

Jewish Telegraphic Agency

DAILY NEWS BULLETIN

660 FIRST AVENUE

NEW YORK 16, N.Y.

Contents Copyright: Republication only by previous arrangement

Vol. XXXIII - 49th year

Tuesday, November 8, 1966

No. 214

EBAN PESSIMISTIC ABOUT EFFECT OF SYRIAN-EGYPTIAN MILITARY AGREEMENT

JERUSALEM, Nov. 7. (JTA) -- Abba Eban, Israel's Foreign Minister, disagrees with those who view last week's new, Syrian-Egyptian military treaty as a positive development that would contribute toward peace on Israel's border with Syria.

Evaluating the foreign affairs situation before a meeting of the Cabinet here, late last night, Mr. Eban said that Syria's recent actions in encouraging and not halting terrorist raids into Israel were the result of the internal situation inside Syria.

(Iraq today pledged support to Syria against Israel although no formal pact exists between Syria and Iraq. In a broadcast over Radio Baghdad, Iraqi President Abdel Rahman Aref said Iraq would "rush to the aid" of Syria in event of military action by Israel. The Iraqi President said he regarded Iraq as a member of the military accord reached last week between Egypt and Syria.)

Mr. Eban also discussed with the Cabinet the results of last week's action in the United Nations Security Council, where only a Soviet veto prevented adoption of a resolution -- approved by 10 of the Council's 15 members -- linking Syria with the terrorist raids. He called Israel's move in taking the issue to the Security Council "successful," resulting in important moral backing for Israel's accusations against Syria.

The Cabinet meeting took under consideration the budget for the next fiscal year, presented by the Treasury, calling for expenditures totaling about $1,667,000,000, an 8 percent increase over the current budget. The Cabinet, which will vote on the budget in the next two weeks, noted that almost the entire increase in the Government's expenditures during the fiscal year to begin next April 1 will go for development, and that no rise is expected in the ordinary budget.

At the Cabinet session a ministerial committee was named to inquire into the proposals for raising tuition fees in Israel's universities and other institutions of higher learning. Students who are opposing the tuition increases called a one-day general strike last week in protest against those proposals.

ISRAEL ANNOUNCES ABOLISHMENT OF MILITARY ADMINISTRATION FOR ARABS

JERUSALEM, Nov. 7. (JTA) -- Israel's Government announced early today that the system of military government over certain border areas and other regions heavily populated by Israeli Arabs will definitely be abolished as of December 1.

The announcement was made by Prime Minister Levi Eshkol after a late-night meeting of the Cabinet. He had assured the Cabinet that the security of the state could be ensured without continuance of the military government. He said in his official announcement that the duties of the military governor system would be turned over to the relevant civilian authorities.

It was revealed, however, that about 250 Arab citizens of Israel, who are on a special "blacklist," will still be under military rule, will have to reside in special areas, and will not be allowed to travel without special passes. The 250 are men who have either committed serious offenses against the security of the state, or are known for their extreme, pro-Arab nationalist views.

TALKS ON AMERICAN-ISRAEL NUCLEAR DESALINATION START TOMORROW

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7. (JTA) -- The first exploratory talk on implementation of a joint American-Israeli nuclear desalination project will take place here Wednesday when Ephraim Ben Arzi, newly appointed Israeli desalination coordinator, meets here with U.S. Ambassador-at-Large Ellsworth Bunker.

Mr. Bunker was personally designated by President Lyndon B. Johnson to evaluate the long-delayed undertaking and make recommendations. The plan was declared feasible by a joint study group but a question of financing remained along with other economic issues.

BEN-GURION REVEALS SUGGESTION OF NORTH VIET NAM'S COMMUNIST LEADER

HAIFA, Nov. 7. (JTA) -- North Viet Nam's Politburo chairman, Ho Chi Minh, suggested to David Ben-Gurion in 1946 that he proclaim a Jewish Government in Exile, and establish such a government's headquarters in North Viet Nam, Mr. Ben-Gurion revealed last night.

Addressing a rally here, at which the audience included many young people, most of them students, Israel's former Prime Minister disclosed that information in telling of his meeting with Ho Chi Minh in Paris, where he and the North Viet Nam leader lived at the same hotel. They had become "very friendly," Mr. Ben-Gurion said and, in the course of one conversation, the North Viet Nam leader made that suggestion after Mr. Ben-Gurion had told him of the Jewish problem. "For obvious reasons," Mr. Ben-Gurion stated, "this was unacceptable."

Mr. Ben-Gurion said that he felt that, if he should write to Ho Chi Minh, the latter might invite him to visit North Viet Nam. The former Prime Minister discussed many other issues in the course of the meeting. Concerning possible immigration of Russian Jews, he said "there is constant action" in the Soviet Union, adding that "Russia is not blind to world public opinion." Asked whether he thought Israel should take steps to increase its birth rate, he declared: "If the Government should take such measures, it must attempt also to encourage an increase in the birth rate among the Arabs in Israel."

BONN WORRIED OVER SUCCESS OF NEO-NAZIS IN HESSE STATE ELECTIONS

BONN, Nov. 7. (JTA) -- Democratic forces throughout West Germany expressed deep concern today over the results in yesterday's state elections in the Province of Hesse, where the ultra-right-wing National Democratic Party, a fusion which includes many ex-Nazis and neo-Nazis, scored its first important victory. For the first time, the NDP has won seats in a state parliament. The NDP will hold, as a result of yesterday's balloting, eight of the 96 seats in the Hesse Parliament.

In some districts in Hesse, a state in the heart of West Germany's industrial and commercial life, including the cities of Frankfurt and Wiesbaden, the NDP scored as high as 10 percent of the total ballot. The NDP failed to qualify as a party entitled to representation in the state parliament in only three voting districts in the entire state.

The Social Democrats, leading party in the state, garnered 52 seats in Parliament. Chancellor Ludwig Erhard's Christian Democratic Party came next, with 26 seats, while the Free Democratic Party won 10 seats. The small Federation for Refugees and Disfranchised, which has been in the Social Democrat-dominated State coalition, did very badly in the voting.

Minister of the Interior Paul Luecke, who had some months ago openly called the NDP a "neo-Nazi" group, said today that the party's strength in the elections -- in which it had polled more than 200,000 Hesse votes -- is "an alarm signal that should not be played down." "All the strength of democracy must be put into action to counter it," he added.

Bruno Heck, another member of the Cabinet, said: "I am very worried. These people are not old Nazis; they are the new generation, between 18 and 30." Eric Mende, leader of the Free Democratic Party, also took note of the fact that many young people had cast their ballots for the NDP ticket.

The only voice in official Germany that applauded the voting results was Heinrich Fassbender, leader of the NDP in Hesse. He ignored charges that, during the election campaign, the Nazi trend of his membership had shown up in the fact that the campaign posters of many other candidates had been smeared with swastikas. He said outright today that the Hesse results have projected the NDP onto the national political scene. "This election," he boasted, "is the springboard from which we shall jump into national politics."

YEVTUSHENKO STARTS VISIT IN U.S. WITH READING HIS 'BABI YAR' POEM

NEW YORK, Nov. 7. (JTA) -- Yevgeny Yevtushenko, the Soviet Union's most prominent modern poet, began a six-week visit in the United States last night with a reading at Queens College of "Babi Yar," his best-known poem, which condemns anti-Semitism and which is named for the ravine in Kiev where tens of thousands of Jews were killed by the Nazis.

Mr. Yevtushenko is scheduled to appear on Wednesday and Saturday at the 92nd Street Young Men's and Young Women's Hebrew Association in New York. Luring his visit to this country, the Soviet poet will also appear in Princeton, Buffalo, Pittsburgh, Washington, Chicago and Berkeley, Cal.

ISRAEL MINISTER CONFERS WITH U.S. SECRETARY OF COMMERCE IN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7. (JTA) -- Chaim Zadok, Israel Minister of Commerce and Industry, met with U.S. Secretary of Commerce John T. Conner and reviewed American-Israel trade relations.

U.J.A. TO MAP PLANS FOR 1967 CAMPAIGN AT CONFERENCE IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Nov. 7. (JTA) -- Vice-President Hubert H. Humphrey, Foreign Minister of Israel Abba S. Eban, and Louis A. Pincus, chairman of the Jewish Agency for Israel, will head the roster of distinguished American and international figures who will participate in the 29th Annual National Conference of the United Jewish Appeal to be held at the New York Hilton Hotel, Friday through Sunday, December 9-11, it was announced today by Max M. Fisher, general chairman of the nationwide UJA.

Mr. Fisher also announced that representatives of the Jewish communities of Europe and Latin America have been invited to participate in the Conference which will bring together 2,500 American Jewish leaders from all parts of the nation. The Conference will mark the 18th Anniversary of the State of Israel and will chart the UJA's campaign for 1967.

"It is most fitting," said Mr. Fisher, "that the UJA Conference should celebrate this exalted event in Jewish history -- the Year 18 of Israel's rebirth, the Year 'Chai,' the Year of Life. Saving lives and renewing lives has been the UJA's only mission since its inception. But our greatest achievements have come since the establishment of the State of Israel, which opened the gate to freedom for one and a half million uprooted or despairing Jews."

"In partnership with Israel's people," Mr. Fisher declared, "the steadfast UJA supporters year after year have helped in the resettlement and rehabilitation of this vast Jewish migration to freedom and have placed most of the immigrants on the road to a brighter future."

Highlight of the three-day Conference sessions will be the traditional banquet on Saturday evening, when the major speakers will include Vice-President Humphrey, Mr. Eban and Mr. Pincus. The three-day sessions in New York will bring together Jewish leaders representing hundreds of communities from all parts of the country. They will close the UJA's 1966 campaign, set the national campaign goal for 1967, chart plans for achieving that goal, and elect a general chairman and other officers for the coming year.

BRANDEIS UNIVERSITY TO LAUNCH $46,000,000 DEVELOPMENT CAMPAIGN

WALTHAM, Mass., Nov. 7. (JTA) -- A $46,000,000 two-year development campaign primarily to augment and strengthen its academic programs will be inaugurated by Brandeis University in conjunction with its forthcoming 20th anniversary, it was announced here today.

The campaign will be nationally launched on Saturday, Nov. 19, at a dinner in New York City. This will be followed by regional dinners across the country. Principally, the development campaign will seek funds to establish new schools, create endowed faculty chairs, fellowships and scholarships, and underwrite several special academic programs.

A special feature of the campaign will be the implementation of the University's first Annual Giving Program, whose ultimate objective will be raising $10,000,000 yearly to bolster general funds required to help Brandeis meet day-to-day operating costs.

The campaign to raise the $46,025,000 will culminate in the fall of 1968, when the University will begin its 20th academic year. Brandeis opened its doors in 1948, with a student body of 109, a faculty of 13, and four buildings on an undeveloped 90-acre site. Now, the University consists of more than 50 major facilities, a student body of more than 2,400, and a faculty of 325.

J.T.A. MCURNS DEATH OF SOL SATINSKY; SERVED ON ITS BOARD SINCE 1962

NEW YORK, Nov. 7. (JTA) -- Tribute to Sol Satinsky, noted American Jewish leader who died in Philadelphia, was paid here today by Eleazar Lipsky, president of the Jewish Telegraphic Agency, on behalf of the JTA Board of Directors and the staff. Mr. Satinsky, who was a member of the JTA Board since 1962, played an important role in the reorganization of the news agency as a communal institution. Mr. Lipsky's statement reads:

"Sol Satinsky had a deep and abiding love for history and a firm belief in education. These were fused in his interest in the Jewish Telegraphic Agency which he saw as the recorder of history in the making and as a solid educational force. He joined the Board of JTA in 1962 to lend his strength and weight to the efforts which culminated in the reorganization of JTA as a community-owned instrument.

"Mr. Satinsky, as a member of the JTA Finance Committee, kept in close contact with its officers and staff on many aspects of the JTA work. He was particularly interested in the use of the JTA services as an educational medium and as a means of developing and maintaining the interest of American Jews in the Jewish communal life and thought. He encouraged JTA in these directions and personally aided in establishing closer relations between JTA and the educational and cultural organizations to which he devoted so much time and energy. He will be missed in our councils."

AFFLUENCE SEEN AS CONTRIBUTING TO DECLINE OF JUDAISM IN U.S.

BOSTON, Nov. 7. (JTA) -- American Jewry, like Jewry the world over, faces the problem of saving Judaism itself, Rabbi Immanuel Jakobovits, the newly-elected Chief Rabbi of the British Commonwealth, told an audience of 750 persons here last night, celebrating the 25th anniversary of the Associated Synagogues of Massachusetts.

"The affluence and freedom that exists for Jews in this country," he declared, "is as big a factor in the decline of Judaism as is the repression behind the Iron Curtain. American Jews are more familiar with the stars of Hollywood than with the revered names of the Bible or with the Jewish sages. We must imbue Jews with a sense of urgency about maintaining Judaism, the same sense of urgency that marked the Zionist movement that led to the formation of the State of Israel."

Stressing the primacy of Jewish education, Rabbi Jakobovits, however, said he was hopeful of Judaism's future. "I believe," he declared, "we have reached the bottom of the estrangement, and a resurgence is taking place." The freedom which Jewish youth is experiencing on the American campuses, he said, "is leading them to a stronger belief in the credo of their religion."

MEDICAL SCHOOL IN JERUSALEM GETS U.S. GRANTS FOR CANCER RESEARCH

JERUSALEM, Nov. 7. (JTA) -- A number of American research funds have allocated grants to the Hebrew University-Hadassah Medical School for research on preventive treatment for cancer, it was announced here today. The grants will provide 500,000 pounds ($167,000) per year for several years. Research under the program will be concentrated on prevention of cancer in the female breast.

Meanwhile, the Weizmann Institute of Science in Rehovot announced today that an important group of West German scientists are expected to arrive in this country this week to hold consultations with Israeli scientists. The German delegation will be headed by Professor Wolfgang Gentner.

PIONEER WOMEN ORGANIZATION ADOPTS $750,000 PROJECT FOR ISRAEL

NEW YORK, Nov. 7. (JTA) - The adoption of a $750,000 project for the building of 12 new community centers in Israel and the launching of a new concept in the integration of Israel's newcomers were among the highlights of a four-day major policy conference of top Pioneer Women leaders in New York which concluded here yesterday.

The conference was attended by 75 Pioneer Women Larger National Board members and regional chairmen representing 50,000 Pioneer Women throughout the United States. Mrs. Rose Kaufman, national president, said that the 12 new community centers, many of which will be in the new development towns in the Negev and Upper Galilee area, will include facilities for day nurseries, vocational training classes, clubs for women, and general community gatherings.

The Pioneer Women governing body also announced the launching of a program of Child Home Care for Israel's youngest newcomers. Concerned with the adjustment of the child to his new environment, Pioneer Women through its sister organization in Israel (Moetzet Epaoalot), is sending teams of social workers, nurses, and teachers to newcomers' homes throughout the country where personal instruction will be given mothers in child hygiene, feeding, and child development. The new program attempts to work through the child, in the most familiar of his surroundings, to advance the integration of the entire family.

HISTADRUT CAMPAIGN LAUNCHED IN BOSTON; $100,000 RAISED AT MEETING

BOSTON, Nov. 7. (JTA) -- The 43rd annual Histadrut campaign in Greater Boston was launched last night at an initial gifts meeting at the home of Alexander Shapiro, general campaign chairman with a total of $100,000 pledged toward the goal of $180,000 sought this year in Boston. The national goal of the Israel Histadrut campaign is $5,000,000.

The meeting was addressed by Bernard M. Bloomfield of Montreal, president of the Canadian Association for Labor Israel, who stressed the vocational training program of Histadrut in which 10,000 youngsters in Israel are enrolled. Mr. Bloomfield reported that the Histadrut trade school network must double its capacity by 1970 in order to accommodate the teenagers applying for secondary vocational training.

RABBI FERBER, LEADING FIGURE OF WORLD ORTHODOX JEWRY, DIES IN LONDON

LONDON, Nov. 7. (JTA) -- Funeral services were held here today for Rabbi Firsch Ferber, rabbi of the West End Synagogue from 1913 to 1959, considered one of the world's leaders in Orthodox Jewry, an author and a leader of Agudath Israel World Organization. He was 84. For 10 years, he was chairman of the Association of London Rabbis. He was also a member of the Rabbinical Council. He had written widely on Jewish law and tradition. Among his survivors is a son, Rabbi Jacob Ferber, who has held, among other posts, that of officiating chaplain of the Royal Air Force.