as a proposal for its platform. The Republican platform is not as yet been adopted.

The Democratic state platform, adopted here yesterday, commits the party to back legislation assuring "fair treatment in trade to those who observe their Sabbath day a day other than Sunday."

A number of major Jewish organizations have petitioned the platform committees of the major parties to pledge support for such state legislation. The Union of Orthodox Rabbis of the United States and Canada had telegraphed the chairmen of the two platform committees, here and at Buffalo, declaring that the present State Blue Laws regarding Sunday closing "are unfair and discriminatory, and constitute in spirit a violation of religious freedom."

CHICAGO JEWISH FEDERATION PROCLAIMS JULIUS ROSENWALD CENTENNIAL

CHICAGO, Sept. 18. (JTA) -- A Julius Rosenwald centennial, honoring the memory of the late outstanding Jewish philanthropist, was proclaimed today by the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago. The Federation also announced that it will mark the centennial with a special dinner at which an award named for Julius Rosenwald will be presented.

It is expected that over 500 Chicagoans will attend the dinner, including officers, board members and supporters of the Jewish Federation and its 12 medical and social welfare agencies; the Jewish Welfare Fund; and descendants of men and women who served with Julius Rosenwald on the Jewish charities boards of directors.

For 25 years, Julius Rosenwald served on the board of directors of the Associated Jewish Charities, now called the Jewish Federation. For nine years he served as president. Mr. Rosenwald began his philanthropic endeavors in Chicago's Jewish community, but later his humanitarianism extended far beyond his city and its Jewish community, reaching around the world and across religious, national and racial barriers. He was born in Springfield, Ill., in 1862 and died in Chicago in 1932.

JERUSALEM, Sept. 18. (JTA) -- A 500-acre land reclamation and afforestation project, named after Colonel Jacob M. and Mrs. Edith Freeman Arvey, of Chicago, was dedicated at impressive ceremonies held in the Jerusalem hills today. Colonel Arvey, one of the leading Jewish communal leaders in Chicago, and his wife were manifestly moved as the project was formally named in their honor by Dr. Yosef Burg, Minister of Social Welfare and Dr. Joseph V. eitz, acting director of the Jewish National Fund.

Before Israeli dignitaries and a delegation representing Chicago Jewry, Colonel Arvey thanked the Government of Israel for dedicating the project to him and Mrs. Arvey, stating that the tribute belonged to the Chicago Jewish community whose contributions made the project possible. After the ceremonies, Col. and Mrs. Arvey were guests of honor at a reception at the headquarters of the Jewish National Fund, which has jurisdiction over the land reclamation and afforestation work in Israel.
